To date a number expostulating drivers have been compelled to go over to the station to reclaim their teams to the station to reclaim their teams and incidentally enrich the city treas-ury by putting up fines. It is believed that this enforcement of the city ordi-nance will have a salutary effect, to say nothing of putting a quietus on the series of runaways that have endanger-ed the lives and property of people on the streads recently. the streets recently.

Old Home Collapsed—The old Davis Deaconess's Home building, 41 east Third South street, collapsed Saturday evening, with a crash. Part fell over onto the new I. X. L. building in pro-cess of erection, but without doing any particular damage. However, the con-cussion weakened the east wall of the Metropole building, so that it is crack-ed and may have to be rebuilt. Albert Mayers had bought the old Home building expecting to retain the walls as part of his new business establishas part of his new business establishment to be put up there, and had torn out the front. No one was around the premises, so there were no casualties. He Used a Knife—William Briley of Alta is occupying a cell in the county jail with the charge of assault with a deadly weapon booked against him. a deadly weapon booked against him. The man, who was brought to Salt Lake last night by Deputy Sheriff Davis, is accused of trying to carve up one J. S. Delaney in a boarding house brawl on Saturday night at Alta. As the story goes, he made several victous stabs at Delaney with a butcher-knife and twice the blade passed tbrough the man's clothing inflicting a couple of wounds in his back. The coat Delaney was wearing at the time coat Delaney was wearing at the time of the trouble is slit in several places and will be used as evidence when the case comes up for trial. Around The World—There was an "Around the World" tourist party yes-terday, at the Knutsford, under the conductorship of George Vickers who has had considerable experience in tour conducting. In speaking last evening, of his experiences he said when asked as to the status of foreign missionaries; "I know from seventeen years of around-the-world travel that there is a bitter hostility among busi-ness and professional men in foreign countries towdar Christian missionar-ies, but I would like to go on record as ies, but I would like to go on record as believing it not justified. I have seen men and women in missionary work whom I know could make double the money at home and like to be the money at home employments, and such devoted people do not needlessly give offense to foreign peoples."

His interesting discourse was listened to by a large and appreciative congregation, the theme dwelt upon being the Gospel. President John R. Winder presided over the services, which were opened by the choir rendering an anthem.

The invocation was offered by Elder John M. Knight of the Ensign stake. The second hymn was "How Sweet the Word," and before the benediction, which was pronounced by Elder Arnold H. Schulthess of the Liberty stake, the choir sang the anthem, "With Sheath-ed Sword."

PREACHED TO THE WORLD.

Elder Whitney read the 14th verse of Matthew, xxiv, as follows: "And of Matthew, xxiv, as follows: "And this Gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the end come." These he said were the words of the Son of God, spoken in answer of the Son of God, spoken in answer to a question propounded by His dis-ciples as to what should be the signs of His second coming and of the end of the world. The Savior had just been weeping over the inhabitants of Jeru-salem, who had slain the Prophets. He said that their houses should be left unto them desolate, until the time should come when they would cry out "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord. The end of the world means the end of wickedness and the reign of righteousness, said Elder reign of righteousness, said Elder Whitney, Christ named certain signs reign of righteousness, said Elder Whitney, Christ named certain signs that would precede the long looked for time when evil would give way, and the principles of justice and right bear sway. Among the signs given were ter-rible calamities that would be wrought by the elements; false Christs and false prophets should arise and deceive many. These were but the beginning of the end. The one great sign of the second advent of the Son of God was the preaching of the Gospel to all ra-tions. The meaning of the Gospel to all ra-tions. The meaning of the Gospel said the speaker, is glad tidings, therefore the Gospel is glad tidings of the king-dom. Prophets of God in all ages have contemplated a time when there should be established on earth a kingdom that was not of human origin. Prophets and poets and wise men in all the cen-turies past and gone have looked for-ward to a period when wickedness should cease and when righteousness would reign supreme, when every man in every place would find a friend and brother and nation. Such a kingdom was predicted by the Prophet Daniel, and the same was typified by the little stone, cut out of the mountain with-out hands, that was destined to fill the whole earth. whole earth.

