

Both in a social and financial was the card party given at the Ladies' Liverary club house on Thursday afternoon was a success. About 40 tables were played and besides this a large were played and besides this a large number not included among the players called during the afternoon and spent a pleasant social hour. Boxes of candy and dainty pieces of brie-a-brac which had been denated for prizes were on sale, which with the admission price netted a neat sum for the object, namely the benefit of the Leenard Memorial home for nurses. Tea and coffee were served in the dining room from a table prettily spread and decorated, where presided Mrs. Child. Mrs. Edwin Kimball and Mrs. Samuel Paul, Mrs. Sol. Siegel and decorated, where presided Mrs. Called Mrs. Edwin Kemball and Mrs. Samuel Paul, Mrs. Sol. Slegel and they were asisted by Mrs. E. V. Silver, Mrs. C. R. Pearsall and Mrs. Warren Eculamin. Among those who wen prizes in the game were Mrs. Richard A. Keyes, Mrs. C. E. Richards, Mrs. A. H. Snow, Mrs. John A. Reeves, Mrs. Broadhurst, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. A. D. F. Reymolds, Mrs. A. B. Hirth, Mrs. R. C. Hill, Mrs. Woodbridge, Mrs. Mrs. S. Woodward, Mrs. J. G. Field, Mrs. E. Ferry, Mrs. L. E. Arnold, Mrs. E. Ferry, Mrs. L. E. Arnold, Mrs. B. Foulz, Mrs. L. B. Bache, Mrs. M. T. Balley, Mrs. L. B. Bache, Mrs. M. T. Balley, Mrs. F. J. Fablian, Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. T. A. Wakeling, Mrs. J. F. Grant, Mrs. L. L. Terry, Mrs. Katherine Williams, Mrs. William Mctikath, Mrs. Van Housen, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. Lee Dinwoodey, Mles Jane Howat and Miss Mary Kirkpatrick. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mrs. Igleheart, Mrs. Slegel, Mrs. Cordiam, Mrs. Beatty, Mrs. Chill, Mrs. Silvey and Mrs. Grant Smith.

Mrs. Brigham T. Cannon has issued invitations for a luncheon and theater party for next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Woolley cele-brated their fiftfeth wedding anniver-sary on Thursday at the home of Raiph T. Snowball, 621 Fourth street, a large T. Snowbail, 621 Fourth street, a large number of their descendants and relatives being present. The parior was decorated in carnations and the national colors, and the dialngroom in deffodils, and gold and white ribbons carrying out the golden wedding idea. Mr. and Mrs. Woolley have 22 grand-children and 14 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. M. M. Johnson entertained in-Mits, M. M. Johnson entertained informally at luncheon on Thursday in honor of Mrs. W. W. Hall and M.ss Jennie Bothwell, the table being prettily desorated in spring flowers and covers laid for about a dozen.

Miss Beatrice O'Connor entertained her card club last night.

The preparatory class at the U. of U. gave a dance at the museum ball last night the decorations being in the class and college colors and a large number enjoying the affair.

Mrs. S. H. Shaw gave an April fool's party on Monday afternoon, the game of hearts being played and a number of unique features introduced,

Miss Florence Kimball was hostess at a delightful tea on Thursday afternoon at which about 16 friends were entertained. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of flowers and refreshments served in the dining-room which was bright with daffodils and ferns. Miss Kimball was assisted by Miss Nora Van Cott, Miss Jenna Bud Geddes and Miss Eloise Sadier, Miss Jessie Anderson entertained informally bridge on Thursday hener of Mrs. James Chambers Dick.

Mrs. R. C. Gemmell entertained in formally at luncheon today at her apartment in the Bransford in honor of Mrs. L. D. Bache who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Fred McGurrin.

Alex Eberhart whose marriage to Miss Hard of Butte takes place next week was guest of honor at a supper at the Commercial club on Thursday night, given by a number of his friends. The table was effectively decorated in carmations and ferns and covers laid for about a dozen guests.

