It is likely that J. M. Whitmore, late of the Price Trading company which sold out its mercantile business, will be president, and A. McClovney, an experenced man from Nevada, Mo., cashier. A meeting will be held in September at which time a charter will be applied for. It will be open and ready for business the first of January. Senator George C. Whitmore of Nephi will be argely interested, as will also a number f prominent stock men and others throughout this section of the State. SURVEYING COAL LANDS.

A. D. Ferron of Salt Lake City is here this wheek surveying large areas of coal lands for the Gilson-Milner synthe west half of block 28 to be twenty feet, the east half 8 feet, the west half dicate which has some fifteen sections of coal lands staked off to the north and east of Price. The work will take sayeral weeks, and then Mr. Ferron will do similar work for Messrs. Whitmore Bros. & Ballinger, who have a valuable mine some eight miles north of town.

THE OIL LOCATIONS.

The country is still overrun with oil experts who are taking up lands, not by the acre or section, but refer to their holdings as representing so many square miles of territory. The come from every part of the country, and while they leave more or less money in the country none have yet begun to do any actual work.

COKING AND HARD COAL. Alex Hillstrom, who hails from California, is back in Price after spending wo weeks with a party of surveyors in Convulsion canyon in Sevier and Emery counties, where he took up sev-eral sections of coal lands and upon which there are said to be good veins of coking and hard coal. He has also a large deposit of stuff which looks much like pitch and which he thinks is a superior grade of asphaltum. He is
