WILSON NOT A ROBBER.

Soldier "Put Up a Job" on Him and He Went to Jall.

The startling discovery was made by cting Chief Hempel yesterday afternoon that W. C. Wilson, charged with beating and robbing a soldier from Fort Douglas and taking from him $5 n cash and a goldwatch, is not a obber at all, and is the victim of "a in cash and a goldwaren, is not a robber at all, and is the victim of "a put up job," on the part of the soldier. The latter was turned over to the mill-tary authorities to be dealt with as they see fit and Wilson was ordered released. Hempel discovered that Wilson is the son of a prominent Philadelphia physi-cian, that the young man lived in Los Angeles, where he owned real estate, had money in the banks and owned con-siderable valuable mining stock. It was also shown conclusively that the waten in question was the property of Wilson and did not belong to the soldier. The latter, it is said by the police, had been playing cards with Wilson and the pair engaged in a fight in which Wilson got doubly the worst of. He was badly beaten and then arrested as a robber. The soldier, it is claimed, told his lurid tale to avoid punishment at the post.
