

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

PRESIDENT YOUNG AND PARTY.—By a dispatch received this morning per Deseret Telegraph Line, we learn that President Young and party stayed at Bellevue last night, and will stay at Cedar City to-night. The weather is very stormy in the South.

NEW WORK.—We find on our table, this morning, a new illustrated work, entitled, "White Supremacy and Negro Subordination," by J. H. Van Evrie, M. D. The object of the work is to show the superiority of the Caucasian over the Negro and all other races. The principal arguments are based mainly on physiological and intellectual grounds. The work is neatly gotten up and will doubtless prove interesting to those who trouble themselves about the question treated upon.

THE DISPATCHES.—It will be observed that there has been nothing particularly startling in the dispatches of the last few days, yet they are not without interest. Matters in and around Paris are rapidly moving toward a climax. The Prussians are drawing in and around the city, closer and closer, and before long, there will doubtless be a grand set-to. France, it seems, has now given up all hope of armed intervention in her behalf. Surely the year 1870 will be long remembered as having been fraught with great events.

THE EXCURSIONISTS.—The large excursion party, en route for California, that was in town yesterday, left the depot last evening at half past seven o'clock.

THE MINSTRELS.—There was a tolerably fair attendance at the Theatre last evening to witness and listen to the performance of the Minstrels. From the applause elicited from the audience it must have been exceedingly pleasing to some, but then it is not always safe to judge of the merits of a performance by such expressions. It seems there are some who go to the Theatre determined to laugh and cheer and they manage to do so whether there is anything worth laughing at or applauding or not. It is generally conceded that their performance of the troupe last evening was better than those given on their previous visit.

FROM SANPETE.—Elder George Farnworth, of Mount Pleasant, Sanpete County, called to-day. He states that over fifty head of stock have died in Mount Pleasant during the past month. This unusually large mortality among the cattle there is supposed to be caused by the alkali rising to the surface of the ground, which is occasioned by the dryness of the season. In most cases the cattle have died within a few hours after they were taken sick.

PETRIFFIED BACON.—Among the novelties to be exhibited at the fair at Sacramento City is a slab of petrified bacon. It was found in 1865 near one of Fremont's old camps, and is believed to have been a part of the provender of the party.

DIED.—At Wellsville, Cache County, on September 12th, 1870, of cholera infantum, James Nowlin, son of James and Ester Williamson, aged eight months and one day. Mill. Star, please copy.

BEES, AND SO FORTH.—W. D. Roberts, of Provo, called this morning. It will be remembered that his name has been frequently mentioned in connection with bee culture in this Territory. He will still continue his labors in that direction. He states that the Italian bee has proved such a decided success, in Utah, that he proposes to import it in preference to all other kinds. Brother Roberts will leave for the East some time in November, when he will not only import a large number of hives of the Italian bee, but will purchase on commission, improved breeds of live stock, such as horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, poultry, etc. We are pleased that Brother Roberts is taking hold of these matters, as we believe that improving the breeds of stock will materially enrich the Territory.

FOOT-BRIDGE ACROSS THE WEBER.—We were pleased to notice, yesterday, a good foot-bridge added to the U. C. R. R. bridge across the Weber River. It is built on the projecting ties on the south side of the track and nicely boarded in on each side. It has long been needed, as, at some seasons of the year, when the river is high, it is quite dangerous crossing it there with teams, and at such times the residents of West Weber have been put to great inconvenience to get to Ogden. They will doubtless appreciate the new improvement.

Died:

At her residence, 16th Ward, this morning, Ann Elizabeth Jones, wife of Bradford Leonard, aged 58 years and 1 month. The funeral will take place at 2 p. m. tomorrow, from residence. Friends are especially invited to attend. Jerseyville Republicans, please copy.
