the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

First Snow of Winter—Reports from Spanish Fork canyon state that it had been snowing up there for several days.

Hager Edition—The Salt Lake Telegram company published 18,000 telegrams the first of this month, covering the Salt Lake and Ogden district.

Collegiate Institute—The Salt Lake Collegiate Institute has 72 students this year, 45 of them being boarders. This is a better record than for years past.

Fund Raising Expedition—Rev. Drs. McNeice and Stevenson of Westminster college are in the east raising funds for the completion of the new building already in and for the erection of another.

Twenty Years of Presbyterianism—According to Presbyterian records, 2,300 persons have been received into the Utah Presbyterian churches during the last 20 years on profession of faith, and about the same number "paying off."

Paying off Church Debt—Of the $10,000 subscribed on the debt of the First Methodist church in this city last spring, over $4,000 has been paid, with the interest up-to-date. The subscriptions were made payable on or before next January.

Mrs. Leonard Convent—Mrs. F. E. Leonard has successfully recovered from a capital operation at the Keogh-Hammond hospital to be returned to her home where she is convalescing rapidly. Mrs. Leonard's many friends who will be pleased to hear this.

Heavy Idaho Business—Local express agents report an unusual amount of business, shipments being of all kinds of merchandise. A great deal of this is going into Idaho, which the express people regard as one of the most remarkable states in the Union in the way of development.

Thrills For Bank Clerks—The Salt Lake Chapter of the American Institute of Bank Clerks will meet tomorrow evening at the Commercial club when President J. B. Kelly will relate his thrilling trip through the northwest, including several hair-breadth escapes from railroad accidents.

Improvements at Cemetery—The Mt. Olivet association has just expended $2,500 in improving and laying out new lands, increasing the acreage of the cemetery 30 per cent. A thousand new trees have been set out, cement paths laid, and new roadways opened. The management proposes to have in a few years one of the finest cemeteries in the west.

Somewhat Embarrassing—There are two H. L. Thomases in town, and since one H. L. Thomas barely escaped being sent to jail for refusing to answer questions in court, the other H. L. Thomas has been stopped on the street any number of times to be offered congratulations on his escape from imprisonment in the county bastille.

New Telephone Line—The Utah & Nevada Telephone company is extending its line into Skull valley from this city, 75 miles, where communication is promised the last of November. The people of that somewhat remote region are much gratified at the prospect, as it has often happened in the past that quick communication with Salt Lake would have saved suffering, and sometimes lives.

Governor in Demand—Governor William Spry has received invitations to attend three conventions this fall and appoint delegates to represent the state of Utah. The Dry Farming congress will be held in Billings, Montana on Oct. 25 to 28, inclusive, wants 20 delegates. The Mississippi-Alabama Indian waterway convention meets at Jacksonville, Fla. on Nov. 15 and 16. Governor Spry is invited to attend and bring three delegates.
