California Delegation to Denver
Convention Shown Good Time
In Salt Lake.

DINE AT COMMERCIAL CLUB

Delegates Attend Organ Recital at the Tabernacle Before Continuing
Eastward Journey

The California delegation to the annual convention of the American Bankers' association, held in Denver this week, arrived in this city early yesterday afternoon. They were taken in hand by members of the Salt Lake Clearing House association, and shown over the town in automobiles. After the principal points of interest in the city had been seen, the visitors were taken to the Commercial club, where a fine luncheon was given by the Salt Lake bankers. Then, as there was time, the guests were favored with a special organ recital in the tabernacle, after which they were escorted to the Hotel Grand depot to resume their eastward journey. Among the delegation was E. W. Wilson, formerly cashier of the Commercial National bank in this city, and now vice president of the American National bank of San Francisco. He was warmly welcomed by old Salt Lake friends.

OPPOSED TO SYSTEM.

One of the delegates said that the majority of California bankers were opposed to the system adopted in Oklahoma, where the state guaranteed bank deposits, as they believed in curing existing evils in the banking industry rather than from the outside. In California, the clearing house system gives absolute protection to the depositor without affecting the individual banks. In California, the clearing house system is being extended by the establishment of district clearing houses, which brings in all of the banking institutions.

PERSONNEL OF DELEGATION.

JESSE KNIGHT DECLINES.

Sends Letter to Chairman Martineau Which Puts Quies on Rumors.

That Uncle Jesse Knight of Provo, absolutely is out of consideration as a candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket is now a matter of record. Lyman R. Martineau, state chairman, having received a letter which cleared up the controversy as to the matter. The letter declining to make the race is as follows:

"Provo, Utah, Sept. 25, 1908.—To the Democratic State Committee, Hon. L. R. Martineau, Chairman, Salt Lake City, Utah—Gentlemen: At the Demo-

Dr. Price's Wheat Flake Celery Food

There is a constant rise in the cost of meats. The intrinsic nourishing qualities which Dr. Price's Food contains makes it a substitute for meat. If people would eat this good and wholesome food and leave off meats during the hot weather, they would be a hundred per cent better off in health and purse.

At the state convention, recently held at Logan, Utah, I was, so I am informed, nominated for governor of the state of Utah. I hereby notify you that I cannot accept such nomination and hereby decline the same, and respectfully direct that my name be not placed upon the Democratic state ticket. I will therefore select some other name to take the place of mine. My reasons for this action have been heretofore fully stated by me and discussed in all the newspapers of the state and need not be further repeated. I will say, however, that I find the duties of the office would require my whole attention and, owing to my age, I have not the time nor the strength to give to the position. My mining interests are in such condition as to demand my closest attention and I feel it a duty to myself and thousands of friends who have invested their money in mining propositions under my management to continue to accompany my personal attention. From the commencement I have insisted to all my friends that I could not accept the nomination, and to none have I ever said that I would accept and most of my intimate friends promised that they would not force me into the position where I would be embarrassed and have to refuse. As I have said before I feel that I can do more good for the state of Utah and her people as a private citizen than I could do as governor of the state. My only desire is to be left to work out my own plans, to work for the building up of the interests of the state—not as a public officer, but as a private citizen. I have tried to show my faith in Utah and her people by my works; please let me do the future as a citizen who loves the state and not as a public officer. Ever desiring the success of the Democratic party in the state and nation, I am

POLITICAL POINTERS

The weekly calendar: Tonight, at the Salt Lake theater, "American" party state convention.

Tonight, at the Palace, speech by Thomas H. Hinson, Independence party candidate for the presidency.

Tuesday—Republican county convention, Salt Lake theater.

Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.—Speech at Social headquarters, by V. R. Bohman, candidate for governor of Utah.

Wednesday—Democratic county and judicial district elections.

Thursday—Open date.

Friday—Democratic state committee meeting.

Saturday—Open date.

The "American" party has brought out former Senator Frank J. Cannon as chairman of the state convention, to be held in the Salt Lake theater. It is the first public appearance of Senator Cannon in "American" party activities for a considerable period of time.

Republicans tomorrow will have some troubles of their own in selecting delegates to the national convention, which nominations. The east side of Salt Lake county is understood to be solidly behind the claims of Walter J. Burton of Forest Dale for county commissioner. John J. May, a prominent incumbent, has a good sized boom on the west side, and there are others.

Who will get the Republican nomination for sheriff? Chief Deputy Joseph Sharp has the largest boom in sight in the city. Mr. Naylor seems to have the outside districts pretty well settled down in his pocket, and that creates a situation which will make the fight for sheriff a convention feature.

