General Prosperity - Holiday Reunions of Old and Young-Reception to Missionaries.

Randolph, Rich Co., Jan. 1 .-- Notwithstanding the loss to farmers in the year just past by frosts and other unfavorable meteorological conditions there is no suffering from want of the necessaries of life. The merchants and implement houses have been quite busy all fall and winter and report fair success in their annual collections.

HOLIDAY REUNIONS.

The holidays passed off most pleasantly with feasting and dancing. The festivities opened with a social party on Christmas evening. The ward gave a public dinner on Thursday in the meeting house, all the floor space was taken up with tables covered with snow-white linen and spread with all the substantials and delicacies of the season, from those mysterious dishes with French names down to stewed sage-hen and fried sucker. The demand for seats so exceeded the supply that it was necessary to have a first, second and third After all were satiated a short pro-

The weather is all that can be desired, nights cool, just enough ice to afford skaling in the forenoon; the warm days asserting their benign influence later on. Ploughing, watering, filling reservoirs, etc., are every day occurrences The Forest reserve business is having a demoralizing influence upon the sheet men; our country is rapidly changing from cattle to sheep ranges, and so ong as sheep and wool command fair prices, ways and means will be found to graze over most of the country.

PUMPING PLANTS WANTED.

We are short of water at times, and still have large quantities near the surface. We would be pleased to learn through the columns of the "News" the simplest and best methods that are successfully used to raise water from depths varying from 15 to 30 feet. The only means tried as yet is the wind mill this is all right, if some one could insure the wind; but, unfortunately, during the hot, dry season, the wind is also short. Some simple, easy made contrivance, that can be run by one or more horses, is what we want. Who can and will inform us?

The new city council was called to order by Mayor M. S. Browning, at 7:40 o'clock last evening, a complete quorum of the council being present.

Councilman Parry was chosen tem-porary chairman, being escorted to the president's chair by Councilmen Thomas and Jones.

On the putting of a motion to pro-ceed to the election of a permanent president the council nearly succeeded n tying itself up, but the matter was finally straightened out and nomina-tions were declared in order.

Councilmen H. H. Thomas, J. Abbbott, Joseph Parry and Geo. W. Jones were nominated. Voting was done by ballot with the following result elected and was escorted to the chair by Councilmen Abbott and Jones.

Thomas, 6; Abbott, 2; Parry, 1; Jones, 1. Councilman Thomas was declared

He thanked the council for the honor conferred, and said he would give the office of president as well as councilman the best of his ability and perform his duties with fidelity. He hoped the members would work in harmony with one common aim in view-the best interests of the city.

On motion the chair appointed Councilmen Brown and Carr and himself a committee on rules to report at next meeting, after which the council adjourned to meet at 8 o'clock p. m. Monday, Jan. 8.
