MEETS DEATH IN HAY FIELD

William J. Larkins of Farr-West Instantly Killed While Haying.

GIRL INJURED WHILE RIDING.

Miss Claribel Woods Thrown From Horse and Has Narrow Escape For Her Life.

Ogden, June 21.—William J. Larkins of Farr-West, one of the best known residents of Weber county, was killed yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock by being run over with a wagonload of hay.

Mr. Larkins was out in the hayfield a short distance from his home behind his son John haul hay. He was on the load, and was driving the team while his son pitched on the hay. They had practically finished loading, and Mr. Larkins was driving over two irrigating ditches. One of the horses jumped as it neared the ditch, jerking the load, and Mr. Larkins lost his balance and fell forward back of the horse, one of them it is believed, kicked him on the right temple, crushing in his skull, and then the loaded wagon passed over his body, crushing him badly, death resulting almost instantly. His son did not see him fall, and followed the team which ran away. He caught it on horseback, and did not know his father was not on the load until the team was stopped. A number of young ladies were engaged in picking strawberries only a few rods away, and they rushed to his assistance and moved him into the shade, but death had claimed him. He was carried to his son's home, but a few rods away, and prepared for burial. His sad death cast a gloom over the entire community where he was so well known and highly esteemed. Although he was 35 years of age last October, he enjoyed comparatively good health, and was full of life and vigor. He was a man of sterling qualities, possessing a most cheerful disposition, always had a pleasant and encouraging word for everybody. He was a faithful Latter-day Saint and an active worker in the Farr-West ward, where he will be greatly missed. Besides his wife he has three sons and two daughters; they are William Larkins, Mrs. Mary Laurence, Charles Larkins, also brothers and sisters and a host of friends who will mourn his demise. The time and place of funeral will be announced later.

MISS WOODS INJURED. Thrown From Horse and Received Dangerous Wounds.

Ogden, June 21.—Miss Claribel Woods, daughter of Architect Woods, met with a serious accident last evening by being thrown from a horse. With Miss Amy Clay and Miss Rosabelle Scowcroft, she was out horseback riding. While passing along Washington avenue, the electric car approached, and Miss Clay slowed up her horse, when Miss Woods attempted to pass, her horse shied and the rider was thrown to the pavement, with great force. Miss Clay's horse struck her on the back of the head with its shins, cutting a long gash, and with the other foot lacerated her arm. She was rendered unconscious, and could not be revived for an hour. Dr. E. C. Rich attended to her wounds, and she was removed to her home on Thirty-third street. Miss Clay was also thrown from her horse and suffered severe bruises. It is fortunate that Miss Wood's skull was not fractured from the heavy blow. It took several stitches to close up the ugly wound, which is back of her ear.

Miss Nannie sing but one solo and an encore, as the affair had been advertised as a concert to be given by Miss Nannie and her sisters, but her sisters, though younger in years, both possess magnificent voices, especially Miss Maggie, who has a rich strong soprano voice with great range and purity of tone. Miss Hazel, though but a child, possesses a wonderfully powerful contralto voice, which, with a few years of culture, will give her a place among the first ranks of vocalists. She also shows great ability as a violinist and cellist. Miss Nannie has truly a grand voice, and is today among the greatest singers of the world. The concert was a musical feast from beginning to end, which was truly appreciated by the audience who encircled each number several times. Mr. Tout and his daughters will appear in Salt Lake in concert in a short time.

HAGGARD'S SCHEMES.

Committee Reporting on Them Says They Are Too Large.

London, June 20.—Parliamentary papers were issued today containing the report of the departmental committee appointed by Arthur Balfour, when he was secretary of the colonies to inquire into H. Rider Haggard's recommendations for the establishment of agricultural settlements in the British colonies. The report generally is unfavorable. The committee considers Mr. Haggard's scheme to be large, and the management of a religious body (referring to the Salvation Army) is undesirable.

The committee also believes the expense would be greater than has been calculated, and that the prospects of the return of money advanced would be uncertain.