Rev. Benjamin Young was toastmaster and responses were made by a number of others.

Miss Mabel Donkin entertained at her home, 1155 cast Second South last Wednesday evening. Those present were Misses Annie Jesperson, Myrtle McKnight, Hazel Wilkinson, Cicely White, Erama Nordvall, Hattie Crabb, Josephine Morris, Rachel Prowse and Mabel Donkin. Mossrs. Bruce Wiscomb, Lester Hedger, Oliver Larson, Hudson Neslen, Walter Bruce, Edward McMullan, Ray Dorius, George Crabtree, Raiph Woolley, Del Wilkinson, Will Donkin and Elmer Johnson.

Mrs. Grant Hampton entertained de-lightfully at cards yesterday aftermoon the rooms being prettily decorated and about 25 guests being entertained.

Mr. H. C. Brownlee was hostess at a pleasant afternoon affair yesterday given in honor of Mrs. C. S. William-son of Denver.

Mrs. Hoppaugh will entertain her card club next Wednesday.

On Thursday night Miss Cora Malin, faughter of Mrs. Alice Malin and John M. Gallacher were married, the ceremony being performed by Elder Joseph Christenson at the briters home, which was cretilly decorated for the event. Mr. and Mrs. Gallacher will reside in this city.

On Wednesday Mrs. W. W. Anness was hostess at a luncheon given in honor of her mother. Mrs. C. Helkes, the table being decorated with jonquils, and tiny Easter chicks for souvenirs with place-cards decorated with hand-painted flowers in yoliow. The guests were Mrs. Benjamin Yoeng, Mrs. H. J. Talbott, Mrs. George Goodwin, Mrs. Frank Robinson, Mrs. W. Critzer, Mrs. A. H. Mayne, Mrs. W. W. Bevers, Mrs. Eldro, Mrs. Post and Miss Alice Helkes.

About 24 guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. J. H. Belfuss on Wednesday I a card-party, at which 500 was the unuscement. The decorations were in pink roses, and Mrs. George Forrester assisted.

Mrs. E. A. Wall entertained the Utoria club and a few other guests on Wednesday, five tabes being played. The decorations were in carnations and Easter Illies, and prizes were won by Mrs. George Moyer, Mrs. J. W. Houston and Mrs. C. C. Crismon. Besides the members of the club were Mrs. theorge A. Black, Mrs. F. L. Oswald, Mrs. Feel Wey, Mrs. Harkness, Mrs.

informally at her home on Wednesday, about a half dozen being present.

Mrs. Ernest Drake entertained her card club this afternoon.

Mrs. Abner Luman will entertain the Sans Souci card club Monday afternoon, April 8, at her home in cast Second South street.

Mrs. J. T. Harris entertained the 500 club on Monday, the rooms being prettily decorated and covers laid for prizes won by Mrs. Elbridge Thomas and Mrs. Levis A. Eyans.

Mrs. A. H. Peabody entertained her card club on Monday.

The Sewing club met on Wednesday with Mrs. F. U. Leonard.

PRESENCE OCCUPANDO DE DE CONTRO DE C

INTERESTING INTERNATIONAL ROMANCE.

Of intense interest to two continents is the fervid remance of Count Hans Ferdinand von Hochberg and his beautiful wife. Banished from Germany for offending the kaiser and his father because of his refusal to marry a princess and, in the face of this refusal, taking for his wife the beautiful Louise Carow, a shopgiri, he came to America to seek his fortune, leaving behind him wealth, wife and social position. In a village in New York state he worked as a clerk. Later he went west, where he located mining claims and is now as a clerk. Later he went west, where he located inlining claims and is how a wealthy man. In the meantime German rule had annulled his marriage, but in the meantime his countess had become the mother of a child. The husband sent for them, remarried Louise under the laws of the United States, thus legitimizing their child, and is now making ready to return to the land of his birth, where, with the money he made in this country, he expects to live

T. Roy Brown, Miss Davidson, Mrs. George Moore and Miss Louise Wey. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Pauline Sands.

