The decline in gold, to-day, caused great alarm among the bulls of Broadway and Wall streets, and there were rumors on the street that nearly every house that has been connected with the leaders in the bull market will be hopelessly ruined. The banks who have been the backers of the bulls are said to have deserted them, and are now trying to secure themselves.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., 5.—Twelve cases of cholera are reported at Elizabethtown. The people there are much frightened, and have sent to this city for aid.

HALIFAX, 5.—A letter from Sidney, Cape Breton, says the settlement of West Bay, on Grand Lake, was almost demolished by a gale; and in Baysdale twenty houses were blown down. In the port of Caledonia about twenty-five American schooners were more or less damaged. Fifteen of the crew of the steamer Saltwell have arrived at Halifax; fifteen more of the crew are missing, and are supposed to have been drowned. Only one has reached the shore.

TRENTON, N. J., 4.—The Fashion stud farm stables took fire at about 11 a.m. The building was fifty feet wide and 195 long, and was totally destroyed, together with nine horses, out of nineteen which it contained at the time. Among the horses burned were two road mares belonging to President Grant; Lapier, a valuable animal belonging to Mr. Butterworth of Philadelphia; Henry B. Gray, a horse belonging to Budd Doble, valued at $4000; and five other horses not noted. Goldsmith Maid, Lucy, Rosalind, Hotspur and some California mares were saved. Doble loses ten sulkies, three fall-top buggies, thirty sets of harness and some traps worth a thousand dollars. Charles Cochrane, an old man, loses a trunk containing three hundred in gold. The trunks belonging to all the horses are lost, together with the clothing of all the boys, about a hundred halters and a large number of saddles and bridles.

PHILADELPHIA, 4.—Probably a fatal domestic tragedy occurred to-night at 332 Munroe St., in the family of a man who is represented as a sober and industrious man, while his wife is intemperate. It appears that the wife and a female friend had been indulging freely, and without provocation attacked Montgomery, who was sleeping. His wife stabbed him in several places with a table knife, when he escaped from the house covered with blood. The two females were arrested, and Montgomery was taken to the hospital, where his injuries were pronounced fatal. It was found that he had received a deep gash in the left side of the throat, a cut on the left temple, and two on the top of the head.

NEW YORK, 4.—Another murder and suicide, in which both the victims are Germans, occurred to-night. Martin Hinze, living in 28th street, came home about ten o'clock, and began quarrelling with his wife, and without the slightest provocation drew a pistol and shot her in the breast. She fell to the ground fatally wounded. He then put the pistol in his own mouth and fired, the ball passing through his head, inflicting a wound from which he cannot recover. Both were removed to the hospital, but neither, it is thought, can live. Hinze had been drinking and was apparently crazy.

Wm. Johnson, a sailor, died at Long Island College Hospital, from the effects of a beating by unknown parties in the city, a few days ago. Two car loads of fruit from California have arrived within a day or two, consisting of about half a car load of Muscat and Tokay grapes, 550 boxes of hardy and Doyenne pears, and 600 boxes of plums. The pears were only of fair quality to compete with Eastern fruit, which is plentiful. However the sales are at $5 @ $6 per case. The plums are of different varieties, and exceedingly fine and in splendid order, selling at $4 per box. The grapes arrived in poor order, and will hardly pay the freight. It is said that the experiment, so far, in sending California fruit to this market has been unprofitable to shippers. Ten weeks since a car load of grapes arrived, each case marked on the side, consequently the marked side was kept up, and the full weight of the grapes was compressed in a few inches of space. The lot was sold for fifteen dollars, of which the freight alone was $70, besides the cost of handling the fruit before shipment. Dealers, however, are looking to a time when these difficulties will be obviated and California fruits will be a regular commodity here.

PORTLAND, Me., 4.—News has been received that, on the 27th of August, sixteen miles south east from Mount Desert, was picked up a fragment of a raft, with an inscription dated Aug 24, to the effect that the schooner Eliza Francis was water-logged and upset, that she afterwards went to pieces, and that the men had been two days on the raft without food. It is believed that they were all lost.

