TABERNALE SERVICES.

Ministry labors the theme of these who addressed the congregation.

Religious services were held in the Tabernacle, Salt Lake City, on Monday, June 24, 1895. Elder August N. Cannon, president of the Stake, presiding.

The choir sang the hymn: "Benedict, the mountain of the Lord in latter days shall grow."

Prayer by Elder G. W. Haggallier. The choir sang the hymn: "Benedict, the mountain of the Lord in latter days shall grow."

Elder J. H. Stoddard, having returned from a mission to Australia, was the first speaker. He said he was pleased to report the work on the antipodes in a favorable condition.

Our Elders are laboring anxiously among the Heathen people. They are familiar with the truths of the Gospel. They are earnestly endeavoring to overcome their weaknesses. They receive the Gospel in great numbers. We have about three thousand of them now associated with us in the Kingdom, and they are the constant labor of our Elders to advance them into the Kingdom of glory.

Three years ago it was necessary to reduce the number of Elders in that land. It was stated that the people were not receiving their words, but when the Temple was dedicated and it was pointed out that our missionary work was not being done, and it was a disgrace to the name of the Lord. We have since then had a constant flow of Elders to that land, and we have now a number of them who are earnestly striving to be worthy to dwell in the Temple of Zion. They desire to come here and work in our Temple for their dear Lord. They have been to the Temple of Zion, and they have seen the things of the Kingdom.

Elder Christian Haggallier, lately returned from a mission to the Hawaiian Islands, was the next speaker. He said that he was delighted with the progress that had been made among the people of the Hawaiian Islands. They are warm-hearted and kind, and are always willing to supply the Elders with such things as they are ready to need. The people of the Hawaiian Islands are in the Kingdom of glory, and they are in the Kingdom of glory.

County Furniture Experts Get Big Pay and Go Home—Warrants Suspended.

THE TEMPERATURE in the county must shoulder on Saturday afternoon an evening after the New had gone to press was as tropical as that of an equatorial climate. Had the court got down to business on time this term would have appeared in the News forty-eight hours ago, but as it was customarily late in getting into shape and incidentally into its dignified and public relations of transactions by that day necessarily had to be postponed.

The unusual warmth of the court chamber air was due to a resolution presented for the consideration of the court by County Attorney Whitehead, alleging that Andrews & Company had charged the county $2,000 in excess of what the furniture was worth on its contract of $4,975.50; that there was collusion and fraud between the company and the members of the old county court; that the contract was illegally made; and that it therefore be dissolved and the county treasurer directed to refuse payment on all the warrants issued on such account.

Two of them took morphine. One of them, Emil H. Eisenbecker, with fatal results.—Harry World Will Recover.

Emil H. Eisenbecker, brother of Mrs. Otto Skiffano, of this city, and a student of the Salt Lake Business College, committed suicide at the Salt Lake residence at the corner of Second and Fourth streets on Saturday night, by taking a dose of morphine, administered at thirty grains.

For a considerable period the young man suffered, it is said, severely from the effects of the morphia, and to that condition the cause of his rash act is attributed. Mrs. Skiffano was the first to discover that he had swallowed the deadly drug and Dr. Stevens was hastily summoned. An effort was made to induce him to vomit, but the patient, but death had already claimed him for the victim. The body was removed to the morgue early yesterday morning, but it has been decided that an inquest is not necessary.

A second Salt Lake in the person of Harry World is reported to have made an attempt to end his earthly career by inhaling powder, morning, but it has been decided that an inquest is not necessary.

THIS ONE DAY HOLIDAY. A second Salt Lake in the person of Harry World is reported to have made an attempt to end his earthly career by inhaling powder, morning, but it has been decided that an inquest is not necessary.

Both of these matters were allowed, the selection voting for them and the judge giving no record as opposed to them. And there will be more experience yet.

Brigham City Items. A delightful lawn fête was given Saturday by Mrs. Ida Snow and Mrs. Laura Savage, at the handsome residence of O. O. Snow, Brigham City. The lawn was brilliantly illuminated with electric lights and Chinese lanterns. Low and delicious strawberries and cream were served on numerous small tables decorated with flowers, and there was music and dancing on the lawn. The prizes and portions were plentifully bestowed upon everybody and it was a most successful and enjoyable affair.