Mrs. O. W. Fowers was hostess at a delightful bridge-tea on Tuesday, at which about 25 guests were present. The rooms were decorated in spring flowers and prizes were awarded at each of the six tables, including Mrs. Fabian, Mrs. M. S. Woodward, Mrs. C. R. Pearsall, Miss Fannie Hanauer, Mrs. W. H. Dickson and Mrs. Edward S. H. Dickson and Mrs. Edward S. Ferry.

Another pretty affair of Tuesday was the luncheon and card-party given by Mrs. J. T. Clasbey at the Kenyon in honor of Mrs. C. S. Williamson, the decorations being in violets and Indian designs. The favors were pins done with the good luck emblem, and the prizes spoons with the same design, the place-cards violet ribbons with bunches of violets, and the score-cards decorated with the "swastika" emblem. The prize winners were Mrs. Clarence Warnock, Mrs. Harry Schultz and Mrs. Williamson. Another pretty affair of Tuesday was Miss Genevelve McCornick enter-tained a few friends informally at luncheon on Tuesday afternoon.

Judge and Mrs. J. C. Royle will en-tertain a few old friends on April 23 a celebration of their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Miss Florence Crow entertained about 2d guests on Tuesday night in honor of her fourteenth birthday anniversary, the time being pleasantly spent with games and music, and refreshments being served,

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Smith entertained informally on Thursday night in honor of Mrs. Wilcox and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Anderson, who leave this week to make their home in Scattle.

Lester Freed gave a supper at the Commercial club on Monday night following the opening performance of the stock company at the Grand, his guest being Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Miss Jessle Anderson, Miss Katherine Geddes and John S. Critchiov.

Mrs. Georgia C. Foote gave a pretty Easter breakfast in bonor of her neice, Miss Helen Foote of Evanston, Wyo., the decorations being in Easter lilies and ferns, and the favors colored eggs and thy rabbits. Covers were laid for seven.

Mrs. A. C. Smith entertained the Plate club on Thursday.

Mrs. C. S. Williamson was hosiess at a bridge-ten this afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. T. Benson, the rooms being beautifully decorated in spring flowers and a barse number of friends being present.

ing present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jenkins have returned from Los Angeles where they have been spending the winter at the home of Gov. and Mrs. Cutler.

Paul Tarpey of Tonopah is here for a week's visti with Le Grand Young, Jr.

Mrs. Emanuel Kahn will shortly be back in her home at 678 east South Temple street.

Mrs. David Keith and her small son, David, have returned from a stay of several weeks at Terminal island,

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ferres, who have lately some to make Salt Lake their home, are at present at Whitehall.

Miss Ada Zane left this week for Chicago, where she will spend the next year with her sister, Mrs. Henkel, and with Mr. and Mrs. John M. Zane.

Mrs. W. L. Jones is back from Los Angeles, where she has spent the past two months with relatives and friends. Mrs. F ank Knox is back from the cast after a stay of some months in New York and Washington.

Mrs. George Nolan is visiting relatives at 47 Eighth East. She will leave shortly to join Mr. Nolan in Ely.

Mrs. Dough s Swan is home from Los Angeles and Ocean Park, where she has spent the winter.

Miss Mary Rogers, who has spent the past six weeks with her cousin. Mrs. Ferdinand J. Fabian, has returned to her home in Omaha.

Miss Julia Cullen and Miss Beth Critchlew, who are at Wellesley are spending Easter vacation at a large house party given at Allenstown, Pa. Before returning to school they will spend soveral days at Cambridge.

Fred Hale, who is at Stanford, is spending the vacation with his sister, Mrs. Thomas Benton Hunter, at Mon-terey, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Windsor V. Rice will be at home next week from Los An-geles where they have spent a month. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sharp have re-turned to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burke of American Falls are at the Wilson for a few days, after which they will return to their ranch in Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bamberger and Miss Eisa Bamberger, who have spent the winter in New York, have returned, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Mackenzie will shortly be back in their own home at 269 Fifth East street.

