Clay and Calhoun, a bribe-giver and a corruptionist. If it be not true, then the Republican party deserves defeat because of its advertisement to the world, through its party organ in Pro-vo, that the senior senator from Utah is a bribe-giver and the people of Utah are so weak in morals that they are bifbe-takers.

listen to what the supporters of the centor senator have to say, when we cad the organs of the senior senator from Utah, we find there boldly made, the charge that the junior senator of this state, who was elevated to office by Republican votes and in the face of the earnest protest of the Democratic party, has dragged his ecclesiastical robes into ward caucuses and lowered himself by using his priestly power to coerce to his way of thinking the de-yout followers of his religious faith. This is a terrible charge to make. It is an allegation that he has toyed with holy things, that he and his may enjoy temporal power. It is a declaration that one who has been declared fit by his associates to preach Christ and Him crucified, is willing, if he may thereby advance himself in political life, to play ipon the religious passions of his folowers, as the harplat strings his harp. And these are the conditions existing in the political life of Utah today. They exist because 'two persons are fighting for power.' They exist because on the one hand, the sculor senator desires to succeed himself and to be re-elected to the United States senate, and the junfor senator desires to place there one whose voice and vote he can always control and thus to increase his political power. It is a selfish and unseemly struggle, involving no principle, and the interests of the people are tossed about like shuttle cocks. It is a strug-gle that can only be ended; it is a condition that can only be cured by the defeat of the Republican party and a return of the contestants to private the midst of this hot contention in which they are engaged, which faction of the Republican party is entitled to win? How are you to know whether it is best to support Smoot or to support Kearns, and in the support of either what great principle are you uphold-ing? What advantage will there be to the State of Utah if you sustain either of these men? What will any Demo-crat gain by taking part to this fight? The contestunts should be left alone to fight it out if they enjoy such things, and they should not be sustained by those who hope for better things in Utab. MAY TAKE A HAND.

The storm brewed in Proto and the flames fanned from Sum-nit are to become objects of interest o the national leaders? And what will be the result of that? Does any man need a map of the situation? Is it necessary to explain the conditions and they exist to any intelligent mmd? To me, things are as plata as a pike stan We have already trouble enough. ofes has not yet completed its la-ofs, these leaders of Republican thought are each day creating new testimony to be submitted. If they are allowed to go on, if they are not both repudiated by a vote of confidence in the Democratic party, I say to you that we will have a constitutional amendment and the most drastic of legisla-tion all aimed at our state. That is the condition that confronts us. It is no theory, it is an actuality. The Repub-leans are sowing the wind, and we all will rean more kinds of whirlwinds than we ever imagined existed, if that party is successful in this state this tail. Did you take note of their state convention? Did you observe how Wells was slaughtered, how Hammond was cheated out of a vote of confidence from his own home county? and for thom and for what? Merely that i good citizen unknown to our political ife, could be placed in nomination for governor because he was the choice of the Simoot faction of this state. Do you want a man as governor who will owe his place to Senator Smoot? Will it not be better to elect a man who will feel that he was elevated to power, by the people? If so, the Democratic candidate for governor should receive the vote: of all men and women who are not tied to the apron strings of our juntor what junior senator.

ABOUT THE BOLTERS.

"And now, the followers of Mr. Smoot are claiming that they will reerult their forces from the ranks of the Democratic party. On Tuesday evening of this week there was r. stormy meeting of the Republican store committee. The followers of Senator committee. The followers of Senato Smoot were there, and Senator Kaara was there in person. 1 find in the Sal Lake Herald for Wednesday, and, "i it happens it is in the Herm L' that That Chairman Spry of the Republican state committee was interviewed after the unpleasantness, and that, referring to Senator Kearns and his followers, h us ai these significant words:"

"'I suppose they will go ahead now with the Liberal fight. I expect they strife and contention. Weary are we of the bitterness and hate which have will keep on that line until they go too far, with the result that where they filled our cup to overflowing. get one of the old Liberals away from us here in town, we will get two Mor-mon Democrats away from them in the country. It is natural for people any religion-I don't care whet day dedicated to peace, charity and whethe they are Mormons, Catholics, Methodgood will. ists or what, to get together when they are attacked. We endeavored to secure a peaceful solution of the diffi-culty. We had no part in the sen-at that matter-that's none of our bus-iness. We merely want to secure the election of the state ticket. But we can't count on support from that direction, so we will have to make other arrangements." COMPLIMENTS TO SPRY. "'Upon what meat' hath this Repub-lican Caesar fed that he hath grown so great?' Who has given him the power to enter the Democratic party and pluck away two votes whenever Gentile refuses to follow his lead? What madness is it that has so overcome him that he declares that Mor-mon Democrats will come here or go there at his bidding. He may know what kind of stuff Republicans are made of, but he has yet to become acquainted with the 'Mormon Democrats. This is a pretty good year for all Dem. ocrats, whether they be Mormons o whether they be Gentiles, to remembe that old and honored maxim in Utah and 'mind their own business.' If it be true that he can summon two Mormon Democrats for each Gentile that the Republicans lose, then the charges made against Utah will be sustained, and I would not give five cents on the dollar for the chance of Senator Smoot to retain his seat in the United States senate. This ill-advised statement the Republican chairman is calculated the Republican chairman is calculated to and will do much harm to the state, but I am confident that his boast will be but 'sounding' brass and tinkling cymbals' so far as the Democrats of Utah are concerned. Here and now I declare, and I know I speak the senti-ments of the Democrats of Utah, I de-clara that the Mormore Democrats clare that the Mormon Democrats of this state will be true to our faith and that they will vote as a unit for the ticket named by this convention. "Why should we take part in this Republican fight? Why should we fill Tephonean hgh? Why should we fill the depleted ranks of our adversary? Does the Republican chairman think that we are a lot of Hessians? Does be believe that we are animated by no principles? Has he an idea that we are simply a tail to his kite? He will learn differently. He will discover that we propose to redeem Utab from he we propose to redeem Utah from Re-publican rule, and that in redeeming Utah and elevating her above this strife that is now on, we will aid in advance ing her toward that glory with which she will yet be crowned.