D. C. Jackling is the latest aspirant for a Republican nomination to the state senate. Another candidate comes from the Murray constituency, which is on Saturday. He is "Doc" Woodring, and has the caucus votes behind him, while T. L. Holman of Bingham has announced himself for the lower house.

Daniel Harrington has addressed the following letter to Chairman Ed Looze of the Republican state committee, Sept. 25, 1908.

Col. Ed Looze; and Republican State Committee, Judge Building, City, Dear Sirs: While the candidates are so successful in the state convention, the ticket nominated is my ticket and I wish to see every man on it elected.

The convention was one of the best ever held in any state, and I am firmly convinced, that any defects we have can be corrected within the party, as the state convention showed that the delegates were independent, able men and that they gave all a square deal.

My sons are at your disposal and I will be glad to fill any appointments you may make that will not interfere with urgent professional work. Yours truly, DANIEL HARRINGTON.

Socialism as a force in Utah politics will receive expression tomorrow night in a lecture at the Odd Fellows hall in Postoffice place, the speaker being V. R. Bohman, Socialist candidate for governor; Charles Crane and Henry W. Lawrence, candidates for the state senate. They are among the state in the interests of Socialism.

With Lamont Call as chairman, the Republican county convention, which met at Lamon, has selected the following county and legislative ticket: Representative, John W. Thornley; county commissioner, four-year term, M. M. Whitesides; two-year term, A. C. Brown of Bountiful; clerk, Hiram O. Pack of West Bountiful; treasurer, Herbert Smith of Clearfield; sheriff, James Ware, Jr., of Layton; attorney, Henry W. Stahle; recorder, Leon Rogers; assessor, John C. Burnett of Clinton; surveyor, John C. Walker of Springdale; superintendent of schools, Hubert B. Burton of Kaysville.

The platform endorses the Roosevelt administration and the Taft candidacy as an expression of it.

The Democratic county convention, held in Richfield Saturday, was called to order by County Chairman J. B. Morrison, and after a spirited session selected the following candidates for office:

For representative, D. P. Jensen of Elsinore; for county commissioner, E. W. Crane, Sr., of Salina, four-year term; for county clerk, J. E. Hepler, Richfield, two-year term; for county attorney, J. F. McGregor, Richfield; for sheriff, George Callaway, Richfield; for superintendent of schools, Ernest Greenwood of Central; for treasurer, Russell Ivis of Richfield; for county clerk, M. Porter of Elsinore; for assessor, R. A. Lowe of Monroe.

Oluf Mickelson of Monroe was elected county chairman and A. J. Lewis of Salina, secretary.

The Civic Improvement league is in receipt of many letters of inquiry concerning the Des Moines plan of government, and some letters request speakers on the subject. To supply these demands, Frank B. Stephens and Judge William H. King have accepted several speaking dates. The league wishes it known that all requests from clubs for speakers will be filled, without charge to the clubs making the request, if the lecture is given in the Des Moines plan of government before the legislature meets. The committee now drafting a bill to be submitted to the next legislature is composed of Frank B. Stephens, W. H. King, John Weir, Oscar L. Cox and M. H. Walker.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

William Swanson Killed by Falling Down Shaft at Murray.

William Swanson, employed as a day laborer at the American Smelting and Refining company's plant at Murray, was instantly killed late Saturday afternoon by falling down a shaft. He was working with a wheelbarrow, and upon turning to the shaft, evidently thought the matter of fact it was not. The wheelbarrow went down the shaft and pulled the man with it. He was dead when taken out. The remains were brought to Salt Lake for interment, where they await instructions as to burial. A sister resides at Helena, Mont., but it is not known whether he has other relatives in this country. Swanson was a native of Sweden.

PREPARING FOR REUNION.

Elders and Saints of United States Missions Are Busy.

Active preparations are going on for the reunion of missionaries and saints of all the missions of the United States during conference week. The event is scheduled for Monday evening, Oct. 5, at Ogden hall, commencing at 8 o'clock. The best musical and literary talent obtainable will be secured for the occasion, and presidents of the various societies will endeavor to make the speakers. Refreshments will be served, and after the program, dancing will be engaged in. The proceeds of

AFRAID TO EAT.

Girl Starving on Ill-Selected Food.

"Several years ago I was actually starving," writes a girl, "yet dared not eat for fear of the consequences. I had suffered from indigestion from overwork, irregular meals and improper food, until at last my stomach became so weak I could eat scarcely any food without great distress."

"Many kinds of food were tried, all with the same discouraging effects. I steadily lost health and strength until I was but a wreck of my former self. Having heard of Grape-Nuts and its great merits, I purchased a package, but with little hope that it would help me—I was so discouraged."

"I found it not only appetizing but that I could eat it as I liked and that it satisfied the craving for food without causing distress, and if I may use the expression, 'it filled the bill.'"