Miss Myra Holman has returned to he city after a pleasant visit in Eu-

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Blunck of Nampa. Ida., are in the city for a few days, and are stopping at the Knutstord. Mrs. J. W. Edmonds has returned from California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bransford, who have spent the winter in Southern California, will return within a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry La. Motte and son, have returned from a trip in Wash-ington, where they have spent several weeks,

Miss Kerr, who has been the guest of Good Pelerstaths United States, Called and Europe. Miss Creekman for several weeks, has

Mrs. I. A. Burkett of Halley, Ida., is the guest of Mrs. McKinimins.

Mrs. Dennis Sheehan has returned to her home in Rougis, Wyo., after a week's visit with Mrs. Abner Luman.

THE LARGER E TIES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah.-Mrs. Joseph S. Peers Ogden, Utah.—Mrs. Joseph S. Peery was hostess at a brilliant dinner and reception given Monday afternoon at the Virginia hotel to ec guests. During the serving of the repast, an orchestra furnished sweet strains of music. The Gining room was beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, and evergreens. After the dinner a social hour was spent in the pariors . . .

Miss Annie Moyes, a very popular young lady, and Mr. Wm, M. Goodman a highly respected young man, both of Ogden, were married this week.

For next Wednesday evening the Fifth ward entertainment committee has arranged a very pleasing program, consisting of songs, recitations, duets and instrumental music, also a one-act drama. The proceeds will go to the Religion class fund.

On March 31, at Plain City, Weber county, Jens Peter and Matilda C. Funk Folkman celebrated their golden wedding at their home, where they have lived since March 17, 1859, when they with a few other families moved to and located that town, which has to and located that town, which has since become one of the most prospersous places in Weber county. In honor of the occasion over 75 of their sons, daughters, grandchildren and a few friends gathered at the home, extended congratulations and cheered the aged couple. Speech making, vocal and instrumental music was the order of the afformer and all particular of a and instrumental music was the order of the afternoon, and all partook of a sumptitious repast. They were married in Copenhagen March 21, 1857, and the following month timed for Utah, crossing the plains with a hand cart company, landing in Utah Sept. 13, 1857.

One of the most delightful dancing parties of the season was given Monday evening at the Congress dancing academy by the young ladies of the St. Joseph church. There were present over 150 couples, who tripped the light fantastic until long after the midnight hour to sweet strains of music from hour to sweet strains of music from Short's enlarged orchestra.

The W. C. T. U. was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. W. Clancey. Besides an inter-esting program, a social hour was Mrs. Frank P. Sterling of Helena. Mont., spent this week in Ogden with her brother, W. M. Rosencrans.

Carl Malder visited with friends in Ogden this week, and went to Salt Lake City Thursday to spend a week with his mother, Mrs. Clara Schoen-feld.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman W. Jones, who have been making their home at Preston, Ida., where Mr. Jones was manager of Peery's mill, have removed to Ogden to make their future

Mrs. Cora Cross of Oakland, Cat. ac-companied by her children, arrived in Orden Tuesday, to visit with her par-ents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Jones.

At the home of Mrs. Clapp on Jackson avenue, the Ladies of the Maccabees had a social card party Thursday afternoon.

Tuesday night the Elks lodge of Og-den held the installation of the re-cently elected officers and had a pleas-ant social time. Refreshments were served.

The Ogden High school alumni has arranged for another of its enjoyable dancing parties for next Friday eveming.

The Royal Neighbors will give a ant evening. Lunch was served.

card-party next Tuesday evening. PROVO.

The Nineteenth Century club met in open session Friday with Mrs. J. J. Nu.n., with a large number of friends of members as guests of the club. Rev. J. Challen Smith delivered an able address on "George Eliot and Her Works." The following officers of the club have been elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. W. B. Searle; vice president, Mrs. J. W. Aird; recording secretary, Miss Helen Bougham; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John Marwick; treasurer, Mrs. George Havercamp; executive committee, Mrs. J. Challen Smith, Mrs. A. B. Smith, Mrs. Lida Thornhill.