ST. LOUIS, 4.—Two men, named J. Douglass and R. S. Hayman, went into a saloon, in Montgomery city, Mo., on Monday last, and created a disturbance. They were ordered out by Patrick Cain, the bar keeper, whereupon Douglass drew a revolver and shot Cain, killing him. Douglass escaped, but Hayman was arrested.

Two farmers, named Lafayette Newkirk and Robert Meyers, between whom an old feud existed, met on the road six miles from Mexico, Mo., last Monday. One of Newkirk's horses became frightened and interfered with Meyers' team, when the latter drew a revolver, jumped from the wagon and advanced towards Newkirk, threatening to shoot him, when Newkirk shot Meyers dead. Newkirk then went to Mexico, and surrendered to the officers of the law.

SAN FRANCISCO, 4.—Charles Burgess, of Sonora, writing to a San Francisco paper, says he professes to know something relative to the Tichborne claimant, and the Doughty family of Upton house, near Poole, Dorsetshire, England. At the age of 14, Mr. Burgess lived as livery servant in the family. The supposed Sir Roger was then a boy like himself. Ten minutes in company with the claimant, according to Mr. Burgess' ideas of the situation, would convince him whether or not he is the real Sir Roger. Mr. Burgess emigrated from England to California twenty years ago, and has resided in Sonora, Tuolumne county, up to the present date.

An inquest was held this afternoon on the body of John Gallagher, who was shot last night. Several witnesses were examined, and those who knew Gallagher, testified that he was a peaceable young man. The coroner adjourned the inquest till to-morrow, in order to procure the evidence of the man Bell, who was in company with Gallagher when he was shot. It is said that supervisor James J. Kenney knelt over the body, and swore to kill the man who shot his friend. The officers have not been able to find Bell, who is the most important witness in the case.

OTTAWA, Ont., 4.—The Royal commission appointed to investigate the Pacific R. R. charges met in the Railway committee room at noon to-day. Mr. Van Keogh read the royal commission. A very few persons were present except Sir W. M. McDonald and other members of the cabinet. The chairman called upon Huntington to come forward, but there was no response. Hon. Wm. Staines was then called, and examined. The public look upon the commission as somewhat of a whitewashing machine in the interest of the government. Huntington is the principal witness in the matter, and his failing to appear with his witnesses weakens their position greatly.

NEW YORK, 5.—Since Monday there has been a man confined as a prisoner at the police head quarters, who was arrested on suspicion of being connected with the Wall Street forgeries. His name is Joseph J. Yates, but beyond his name the police observe the utmost reticence regarding him.

The opening business at Wall St., to-day, was considerably excited, on account of the development in the gold clique, and partly on account of the death of Charles A. Lamont, an active operator of large means, and of late understood to be a bear in stocks. Yesterday, soon after the opening of the exchange, securities improved, and a quieter feeling prevailed, it being inferred that the gold clique had gone into liquidation. Before noon rumors of the unfavorable bank statement were current, and excitement was occasioned with a rush to sell stocks, and there was no abatement until the close of bank hours, when a quieter tone characterized the market. During the excited times of the day failures were rumored, but they were not corroborated. The bankers seem to think that the worst of the flurry is over, and that the disruption of the clique will leave plain sailing for all during autumn. The day closed with the street full of rumors, but the markets were comparatively quiet.

Another large seizure of smuggled diamonds was made yesterday by the customs officers; they were mostly small gems of great brilliancy, and were appraised at $8,000 gold.

DETROIT, 7.—Peter Jeannot, the father of the little girl who was outraged by James Canivan, in Muskegan, on Monday, went to the jail to-day, and asked permission to see the prisoner, which was granted by the sheriff. Jeannot then stepped to the door of the cell, where the villain was confined, took a pistol from his cap, and shot Canivan in the neck. Jeannot was taken before a justice and admitted to bail. The facts of the case are briefly stated by the Free Press correspondent as follows:—

On Monday last, Canivan enticed a little girl 9 years old into the woods, where he kept her all night and foully outraged her. Search was made for the child during the night by the alarmed parents, but in vain. About daylight the fiend let her go, and she came back, barely able to walk. Canivan was arrested on Tuesday, and lodged in jail. The little girl died the following morning. The outrage created great indignation and excitement.

