STORY OF MURDER | BABY RESTLESS OF ANNA LUTHER AND SUFFERING

Frederick Gebhardt Tells How He Met Her, Married Her and Shot Her.

KISSED HER THEN KILLED HER

He Was a Married Man and Tired of Her-His Confession Very Brutal.

New York, Oct. 25-A year and a half ago a friendless girl was murdered near Islip, 14 1.: a week ago her skeleton was found, with nothing to identify it but her jewsley and a bill of sale from a German shop; three days later through the police of Hamburg; Germany, her identity was established as Anna Luther; tonight her hushand. Frederick Gebhardt, confessed, over his signature. that he is the murderer.

MET HIS VICTIM.

"About Dec. J. 1967." Gebhardt to'd the police. "I first not Anna Luther We married in February. 1968. sou went to Europe to live. We returned April 6. 1966. She went to Henry Wertuph's in Newark, N. J., for a day

"I mot Anna sgain on April 8, do Newark, and we went to an address in Thirty-fourth street, New York, and then to Jamaica, L. I. We stayed in Jamaica until next day. "April 9, we went to Bayshore and I showed her some property. I got into an argument with her about some money matters and I turned away and wanted to go back. She followed mo up, screaming, and I shot her in the head. I did not look at her, and don't remember whether I shot her more than once. than once.

"Tunnediately after I went to the Jelip depot and took a train for home, If was nearly dark. I threw the re-volver out of the car window. "I did not kill Anna Luther for her

"I did not kill Anna Luther for her money, as the newspapers have stated. My original reason for marrying Anna was that I did not care to live with my first wife any longer, but as she-my first wife any longer, but as she-my first wife any child caused me to want to get rid of Anna Luther and return to my first wife and child. This is why I shot Anna, and I told her in Bayshore that I was married and had a wife and child, and must leave her.

"I SHOT HER."

"She screamed and ran after me, and kineed me, and wanted me back, and 1 shot hee." From the time of his arrest until he

"Oh, what's the use any way? You have me and I might as well own I killed her." A BRUTAL CONFESSION. Given verbally, the confession was even more shockingly brutal, the po-lice may, than it appears in the formal insuginge of the police officers, whose version Gebhardt signed. "I had to get yil of her" he said, "but I did not mean to kill her. I thought first I could get her to size me some money for land I did not own. So I took her down to Long Island near some lots I did own to let be: see the land. She would not come to terms, and I told her then that I was already untried and hud a child I loved, and told her then that I was tired of her and wanted to go hack to With Severe Eczema-Spread from Face All Over Scalp - Developed

Upon the Republican city ticket there is not a single Democrat. Therefore a vote for Wallace is a vote for Fusion.

Mr. Wallace has announced himself repeatedly as willing to retire from the two tickets, upon which he had been nominated in favor of harmony, but in the combined judgment of representative men of the Citizens' and Democratic parties he was declared to be the man to make the race.

Remember that the Wallace ticket is the Fusion ticket. Its success means Salt Lake work for Salt Lake workmen with no political or religious test. It means a strict regulation of the liquor traffic and the banishment of women and children from saloons.

It means the awariing of all bids to the lowest responsible bidder. It means that the taxpayers are to have the benefit of interest on all