The Sorosis met in open session Wednesday with Mrs. R. R. Irvine, Jr., and enjoyed an instructive lecture by Dr. F. W. Taylor on "Bacteriology." Members of the Nineteenth Century club were guests of the Sorosis. Refreshments were served.

The Pallas club entertained at a candy pull Thursday evening at the home of Miss Thereso Armitstead in honor of the vice president, Miss Lizzie Rowe, who expects to leave for her home in Spanish Fork in the near future.

Tuesday evening the Fourth ward Y. L. M. I. A. entertained in honor of the Y. M. M. I. A. in the ward house. An interesting program of music, song and games was enjoyed. Refreshments were served.

Miss Hannah Dunn entertained Wednesday in honor of Miss Jane Honey, who is about to move to Salt Lake.

Miss Mina Houston has gone to American Fork to visit relatives.

Mrs. Ray Murdock of Heber visited friends in Provo this week, Mrs. Ella Hixon of Salt Lake, was in Provo this week visiting relatives and friends.

Bert Thorne visited relatives in Pleasant Grove this week.

Mrs, Lizzie Jones entertained at an Easter dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for 12. Mrs. H. S. Pyne entertained at a family dinner Sunday, the occasion being the twenty-fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Pyne.

Mrs. W. B. Searle returned from an extended visit to California this week. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hatch, Jr., of Fort Bridger, were here this week

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever. DR. T. Felix Gouraud's Oriental Oream or Magical Beautifler Creem or Mogloni Beautifier.

Remores Tan, Pimples, Freckies, Moth Patches, Reach, and Chilin Diegrace, and every blemba and every blemba dies detection. In the state of by years, and is so harmies we have to beauty, and deduce the control of the detection. In the state of by years, and is so harmies we have to be detection. In the control of the co visiting Mrs. Hatch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. C. Hathenbruck.

The students of the B. Y. U. university enjoyed a grand ball in the gymnasium hall, Tuesday night, after the "Y" building excursion to the mountains.

Mrs. William M. Roylance enter-tained at dinner Sunday, in honor of Mr. Roylance's birthday anniversary. Covers were laid for 24.

Miss Nettle Knudsen was down from Heber this week, visiting relatives.

Manager L. O. Taft was the host at a theater party Monday night at the "Bonnie Brier Bush" presentation. The employes of the Z. C. M. I. were Mrs. Bengt Johnson, Jr., and a number of friends conducted a pleasant surprise party in honor of Mrs. Bengta Brod. Saturday, the occasion being Mrs. Brod's eighty-third birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Eden Moore have returned from a viet in Heber

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Snow enter-tained a large number of friends at their home in the Third ward. Tuesday night. An enjoyable social evening passed with music, song and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Moore are visiting friends in Salt Lake. Mrs. Reed Smoot and Miss Chloe Smoot visited Salt Lake relatives this week.

. . .

The teachers of the Fourth ward Sunday school gave a very pleasant party for the members of the depart-ment Wednesday in the ward house. The eighth grade pupils of the Brig-ham Young university training school entertained their teachers at a first of April party. Monday in gymnasium hall. The event was a very enjoyable one, having many entertaining fea-

The benefit ball given by the Sorosis, Friday evening, in gymnasium hall was well attended and a most enjoyable social event. The decoration in the club colors were most artistic, and the affair reflects great credit on the members of the club. The proceeds will go to the Canyon Crest ranch.

The grand ball given by the Utah Sorosis Friday evening at the gymnasium hall was a very enjoyable affair. The hall was beautifully decorated with the club colors. The affair was thoroughly enjoyable and reflects with credit on the members of the club.

Mrs. Elia Hixon has returned to her home in Salt Lake after a pleasant visit with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Canby Scott announce the engagement of their daughter Louis, to Mr. Carl Cochran.

