tempt is made to quote a line of the law which is said to confer them, for the simple reason that there is no such law on the statute books of the Territory or of the United States.

The action of the Clerk of the House of Representatives seems to trouble "the friends of Mr. Camp bell" more than anything else that has taken place in connection with this dispute. And those who are not familiar with the law, and with the facts in the outrageous complia cy by which it was sought to subvert the wishes of nearly all the voters of this Territory, may think that something irregular and improper has taken place. But we ad-vise them to wait awhile. It will be seen when the whole case comes to be ventilated that the Clerk has done just right in the matter, that he has violated no law, but has acted strictly in accordance therewith and with his duty.

The law requires the Governor to "declare the person having the Best and largest collection of vegetables,g greatest number of votes duly elected," This he refused to do, but presumed to declare something for which the law does not provide. The so called certificate of Mr. Campbell is not such a document as is required by law. But on the other hand, the Governor unwittingly gave just such a certificate as proved to the Clerk of the House that Mr. Cannon was elected by an over
