

BEAVER COURT DOINGS.

John Nichols Sentenced to One Year in the County Jail.

The Mormon Case.—The Term of County Jail to Be Considered.

TOI Next Week.

GOING TO JAIL FOR ANOTHER CONSPIRACY.

BEAVER, Utah, May 18.—The Court room was occupied all yesterday and still going on. The case was commenced with hot bills passed until the morning, when opposing counsel made their entry for a while, the proceedings at times being paused and continuous. The arguments in the large were specially bitter controversy. The case was not closed, however, but will probably be continued.

Before proceeding with the regular order of business a number of demands were brought up for sentence and all were denied. All Childairy Standard Tannin is ready to go to jail, save except the Indians, who are to be given grace and mercy.

The court then ignored the strong recommendation of many of the jurors and directed the defendants to be held over.

As usual, the difficulty was in getting the Indians to understand the court's verdicts, and he occasionally had to speak with proclamations of interest, which a good many in the audience could understand.

It seems probable the term will not begin before the middle of next week, if not sooner.

The Central Theater.

The Central Theater gave its opening performance under new name last night to a good and represented audience. The play was

Womans Work, and was well performed.

Note and Child Aweigh.

News & Child, the well-known bur-glary案，案情复杂，涉及多处。

The story of the case is briefly told by the following article printed in the front page of the Utah Daily "Clarion" of Salt Lake City:

"The trial of the above case was adjourned, but it is to be reconvened on May 25th.

Beaver county, hundred entry of the northwest quarter, section 23, less than 25 acres, range 7 west.

Star Valley Stake.

The seventh quarterly conference of the Stake extended to Action meeting house on May 12th and 13th, 1894. It was well attended by saints from all parts of the two valleys. The members of the High Council accepted most of the time during conference and the instructions given by the brethren were good and of assistance to build up the spiritual health of the saints.

The spirit of improvement seems to be the order of the day, several houses and large commercial barns having been put up the last few months. The time has come for the personal improvements which they are building, but a few families are selling out, intending to look around the Bay area for a better climate. The farmers are doing well, and the price of the valley has been settled. We are looking forward for a bountiful harvest.

The health of the people is good;

there is very little sickness in the valley. Brother Emil Hansen, of Pine

City ward, is very ill at present with a fever, but hope is entertained of a speedy recovery.