Mrs. W. E. Stoker entertained at dinner Wednesday, Mrs. Stevenson and daughter, Miss Janie Honey, who left Thursday evening for Salt Lake where they will make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thurgood were the recipients of a delightful mas-querade surprise party given at their home Friday evening. Many excellent and interesting characters were repre-sented. The evening passed merrily in games and various amusements. Refreshments were served.

Mr. J. M. Crier has returned to his home in California, after a week spent with relatives in Provo.

Miss Ethel Rodgers was the de Miss Ethel Rodgers was the delightful hostess at an evening social given Monday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. N. Taylor, About 40 young people made the hours pass merrily with games and music. An elaborate lunch was served.

Mrs. Zina Muhlenbruch of Stockton is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. B. Ward, in this city for a couple of weeks.

A jolly crowd of young people pleas-antly surprised Miss Jane Honey at her home Monday evening. Games, music and recitations made a pleas-

LOGAN.

Miss Elva Eliason was hostess at a dinner party which was given in honor of Miss Ray Campbell on Wednesday. Covers were taid for five, the guests being the Misses Afton and Genevieve Thatcher, Miss Eva Stoddard and Miss Campbell.

The engagement is announced of Miss Florence Miner and Mr. Bert Susser, the marriage to take place on April 10.

A pleasant social event of the week was the one held at the home of Judge W. W. Maughan on Wednesday evening, when the young ladies of the B. Y. C. graduating class entertained the young men of the class most royally. The class colors of white and lavender, were carried out in detail. There were about 60 present.

On Tuesday cevning Miss Nan Nib-ley entertained the Doso girls of the U. A. C. in a most delightful man-ner at her home.

A pleasant event of last week was the social held at the B. Y. C. All members of the faculty and a few in-vited guests were present. The evening was most pleasantly spent in games and delicious refreshments were serv-ed by the domestic science depart-ment ment. The Odd Fellows held a very pleas-ant social on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Dr. I. S. Smith entertained at cards on Friday in honor of her sister Mrs. Ralph Mitchell of Idaho Falls.

Mrs. D. H. Thomas and Miss Phyllis Thatcher are visiting in Salt Lake as the guests of their sister, Mrs. A. L. Farrell.

Miss Dora Wright is the guest of the John D. Spencers in Salt Lake. Miss Lizzie McKay is spending a few days in Ogden.

Mrs. Harry Parker left on Friday for Rosebud, Nev., where she will join her husband. Prof. and Mrs. George W. Thatcher are visiting in Salt Lake.

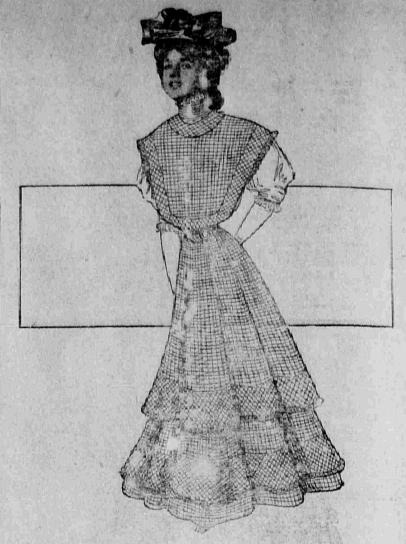

Prof. McKay is attending confer-ence in Salt Lake. Mr. Bert Wright has gone to Ne-

Hon, C. W. Nibley was a Logan visitor during the week. Miss Beil Pratt of Blackfoot, Ida, is the guest of Miss Ruby Nebeker. Miss Leo Roberts is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. W. Naylor.

Profs. Gibson and L. E. Young were Logan visitors during the week, Mrs. L. R. Martineau has returned to her home in Sait Lake, after spending several days in Logan.

Mrs. Albert Horne of Sait Lake who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell has returned home. Mrs. M. R. Needham has gone to Preston, Ida., to visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Needham.

