time portion of it, too, the regulars were found but little reason to complain. In agreement with his first call for "outdoors," all soldiers except yellow fever, the latter having suffered from the disease, were sent to the first year in the first year of the Civil War, as nearly a million participants in that conflict remain in the world, yet in almost every state the volunteers called for last spring were offered by men who knew nothing of war or of taking care of soldiers. An regular army lieutenant who had been out of the ordinary academy a single year was better fit to command a

The direct line to Kansas City, St. Louis and Atlantic seaboard, is via the Missouri Pacific Railway, from Pueblo. Through sleeping and chain cars, and all connections made in Union depots in the daytime. If you are going East and care for a daylight view of the grandest scenery of the Rocky Mountains, traverse now that your ticket reads Via Missouri Pacific Railway. Elegant chain cars positively free to the holders of regular train tickets.