"Whether we turn to Canada, South Africa or Austria," the report says, "we fall to find an instance of a thoroughly successful effort at colonization."

GOOD BLOOD.

Good blood, good health; bad blood, bad health; there you have it. Why not help nature just a little and change the bad to the good? Bad blood to good blood; poor blood to rich blood! Ask your doctor how this applies to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and how it applies to you! Could anything be more fair?

PENNSYLVANIA RAILWAY OFFICE STATEMENT.

Philadelphia, June 20.—The following statement was furnished to the press from the Pennsylvania railroad office tonight:

"Some misunderstanding seems to have arisen in regard to the hearing before the interstate commerce commission on Thursday and Friday.

"There has been no invitation or request addressed by the commission to the presidents of the several roads to attend this hearing. The request as made is contained in a letter which is addressed to the Pennsylvania railroad, not to any specific officer. In response to this notice the Pennsylvania railroad company will be represented at the hearing by some witnesses and present some brief testimony.

"The important testimony, in reference to the distribution of cars—particularly during 1902 and 1903, when it has been alleged unfair discrimination was practiced—cannot be offered at this time, because, unfortunately, for lack of time, a complete statement on the subject cannot be prepared. The company maintains and is prepared to prove that no such unfair discrimination as that alleged was practiced, but to establish this fact clearly requires an expert analysis of the company's records, in which it is now engaged—a task which will necessarily consume several weeks.

"Vice President Thayer will be in Washington with Attorneys George Stuart Patterson and Thomas Patterson to represent the company."

It costs, but—

It costs to do things right; but it is worth all the money we put into it—all the strain on brain and heart—to do what's best for the American public, and do it first.

Each month we put into our magazine the very best we can get. We hold nothing back to "help out" the next issue—we take care of that number when its time comes. This is how it works:

We sent Vance Thompson to St. Petersburg to get the story of the opening of the Russian Duma, expecting it in time for August; but, after the July magazine had been on the presses a week, the story unexpectedly arrived—and it made us sit up. We confess that we didn't know much about the situation in Russia—no more than other careful observers—but this brilliant fact-story gave us our first real comprehensive view of what is going on there: The struggle-to-the-death between the puny Tsar, strong only in his "divine right," and the dead-in-earnest representatives of Russia's hundred and forty millions.

We didn't hesitate a minute or count the costs—any more than we counted consequences before publishing Lawson's attack upon the Big Life Insurance Companies or Sinclair's exposure of Beef Trust Horrors. We felt that you ought to have the real inside facts now—that you may fully understand the biggest movement going on in the world today and the greater events that will surely happen.

So we split open the already completed July number, jammed into it the sixteen extra pages (you see their peculiar numbering) at an extra cost of several thousand dollars, a lot of night-work, and the chance of coming out late.

It will be your loss, and ours, if you don't read it.

The July number was a "corker" already—hot shot from Lawson; from Teague on Bucket-Shop Steals; Russell on how the Japs are outdoing us; and exquisitely pathetic fact-story of Sophie Wright, the saint of New Orleans; the funniest Sea-serpent Story in a dog's age and nine other fiction stories of the highest order.

With this Duma fact-story, Everybody's is worth twenty-five cents of anybody's money. To the Tsar, if he heeds its warning, it is worth his Empire, perhaps his life.

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

New York, June 20.—Caleb H. Jackson, who said he was a manufacturer of Harrisburg, Pa., was arrested here today on a charge of embezzling $10,000 growing out of the sale of $50,000 worth of property by him as agent for B. F. Karns of Washington, D. C., and Los Angeles, to the Exploration company of New York. The prisoner was arraigned in the Tombs police court, and having waived examination was held for trial in $5,000 bail which was furnished.

Jackson said it was a purely business transaction, and that it would be shown there was no embezzlement. It appears from the papers in the case that Jackson, acting as agent for Karns, sold the property in question to the Exploration company on Jan. 18, 1905. Two days later Jackson sent Karns $4,000. The full amount involved in the deal, $54,000, was in three checks, and it was shown that they were cashed by Jackson on Jan. 18, 1905.
