Johnson said he had been standing on the corner of West Temple and Frst South streets when he saw some men becoming engaged in a fight. While bed meshed are the probability of the set of the "Well, madam, I-I-I-er-I-well, say, madam, you know-L" Sergeant Lenzi for once was lost, but finally managed to blurt out: looking on, one of the men rushed at him and began beating him. Johnson was attended at the hospital by Dr. F. "I've got a big heart myself, and I'd hate to kill any cat. But, say, I guess we can get one of the fire boys to do it." B. Steele.

That was enough for the woman, and with hurried profuse thanks she dropped the bag with the cat, hastly shoved the bottle of chloroform through the wicket, and was out the drop.

Sergeant Lenzi had to make good, then, and he found one of the boys in the jall yard not so tender-hearted, and the cat was put in to the chloro-form sleep.

"In the next sentence the editor of the Republican shows his ignorance when he alludes to the association of honest men and women who desire the closing of the stockade. It may be news to the Republican to know that there are no women connected with the central betterment committee. But a will let it go at that.

"The paper then goes on to assert that I have done everything which tends to prevent the committee accom-plishing the work desired by my as-soclates. As to this unwarranted charge I can only say that I have never made a move without the sanction and knowledge of the Central Betterment committee. I was chosen by the mem-bers as chairman, and every step that has been and is being taken is only done after due consultation. "Regarding the charge made by the

"Regarding the charge made by the paper under discussion that I am strong in my endorsement of Sam Barlow as chief of police, I will say that I will endorse the acts of an official just as long as he does his duty. I went to Chief Barlow and asked him to remove the slot machines in the saloons and cigar stores, machines which absorbed the nickles of the hove and herd in the nickles of the boys and bred in them the desire to gamble. The chief of police took prompt action after listening to my story and closed up the slot machines. Certainly I endorsed him. Ing to his scertainly I endorsed him. The law is not a dead letter apparent-ly, judging from the number of Sunday arrests that are being made. "CERTAINLY HAS ITS GALL."

'The Republican claims credit for being the only paper which has fought the establishment and maintenance of the stockade. So far as the Inter-Mountain Republican is concerned | is not backward in claiming everything in sight. It certainly has its gall after the stand the Deseret News has taken. "As to the editorial mistatements re-garding my.attitude towards Job Lyon. the county attorney: From the first I have been misquoted in the Republican, as I have previously stated. As far as I am concerned I do not intend to be drawn into the fight on the county at-torney, who apparently has incurred the animosity of the Republican be-cause he had the temerity to enter suit against the county commissioners to recover in the interests of the people several thousand dollars which are al-leged to have found their way into the business office of the Republican for printing the annual delinquent tax no-tices at a very high and fancy figure without first going through the formali-ty of even entering a bid on the propo-sition. That is rather a long sentence, but it tells the story. lrawn into the fight on the county at-but it tells the story. "I never said the tihngs the Republi-can accuses me of. I called on Mr. can accuses me of. I called on Mr. Lyon in connection with the stockade case and asked him regarding his re-ported attitude on the matter. He as-sured me that he would do his duty and take up the cases. He also welcomed the suggestion that two other attorneys assist him in the proceedings I will assist him in the prosecutions. I will continue to believe, despite the Repub-lican, that Mr. Lyon is a man of his word. I will continue to believe this until the county attorney falls to de-liver the goods.

The Republican says that I do not want the stockade closed. I think that my record as chairman of the Central Betterment committee answers that question

"The Central Betterment committee knows no sect or political party and declines to be hauled into politics to please the Inter-Mountain Republican or any other paper. It welcomes the aid of all loyal citizens. It will con-tinue to praise and commend, public officials of all parties for the faithful performance of their duty. And it will expose and condemn officers of any po-litical party who are backward in the performance of their sworn duty. We have assisted and desire to assist the 500d work of the juvenile court and all other institutions whose object and sim is the perfecting of moral citizen-The Central Betterment committee aim is the perfecting of moral citizen-could say more, but the Republican's attitude smells to high heaven of politics, and, as stated times without number, the Central Betterment committee firmly and respectfully declines to be made a party to any political move of any nature whatever."