W. S. Lamoreaux was up from Sait Lake on Monday. Mrs Ellen Nibley and children by

ANOTHER VARIATION OF THE JUMPER DRESS

Checked chiffon mohairs are among the smartest materials used this season for the jumper freek, an example of which is here illustrated. The material is a buff and white check mohair, deep yellow fringe only three-quarters of an inch wide edging the wide folds that trim the pretty gored skirt, and outlines the large armholes of the novel bedice. Scarcely a bit of the guimpe, except the sleeve, can be seen, as the jumper buttoned to a trig little belt in from and back with pointed tubs covers it nearly to the high featherboned collar.

have spent the winter. Mr. Joel Nib-ley accompanied them up from Salt Lake.

Mr. Ron Thatcher came down from Rexburg, Ida., and spent a few days with home folks.

Miss Sophia Poulson is at home after a prolonged stay in Salt Lake. Miss Laura Proctor of Salt Lake has spent the past two weeks in Lo-Miss Luiu Carpenter is up from Salt Lake visiting her mother and sister.

Mr. Lester Naylor is in Logan.

Miss Rose Smith of Ogden is visiting in Logan. Mrs. J. N. Christiansen of Haden, Ida., is visiting with Mrs. Rosenbaum.

EUREKA.

John A. Blythe and Mrs. May L. Blanchard were joined in marriage at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the ceremony being performed at their home on upper Main street by Judge D. A. Lindsay. Mr. and Mrs. Blythe will make their hove in Eureka. Mrs. Mike Murname is on a visit with friends in Monroe, Sevier county.

Colin McMurphy spent Saturday and Sunday with his family at Payson. Frank Davis, proprietor of the Tintic

Lake receiving treatment at one of take for a visit this week. charlie Wood, the new financial secretary of the Eureka Miners' union, assumed the duties of his office Monday, relieving Ernest Menlove, who expects to move his family to Payson soon.

The local lodge of Eagles expect to give a dance the latter part of the month. The Eagles are renowned for their entertaining qualities and the event is being looked forward to with a god deal of interest by everyone. The exact date is to be made known later.

Walter W. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson are expected to return soon from Los Angeles where they have been for several months, the trip having been made in the interest of Mr. Thampson's health, which it is understood has been entirely regained.

Walter W. Thompson and Mrs

Phil Clark of the Tintic Mercantile company, made a business trip to Seit Lake Wednesday.

C. E. Berry spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at Springville.

At the recent meeting of the Evening Star lodge No. 7, Degree of Honor, Mrs. James D. Stack was chosen as its representative to the meeting of the grand seesion to be held in Ogden next month, and Mrs. Alex Blight was chosen as alternate.

chosen as alternate. Mrs. S. J. Schneiter and children are visiting friends in Salt Lake.

Mrs. Dr. Hensel left Tuesday for a visit with friends in Salt Lake for a short while. . . .

John O. Freckleton has been in Salt

WAITER THE KNOWS that there's nothing so provocative of good humor as Chirardelli's Cocoa. Its delicious fragrance and sustaining goodness fill the most exacting guest with generous impulses. The best thing too breakfast is

Ghirardelli's Cocoa

Bennett Glass & Paint Co LASS PAIRT OF THE STATE 67 west FIRST SO.

ESTABLISHED 1884.

SHERWOOD'S MARKET

749 and 751 STATE STREET.

Being centrally located and owning the premises, we can give our Patrons better service and right prices. Prompt Delivery.

ROBT. SHERWOOD . . . . . . . . . Proprietor. AND THE PERSON OF THE PERSON O

DR. T. FELIX COURAUD'S

ORIENTAL TOILET POWDER

This is an exquisitely perfumed, antiseptic toket powder. It is a household necessity for the nursery and toller it keeps the complexion clear and preserves the veixer texture of youth. It should be used freely after bathling giving a delightful and refreshing effect.

No. 8 Main St. By the Monument, SALT LAKE CITY.

AN IDEAL, ANYISEPTIC TOISET POWDER FOR INFANTS AND ADULTS.

FERD. T. HOPKINE, N. Y. City. COURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM. WILLES-HORNE DRUC CO.,

Mrs. J. C. Cutler received informally at her home on Wednesday.