

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

TABERNACLE MEETINGS YESTERDAY.—At the morning's meeting Elder Robert F. Neslen delivered a very interesting discourse, showing that all those who served the Lord faithfully, and with full purpose of heart, not only had laid up for them "an eternal weight of glory," but that they also received a constant reward on the earth in the answer of a "good conscience" and the peace which the gospel brings; and the illustration he made by referring to the way in which those engaged in commerce on the railroad had received their compensation—part as they went along, and the remainder when their labor was accomplished.

In the afternoon Elder Orson Pratt reasoned on the setting up of the Kingdom of God in the last days, and the nature of its organization, proving from the Scriptures that something more than the laying of hands was necessary to constitute a man a minister of Jesus Christ. Men in ancient days were called as Aaron, by the spirit of revelation and prophecy, and no church that did not claim to have received new revelation could have properly authorized ministers within its pale. His discourse was an able one, and completely covered the ground.

THEATRICAL—CARD FROM THE MANAGERS—To the Public.—Learning on Sunday afternoon, from parties whose opinions we respect, that portions of the play of "Oliver Twist," produced at the Theatre on Saturday evening, and advertised for repetition this evening, was distasteful to the feelings of the community, we immediately determined, either to alter the piece as to relieve it of the objectionable features, (which mainly consisted in scenes so true to life as to render it repulsive to refined feelings,) or to withdraw it from the stage. After consulting Miss Western and Mr. Horne we determined to withdraw the play as neither they nor the management have any disposition to enact plays that would cause an unpleasant feeling or offend the most sensitive of our patrons.

Another bill has been substituted for this evening, which will be found every way worthy the patronage of the Public.

Very respectfully,
CLAWSON & CAINE,
Lessees and Managers.

WEATHER.—The weather is unsettled to-day. It is not April yet; but it is as changeable to-day—one half hour looking as though the sun were going to shine, and the rest as though the snow would fall—as the weather of that proverbially fickle month.

THEATRICAL.—The bill for to-night is an attractive one. THE HEART OF THE STAGE, OF THE ACTRESS OF PADUA, AND HANDY ANDY, giving variety enough for one night to suit all, "from grave to gay, from lively to severe."

CO-OPERATION IN WEST JORDAN WARD.—We learn, through a letter from brother Thomas Allsop, that the citizens of this Ward are by no means behind their fellows in this great movement. Meetings have been called, a Constitution drawn up, officers elected, and a store is being built. The officers are, Bishop A. Gardner, President; James Turner, Vice-President; Henry H. Ensign, Secretary, Samuel Bennion, John Irving and P. H. Cooper, Directors; Thomas Allsop, Secretary and Treasurer.

WARM.—Friday, February 5th, is said to have been the hottest day ever known in England in the first week of February. The men temperature in Sumner on that day was 51.2 degrees, and at half past three the thermometer in the sun marked 71 degrees.

TELEGRAPHIC EXTENSION.—The Helena, Montana, Post, of the 11th instant, says:

"It has been determined by the Western Union Telegraph Company to extend the line from this city to Benton. The contract for building the same has been let to E. C. Craghton & Co., of Omaha, the construction of the road from Omaha to Salt Lake thence via Virginia City to this place. A large force of men will be employed in a few days in getting out the necessary poles, etc., and the wire for the same is in transit for Helena. It is intended to have it in working order before the Spring business opens, and the boats commence to arrive. The energy, perseverance and promptness manifested by E. Craghton & Co., in the construction of the line so far, is a sufficient assurance that the new line will be built according to promise. We are confident that this line will prove a source of revenue to the company, and we are sure that it will be of inestimable benefit to our citizens."

OMAHA.—Our exchanges from Omaha represent things as rather lively in that city. At a ball given by the "ladies of the demimonde," a woman named Mattie Lee, a keeper of a house of ill fame, shot a rival in the same infamous business, named Maggie McCormick. The latter is since dead, and the murderess is in the hands of the police.

"The Vigilantes circulars are out. Somebody goes up a tree before long," so says the Herald.

Religious troubles in Omaha seem to be on the increase, and those who love to rake up private scandals will have the opportunity to their heart's content.

KAMAS LOOKING UP.—By letter from brother W. S. Hardie we learn that the good people of Kamas Prairie are keeping pace with the times. A Co-operative Mercantile Organization has been formed there, and a new building in which to do the business of the Society is nearly completed. There is a good Sunday School under the superintendence of Bro. James McCormie in which a lively interest is taken both by parents and children. Bro. Hardie says, the juvenile instructor stands in high favor with the children and is ever a welcome visitor to both old and young.

A substantial new bridge has been built across the Weber at Kamas. A number of families, it is expected, will settle in that vicinity the coming spring.
