More Trouble For White,-A nt was issued yesterday by J rant was issued yesterday by Judge Dana T. Smith for the arrest of W. J. White, on a complaint charging him with obtaining money under false pre-tenses. White had a hearing in the criminal division of the city court for the same alleged offense, and was dis-charged. He is accused of having sold two horses, a cow and some house-hold effects, upon which there was a chattel mortgage.

Jessup Vietorious.—A Sait Lake stu-dent in the Colombia School of Mines, Douglas W. Jessup, has been having a strenuous time of it. He is a mem-ber of the Columbian editorial board, a local college periodical, and because by got out an annual publication called the Columbia Year Book, on his own account, without standing in with the rest of the Columbian board, a majority of the board threw him out and at-tempted to discredit him before the tempted to discredit him before the university at large, alleging he was working against the interest of the Columbian for personal reasons. Mr. Jessup, who is president of the Sophomore class, called a class meeting, and by a vote of 57 to 35 the board was turned down, and he was ordered reinstated, after a very stormy meeting in which the minority made a stubborn fight. Mr, Jessup will spend the sum-mer surveying in Litchfield county,

IN JUDGE DIEHL'S COURT.

Auto Driver Fined $5 for Violating Speed Law.

In the criminal division of the city court, Frank Pierce, Lester Freed and S. D. Finney were arraigned upon a complaint charging them with exceeding the auto speed jimit. The first two were discharged, but Mr. Finney was called upon to contribute $5 to the city treasury. From the evidence adduced treasury. at the hearing, it appears that he was warned by an officer not to continue going at a reckless rate through the streets, but disobeyed the hjunction. A. H. Cutwright, charged with as-sault upon the person of E. D. Wil-liams, had a hearing before Judge Diehl, Trouble occurred between the two men over differences in a real estate deal, and Cutwright was accused by Williams of battering him. The case was taken under advisement.
