

TREATY WITH SPAIN NEGOTIATIONS.

Minister Storer Says There Have Been No Hitches.

KIND WORDS FOR YOUNG KING

Regrets That American Papers Say He Is Physically and Mentally Unfit to Assume Reins of Government.

New York, March 16.—Bellamy Storer, United States minister to Spain, arrived today on the American liner steamer St. Louis from Southampton. Mr. Storer was surprised to learn that a rumor had been circulated that he had been recalled from his post and emphatically denied that there was the slightest foundation for such a report. "I have no idea," said Mr. Storer, "how such a rumor could have been started. I have simply come home on leave of absence for 90 days because at this time there is no urgency for my presence in Madrid. It is not true that there has been a hitch in the negotiations of the treaty with Spain and on the contrary they have progressed most favorably and there is absolutely no obstacle in view to the successful accomplishment of the treaty. I may say, indeed, that the most important provisions of the treaty have already been fully agreed upon. So far as the question of the rights of Spanish property owners in Porto Rico is concerned, the government at Madrid is fully satisfied. The negotiations of the treaty have been somewhat prolonged, not on account of any reluctance on the part of the Spanish government, but merely because every condition, and I may say every phrase in the document, must first be presented to the council of state for review and approval.

"Owing to the approaching accession of the young king the late ministry of Sagasta was in effect simply a provisional one and as the final ratification had to be left to the new ministry an opportunity was afforded me to apply for a short leave of absence. I expect to return to my post early in June. My relations with the Spanish government and with officials of all classes have been of the most pleasant character, and on all hands I have been the recipient of the most courteous consideration.

"I regretted to notice in some of the American papers which I received in Madrid statements to the effect that the young king was physically and mentally unfit to assume the reins of government. That is not true. He has grown very fast and is now a well-developed man and I see no reason why he should not reign with honor to himself and to his country. He has given very strong evidence of his interest in military affairs and shows to great advantage when he appears mounted at a review of the troops.

"What changes are likely to take place in the cabinet I am not prepared to predict. It would not be surprising if the queen mother should continue to exercise a strong influence over her son as her relations have always been of the most affectionate character." Speaking of the king's accession Mr. Storer said:

"There will be no formal coronation, as the king of Spain is supposed to be born crowned. He will merely take the oath to preserve the constitution and the laws of the country. The ceremony will be in fact a question up to the last moment whether the representatives of foreign governments should be specially invited to witness the accession. Only the right before the king of the ministers of state personally informed me that the king would be pleased to have a representative of the United States present. On this point Mr. Storer designated L. M. Curry to attend as our representative. There was a peculiar appropriateness in the selection of Mr. Curry as he was our minister to Madrid when the young king was born."

Prince Henry Will Resign.
Berlin, March 16.—Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia, after completing the maneuvers during the coming summer will resign the command of the first squadron, which he has held for two years.

Prince Henry has held all positions in the German navy since 1894. He is the only possible higher command in the double-squadron maneuver, which have hitherto been conducted under general blockade in the navy. It is expected that Prince Henry will be in command of the double-squadron maneuvers next year.

Emperor William has ordered the battleships, Wurttemberg and Baden to appear before Cuxhaven next Tuesday to Germany on board the Hamann. While the official program of the maneuvers has not yet been published, the newspapers say that Emperor William will receive his brother on shore at Cuxhaven.

BIG STORMS IN MIDDLE WEST.

North Dakota and Parts of Canada Experience Worst for Many Years.
St. Paul, Minn., March 16.—North Dakota and the Canadian northwest have experienced the worst snowstorm in many years and railroad traffic is practically paralyzed. The Northern Pacific and Great Northern have moved a wheel for nearly thirty-six hours in the blizzard-stricken district and have abandoned all efforts to do for the present. The high wind has piled the snow in mountainous drifts and packed in solid masses, many deep cuts being entirely filled. The temperature has been falling gradually and is now at or below zero.