so that no true or just strictures can placed upon us for the manner which we conduct our own afairs. This we can do ourselves. All his we can do without outside aid and without an appeal to federal legisla-tion. And all this will come easier with Democratic success, for Democrati success will mean the placing one side of the Republican leaders who are imperiling our standing with the rest of the Union

REASONS FOR SUCCESS.

"There is every reason why the Re-publican party in Utah should be defeated in this campaign and why the Democratic party should be sucessful. What has the Republican party done for Utah? What is there which can be truthfully said that will indicate that our people have received any benefit from Republican rule in Utah? The net result of its successes in this state has been detrimental in the extreme. Instead of advancing us to a higher plane among the sisterhood of states, it has played ping pong with our business and material interests and made us an object of suspicion and distrust.

"Let us consider the conditions as ey actually exist. Is there any disussion of great principles? Are the Republicans advancing any sound or 'egitimate arguments? Is their party actuated by high ideals? Look about a and determine. In the biography Parkey P. Pratt, on page 437, there is a setter which he wrote from Chill 115d, and in that letter he says:

"We find the country in the milist of revolution and civil war. Two persens and their adherents fighting for Business is dull, living is high. and doubt and uncertainty characterizing every transaction in the various husiness departments." "is that not a picture of Uiah to-day? Two persons of the Republican party and their adherents are nere Training for power," while the interests the state are cast to the winds.

THE REPUBLICAN QUARREL.

"There is no Republican party in Utah today. The organization known by that name and which hears aloft Democratic party, that the Constitu-tion of the United States be amended the Republican flag, is a heterogeneous mass of ambitious spoils-seekers. Demso that our senators in Congress be elected by the people. I believe that this plank of the Democratic party is ocrats need go no further than the columns of the party organs to find reason enough for saying, 'A plague on both your house and the saying is a say the say of the say in the say of the in the interest of good government and in the interest of the people. I believe both your houses.' Crimination and recrimination are the order of the day that the people are as well able to choose their senators as they are their Charges and counter charges are con-stantly being made. In the Republicongressmen, and that if they were permitted to do so, there would be no such condition existing as there exists in our political life today. There can organ, printed at Provo city, I read that the senior senator of this state has sent from his vast fortune the means with which to corrupt the voters in the primaries. This is an awstruggles in our legislatures when sen-ators are elected. There would be fewful charge. It is not only a charge of dishonesty and criminal dealing, but it er charges of corruption and of brib-ery; there would be chosen as senators the men whom the people want and not the men who elevate them. s also a charge of treason to the state. The man who corrupts the fountain source of our legislative life is an enselves by methods that bring sorrow to the true lovers of the republic. emy to his country. He is a menace to the state. And this is the charge which the personal organ of the junior senator of this state makes against the Uiah are one-half so bad as they paint one another; if they are one-half as culpable as is alleged by their respecman whom the Republican party placed in the United States with its benediction scarcely four years ago. lead to one-half the trouble for the This is an awful indictment which is framed by the Republican organ of the state as Republicans of the one side or the other declare, then neither of them is fit to hold office and to represouth against the representative of Utah who is the close friend of Roose-yelt and the confidant of the Repubsent Utah. one is right and which one wrong? SERIOUS ACCUSATIONS.

We, as Democrats, willingly believe both the Republican senators are that both the Republican senators are truthful men. They occupy places of honor and trust. We cannot concede that they falsify. That being true, it becomes interesting to note the fact that at the reunion of the veterans of the Black Hawk war at Manti, the inior senator in a public speech, open-ly and boldly charged that the senior senator from Utah had borne false witness, that he had with deliberation and with intent to injure, garbled the truth concerning the bill for the pentruth concerning the bill for the pel-sions of the veterans, and that he had done so with the fell purpose of in-juring the junior senator. And later, the senior senator, speaking to thou-sands through the columns of his newspaper, hurled back the charge and defaulty proclaimed in effect that the defiantly proclaimed, in effect, that the junior senator is a man whom it is necessary to introduce to the truth, else he will pass it by. These are the plc-tures drawn of each other by two truthful men. They see themselves 'as in a looking glass.' They each declare that they have a true insight into each other's character. And these are the other's character. And these are the men whom the Republican party elected to represent all of us in the greatest purliamentary body of the world.

est purlamentary body of the world. It is not for us to say which one is mistaken, if either is, in the delinea-tion of the other. For all that we know, they may both be right. But, whether they be right or wrong, they have clearly established one thing, and that is, that the people have nothing to each be taking adda with either and gain by taking sides with either, and that the path of honor leads in the direction of the Democratic party.