"For months Grape-Nuts was my principal article of diet. I felt from the very first that I had found the right way to health and happiness, and my anticipations were fully realized. With its continued use I regained my usual health and strength. Today I am well and can eat anything I like, yet Grape-Nuts food forms a part of my bill of fare." "There's a reason."

HOLDUP SEASON AT HAND

Robber Forces Entrance to Deseret News Annex and Carries Off Gold Watch—Capture by Hagan.

The holdup season and the time when the second-story man climbs porches and pries open windows is at hand. It was reported to the police Sunday that some time Friday night or Saturday morning a robber forced open the door to the room of William H. Gerke in the Deseret News Annex and stole a gold watch valued at $25, a chain and ring. The police were given a description of the property and hope to locate it. C. Hogan, a special policeman, caught a man giving the name of H. C. Smith in the act of breaking into the California Fish company's place of business on west First South street. Smith was in the act of tearing off a screen on the rear door when Hogan saw him and quickly placed the fellow under arrest, and landed him behind the bars on the charge of burglary in the second degree.

The Ogden high school cadets and a company of the national guard will meet the governor and staff at the Ogden depot and the procession will march to the fair grounds headed by a brass band. The train carrying the governor and party will leave the Ogden depot at 10:30 a. m. on Wednesday, Sept. 30, and arrive at Ogden about 10:30 a. m. The four counties participating in the fair are Weber, Davis, Boxelder and Morgan.

SUNDAY FIRES.

Home of James Newton on Fifth East Street Badly Damaged.

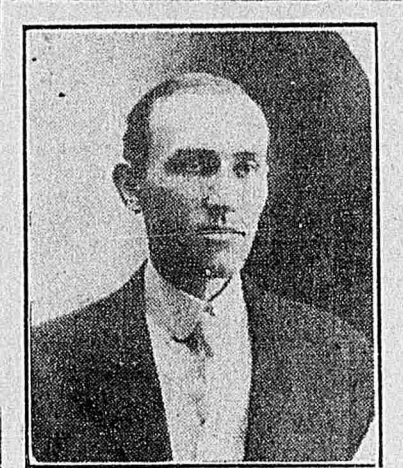

The fire department was called out to answer two alarms Sunday, one of the fires causing damage to the amount of $1,400. The blaze occurred about 2:30 in the afternoon at the home of James Newton, 624 south Fifth East street, and it is not known what caused the fire. Mr. Newton was the first to discover the place in flames and tried to extinguish the fire alone. The result was that he received severe burns about the face and hands. The department quickly answered the alarm put out the fire but not before $1,000 damage had been done to the building and $400 to the contents. A spark from the chimney set fire to the roof of the residence of Alexander Bong, 143 south Fifth East street yesterday morning but the blaze was extinguished before any material damage was done.

FUNERAL OF CYRUS E. SNELL.

Impressive Addresses by President Jos. F. Smith and Others.

Funeral services over the remains of Cyrus Edson Snell, who died at the home of his parents, 340 Lincoln Ave., on Wednesday, were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30, from the residence. The services were very impressive, and the musical features beautiful. A quartet composed of Misses Edna Evans and Hazel Barnes, and Fred Graham and Victor Christopherson, opened the ser-VICES, singing, "Abide With Me." Prof. J. J. McMillan acting as accompanist. The prayer was offered by Levi Edgar Young. The quartet then sang, "O My Father," which was followed by Prof. J. J. McMillan, singing, "The Roseary," by Prof. George E. Skelton.

Bryant S. Hinckley of the presidency of the first speaker. His remarks were directed along religious lines, and were comforting and consoling. The speaker called attention to the fact that when death enters a household and causes heartaches and pains the only source of comfort is the Savior.

The quartet sang, "Sometime You'll Understand." Seymour B. Young, a personal friend of the family, was the next speaker, and in the course of his remarks he paid a beautiful tribute to the family of the deceased, and also to the family of the widow, who before her marriage was Miss Minnie McClellan, sister of Prof. J. J. McClellan. Dr. Young referred to comforting passages of scripture calling attention particularly to the passage which says that all men who live must die, but the dead shall rise again.

Dr. Young then read a letter from a son, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." President Joseph F. Smith was the last speaker. He spoke very impressively on the sacredness of family ties, which although temporarily broken by death are eternal in their nature. President Smith expressed sympathy for the young widow and the bereaved family, and counseled faithful performance of duty to the Church, calling attention to the rewards which await those who are faithful.

The quartet sang as the closing number, "Rest, Rest for the Weary Soul." The body was taken to Spanish Fork, the former home of the deceased, Sunday morning, and interment was made in the cemetery at that place. A large company of friends from this city accompanied the remains.

Cyrus Edson Snell was one of the prominent young business men of Utah county, having held the position of cashier of the Payson Exchange Savings bank for a number of years.