A transcontinental train has arrived in St. Paul Friday night and is expected for several days. The train which left St. Paul yesterday morning, tied up at Fargo, the road beyond there being blocked. It will start a coast bound train tomorrow and hopes to be able to get through. The eastbound coast train, which left St. Paul yesterday morning at Mandan, N. D., and an effort will be made to move tomorrow.

Business of all kinds is at a standstill since Friday night and not much is known there has been no news of it, but owing to the demoralized condition of the wires little news has been received from the remote districts.

FLOODS IN THE SOUTH.

Atlanta, Ga., March 16.—Heavy rain yesterday and last night in northern middle Georgia, today caused the Tennessee river to send flood waters to Kentucky, Ala., and West Point, Ga., predicting a wide rise in the Chattahoochee. North Alabama was deluged as were

COLD IN NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, N. D., March 16.—The storm prevailing in the western part of the state since Friday struck Fargo today in full force and still continues. The temperature is 10 degrees below zero. All trains on the transcontinental roads are tied up here and the passengers are being cared for at hotels. The worst trouble is between Valley City and Bismarck. Four freight trains are stalled in the drifts between these points.

Tons of Shamrock for New York.

New York, March 17.—Tons of Shamrock will arrive today's commemoration in this city of St. Patrick. It is stated that more genuine shamrock was brought over from Ireland this year than for many years. A big parade is the principal feature. It will move in Fifth avenue from Forty-second street to One hundred and Twentieth.

No More Sunday Funerals in Trenton

New York, March 17.—Sunday funerals at Trenton, N. J., are at an end, apparently, owing to the action of the Episcopal minister who is backed in his fight by the ministers. Members of the union found an effective means of stopping an old practice of burying the dead on the Sabbath by refusing to go out with non-union drivers.

Back from Wilds of Africa.

New York, March 17.—Rev. De Witt Clifton Snyder, the missionary who has spent 10 years in the wilds of Africa, has returned to this city. He celebrated the strictures he made recently at London on the methods of the German minister will go to Minas Geraes to look into the question. A newspaper of Rio Janeiro has published an article violently attacking Germany.

Movements of Gunboat Wheeling.

San Francisco, Cal., March 17.—The United States gunboat Wheeling will sail from this port within a few days for Manila, where Commander Bloembergen expects to meet Admiral Casey and report to him. After target practice the Wheeling will proceed to the Philippine coasting along near Luzon, making an effort en route to find and chart some rocks that have been reported as existing at or near the surface of the sea. The vessel will then proceed to Pago Pago, Samoa, to relieve the Abarenda on that station, the latter returning home to New York. The officers and crew of the Wheeling were recently transferred from the Concord, now laid up at Mare Island.

A BUSY WORKER.

Coffee Touches Up Different Spots.
Frequently coffee sets up rheumatism when it is not busy with some other part of the body. A St. Joe, Mo., man, P. V. Agricultural exports for the period mentioned show a slight increase. During 1901, the showing for this period being $14,589,857, of which amount $9,436,556 is credited to hemp, the leading article of export.

Gov. Altgeld's Funeral.

Representatives of All Class Pay Final Tribute to His Memory.

Chicago, March 16.—Representatives of all classes today paid a final tribute of respect to ex-Gov. John P. Altgeld, who was buried in Graceland cemetery, in accordance with the wishes of Mrs. Altgeld, today a second military display, members of the military display, for two hours in the morning, before the casket was sealed a steady stream of people viewed the body as it lay in state.

The funeral procession was headed by a platoon of police. There were five divisions. The family, Gov. Yates and his staff, members of the legislature, Red Bird Smith, their leader, making an impassioned speech in defense of their action. Argument being of no avail, an order was issued today that prisoners should have their hair cut. They were lined up to take their turn in the barber's chair. When the first Indian had lost his shock of hair the others broke down and signified their willingness to surrender. With sudden and surprising speed the men were disarmed and were released.

A Charming Little Stowaway.