OSHKOSH, Wis., 7.—A horrible accident occurred in a lumber and shingle mill, which resulted in the complete scalping of a young lady, tearing out every hair of her head. The unfortunate lady was employed packing shingles, when the knuckle in a shaft above her head caught her hair, which wound around the shaft lifting her up to the ceiling following the line of her hair; the flesh was taken with it, leaving the head in some places bare. She cannot recover.

NEW ORLEANS, 7.—The following was received here yesterday, from Shreveport: "Owing to the prevalence of malignant yellow fever here and the consequent panic in the country, our city has been quarantined by the interior department, and trade in consequence paralyzed."

AUSTIN, Tex., 7.—There are conflicting reports regarding the prevalence of yellow fever at Galveston, Shreveport and Houston. It is rumored that the Texas Pacific railroad has been blockaded. It is impossible to ascertain anything of a reliable character. A perfect panic prevails at Galveston and Houston. The north-west bound trains to-day and last night were loaded with people flying from both places.

Official information received from Japan represents that Mr. Moro, late Japanese minister to the United States, had a very warm and cordial reception by the Japanese authorities on his arrival home, and the report that he was in disgrace, and would not in future be permitted to hold any official position is untrue, and was put in circulation by his enemies for some unexplained reason.

Gen. Irwin, acting secretary of the Interior, has caused a thorough examination to be made of the files and records of the Indian bureau, to ascertain how much truth exists in the stories circulating in the public press, that large numbers of firearms of Government improved patterns have been issued to hostile Indians during the last two years; the result shows that the total number is 200.

PITTSBURGH.—A serious accident occurred here last evening at the Hasting Coal Works. The Birmingham train, with thirty cars, started from the rear of the pit with a number of miners, they having finished work and got upon the cars to be conveyed to the front, and when within a quarter of a mile of their destination the steam gave out, a dense smoke, caused by the firing up, together with the foul air, exhausted it to such an extent, that the engineer found it necessary to hurry out, or fatal results would follow. When they reached open air the engineer and fireman had fallen upon the boilers, when Joseph Burns, a former engineer, noticed the condition of affairs, and jumped on board the locomotive and stopped it just in time to save it from going through the check house and over a hill. A boy named George McLean, was missing, and on search being made in the pit his body was found to have been run over and his head nearly severed. Several miners remain in a very precarious condition.

SAN FRANCISCO, 7.—The counting of the votes was finished this afternoon about one o'clock. The following is the vote: State Senator, Roache, Dem., 10,111; Hallidie, Dolly Varden, 9,833; Bartlett, Dolly Varden, 9,881. This elects Roache by 230 majority, and Bartlett by 48 over Hallidie. The whole Dolly Varden legislative ticket, except Hallidie, is elected. A recount will probably be demanded in one or two precincts, owing to the manner in which the votes were counted. The Board of Supervisors will meet to-morrow noon, to canvass the vote.

NEW YORK, 8.—A mass meeting of merchants and others interested in the subject of transportation will be held at the Cooper Institute, on Wednesday evening. Mayor Havemeyer will preside, and the subject will be discussed by eminent speakers. It is expected that the United States Senate committee on transportation routes will be present, as well as the legislative committee on the same subject. More than five hundred mercantile houses have signed the call for the meeting, and it is probable there will grow out of this meeting an association which will mutually aid in solving the great question of the change in transportation which is being so widely agitated.

The Tribune's special from the Yellowstone expedition, dated Camp near Mussel Shell River, Mont., Aug. 19, gives a description of the advance of the expedition, and the battle on Tongue River, between General Custar and a party of 250 Sioux Indians. After three hours' hard fight, in which the Indians had two killed, Custar's ammunition gave out, and the cavalry were ordered to charge, when the Indians escaped on their ponies. Three stragglers from Custar's camp were killed by the Indians—Dr. Honsinger, the veterinary surgeon, Dr. Bodaran, the cavalry sutler, and John Baller, a private. The Indians who made the attack are supposed to be Unepapoes, one of the ten tribes of the Sioux.
