Italians Wanted to Leave Before Working Out Their Fare.

Parkersburg, W. Va., March 5 .-- Four foremen on the construction work on the work of the extension of the Little Kanawha railway, part of the Gould System, assisted by a constable, sup-pressed a riot among 30 Italian laborers near Burning Springs last night. The Italians wanted to leave because work was delayed on account of high water. They were told they could not leave until they had worked out their railroad fare which had been paid from Cnicago. A battle ensued in which axes, clubs and revolvers were used One Italian had an arm cut off and four are said to have been fatally hurt. They are being cared for at the home of an American. After the fight 2 Italians escaped to the woods and havnot been captured, although warrants are out for their arrest.

Utah's Junior Senator Sworn in-Administration of Oath Preceded by Statement by Senator Hoar for Chairman Burrows-Mr. Kearns Accompanied Him.

[Special to the "News."]

Washington, D. C., march 5 .- One of the biggest re. eptions that was given to any senator who was sworn in that body today was given to Senator Reed Smoot this morning. When the senate met this morning, Senator Hoar arose and said: "The chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, Senator Burrows, is obliged to be absent. He desired me to state in his behalf that he understands that the orderly and constitutional methods of procedure in regard to administering the oath to newly elected senators to be thus: "That when any gentleman brings with him or presents a credential concreting of the certificate of his due election from the legislature of his state, he is entitled to be sworn in and that all questions relating to his qualifications should be postponed and acted upon by the senate afterwards. if there were any other procedure the result would be that a third of the senate might be kept out of their seats for an indefinite time on the presenting of objections without responsibility and never established before the senate by any judical inquiry. The result of this might be that a change in the political power of the government which the people desire to accomplish might be indefinitely postponed."

ROSES ON HIS DESK.

When Senator Smoot arrived in the senate he found lying on his desk a handsome bunch of pink roses placed there by citizens of Utah. The time arrived for Senator Smoot to take the oath of senator. He arose and leaning on the arm of Senator Kearns, marched down the aisle of the chamber. The gallery set up a shout of applause, and it continued until they arrived in front of the presiding officer of the senate. Senator Smoot was sworn in as senator at the same time with Platt of New York. After taking the oath he started to return to his seat. The gallery again sent out a large shout of applause. Among those present to see Senator Smoot take the oath was Congressman Howell, Chairman Anderson, John C. Cutler, Ben Rich, Rev. Wishard of Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. Galmele and other Utah citizens, who are here temporarly. Remarks were heard in the gallery: "What a bright man Smoot looked, and it was a shame that a man like Leilich should make such false statement." Senator Smoot" private secretary, Carl A. Badger, will arrive here Saturday evening. Congressman Howell and Private Secretary Cannon, will leave for New York tomorrow, for a business trip before returning home.

It was during the routine work of the house at about half past 11 that Speaker Hull interrupted the proceedings by "Gentlemen of the house, a saying: telegram has just been handed me from Washington announcing the fact that Senator Reed Smoot has been sworn in and seated." The annoucement was so sudden and unexpected that silence reigned for an instant and then applause broke forth. There was no hurrahing or noise. It took the form of the clapping of hands which resounded from one end of the chamber to the other and in which Democrats joined heartily with Republicans. Every one smiled and was pleased and then there was a renewal of the same thing, even more pronounced than the first, and when quiet had obtained Representative Done arose and moved that the house formulate and send to Senator Smoot a congratulatory message. On motion of Representative Done Speaker Hull was instructed to sign the telegram, which he did, after which the business of the house went on. At the time of recess an endeavou was made to get expressions from some of the members, but they scattered so mickly that a few only were seen Without exception they were genuinely and heartily pleased. Speaker Thomas Hull said: "This is as it should be. I have never had any doubt about it from the first. There was a ripple of excitement. when Senator Bamberger's bill, No. 75, was read. It relates to the establish-ment of kindergartens in precincts containing 1,000 or more population. The house committee had amended it by raising the limit to 2,000 or more and providing that the district fund should be used for their maintenance. The committee's report was adopted.

Mrs. Coulter got the floor and was granted the privilege of reading a petition signed by various women's clubs and associations representing, as she said, 80,000 citizens and voters of the state. At the conclusion of which al-