DESERET EVENING NEWS

cient apostle saw that the Gospel was to be preached to every nation, showed, the speaker said, that every nation was without the Gospel. Joseph Smith was the Prophet of the last dispensa-tion, a forerunner of the coming of the Lord. All the signs predicted by the Savice as exercise to precede His sec-Savior as events to precede His sec-ond advent had not been fulfilled in the days of the ancient apostles. Among others that have not yet come to pass are those pertaining to the darkening of the sun and that the moon should be turned into blood. The Gospel is again being preached to all nations, kindreds, being preached to all nations, kindreds, tongues and people. In conclusion, Elder Whitney said that it is a mistake to believe that "Mormonism" is anything of a men-ace or jill to the world. Its aims and purposes are broad and philanthropic and it has in yiew the welfare of all mankind.

that he had been robbed of $300. Long be-fore the officer and his ward arrived at headquarters his wails could be heard in advance. He tore his hair and generally filled the air with lamentations. While the man was being booked on the charge of drunkenness the missing money was dis-covered on his person. Then followed an-other scene wherein the joyous laborer from Garfield attempted to hug every-thing in sight from Hilton to the big stove in the office. He was finally escort-ed to temporary quarters in the jail where he danced a hornpipe until exhausted. This is of such common oc-currence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and exten-sive sale by its prompt cures of this most common aliment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by all drug-gists.

TO PREPARE MANKIND.

Elder Whitney said he believed it would be conceded by all present that a time would come when Christ the Savior would reign upon the earth. To prepare mankind for that glorious event the Gospel is preached to the world that by abedience to its laws and world, that by obedience to its laws and ordinances the people may be made ready for the coming of the Lord. Jesus sent His ancient aposities to preach the Gospel to every creature. The preaching of the message of salva-tion is a solemn thing and bears with it a warning that a rejection of the divine commandments will bring condemnation.

The Latter-day Saints, declared El-der Whitney, do not believe that the Gospel had its origin at the time Christ came to the earth to proclaim His message, suffer and die. The Gos-pel is everlasting, having existed for all time. A Gospel that is for the salva-tion of all men must give universal opportunity, must be universal in its origin and application. It must be like the sun of heaven, shedding its like the sun of heaven, shedding its rays upon the just and upon the unjust, or as the dew that descends alike upon good and evil. That which affects the weal or woe of humanity must be broad and apply to all mortals in like degree. The Gospel as proclaimed to earth's inhabitants in the meridian of time was not the dust time become time was not the first time by any means that it had been taught to mortal man, declared Elder Whitney. It had its origin in the heavens before the world was made. Joseph Smith taught the doctrine that intelligence is eternal, spirit is eternal, matter is eternal. God spirit is eternal, matter is eternal. God never did and could not create princi-ples, for principles have no beginning nor end. God created ordinances and regulations, based upon self-existing truths, and incorporated them into a code of laws called the Gospel. This Gospel has been sent into the world at intervals been with the costed at intervals, beginning with the period of the fall of man. The message does not change, and wherever found it is

THE FIRST PRINCIPLES.

Elder Whitney went on to enumerate and explain the first principles of the Gospel-faith, repentance, baptism and the gift of the Holy Ghost-telling why each principle must the gift of the Holy Ghost--telling why each principle must essentially be complied with by one who would be obedient unto God. That the ordin-ances, to become effectual, should be performed by divine authority, was made clear by the speaker. Referring again to the various Gos-pel dispensations, Elder Whitney said the Gospel had been revealed to our father Adam, who rendered obedience thereto and ascended to glory, beyond thereto and ascended to glory, beyond paradise. Enoch, Noah, Abraham and Moses likewise received the blessings of a Gospel dispensation. When the people, whose leader Moses was, showd inability to live the higher law, the Gospel and the Melchisedek Priest. hood were taken from the earth for a period of 1.500 years and were restored then the Son of Man came in the merillan of time. When Christ told His disciples that when Christ told His disciples that they would not have gone through all the cities of Israel before He would come a second time and the end of the world would be witnessed, the state-ment was a truthful one. Upon the American continent were hundreds of cities of the house of Israel, of whom the Israelites under Boman cut had the Israelites under Roman rule had never heard. The apostles were not made acquainted with the fact of how long a time would elapse before the second advent of their Lord would take place, and this for a wise purpose in the eyes of God.

THE TRUTH RESTORED.

Again, in the latter days, a mighty Prophet had been raised up, declared Elder Whitney, in fulfillment of the words of John the Revelator, relative to the flying of an angel with the everlasting Gospel. The fact that the an-