New York, March 17.—When the steamer Pretoria, which has arrived from Bermuda, was a short way out from that port, the purser started on his round to "check up" the tickets. He was taken aboard to find a domestic helplessly crouched in a narrow nook on deck near the gangway, hugging a small, neatly packed and tied bundle and appearing perfectly at home with her surroundings.

When the purser asked the girl to show her ticket he found he had tackled a problem of bashfulness, diplomacy, extenuation and alibi. Either feigned or real, that outlasted utterly any ingenuity of the stage. She finally said her name was Bertha Waiman and that her mother is in the United States. She was a stowaway in the

GEN. MILES GETS MARBLE HEART.

Secy. Root Turns Down His Application to Go to Philippines.

HAD A PLAN TO END WAR.

President Was of Opinion That It Was Already at an End of Virtually So.

Washington, March 16.—The Post tomorrow will say: Lieut.-Gen. Nelson A. Miles of the army made a specific request to the war department to be sent to the Philippines, and in connection therewith submitted a plan by which, in his opinion, the war could be brought to an end without further loss of life on either side. He proposed to employ methods similar to those used by him so successfully in his Indian campaigns.

Secy. Root, after due consideration, denied Gen. Miles' request, and disapproved of the plan submitted. The papers, as endorsed by the secretary, were sent to the White House, and the president subsequently concurred in the secretary's action. The final indisposition of the matter is said to bear the date of March 5, 1902.

In effect, President Roosevelt and Secy. Root hold that the war in the Philippines is already at an end, or virtually so, and that the adoption of Gen. Miles' plan involving a change of policy in dealing with the inhabitants of the archipelago, would be unfair to those officials, military and civil, whose work has brought about almost complete pacification.

Big Metal Wheel Works Collapse.

Toledo, O., March 17.—The big plant of the Toledo Metal Wheel company, employing nearly 800 men, which stands along the Lake Shore railway collapsed just as a westbound passenger train passed the building. It fell across the track and barely missed the rear coach. Had the collapse occurred two seconds earlier every occupant of the coach would have been killed. Had it occurred during the week, it is believed hundreds of lives would have been lost. It is supposed that continual passing of trains had such effect as to cause the walls to weaken until they collapsed.

A two year old daughter of Mrs. Kiser, bruised about the body.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.

Claims to be "Doing Splendid" Work Among the "Mormons."

Washington, March 16.—The Washington annual meeting of the American Tract society was held this afternoon in St. John's Protestant Episcopal church. The Rev. J. J. Smith, field secretary at New York, presented a brief report of the secretary's work and the Rev. J. J. Smith, D. D., preached the sermon.

Dr. Smith dwelt on the splendid work the society is doing among the "Mormons," immigrants and in the possession of the general lines of service for the salvation of souls.

The secretary stated that 37 new publications had been added during the year, 20 in English, the others in German, Spanish, Italian and Dutch. The number of periodicals circulated during the past 12 months was 2,639,559.

Four hundred and eighty-seven thousand immigrants landed on our shores during 1901, and the tract society, having published 2,639,559 copies of its languages or dialects, is prepared to reach this vast multitude.

During and since the Spanish war 2,639,559 pages of Christian literature in the Spanish language have been distributed in our island possessions and everywhere in Spanish-speaking countries 5,660,925, making a total of 8,300,484 pages in the Spanish language have been given to the army and navy during the same period.

The distribution of Christian literature in the "Mormon" country is the purpose of reaching the children and youth have been very successful. The demands for the society's publications are constantly increasing. Its resources, therefore, are taxed to the utmost, and an earnest appeal is made for funds.

Fire a Bryn Mawr.

Philadelphia, March 16.—One of the dormitory buildings of the Bryn Mawr college, an institution for the higher education of young ladies, was burned tonight. None was injured. The building is located at Bryn Mawr, about 10 miles from this city. The fire was caused by the upsetting of a lamp in the room of one of the students. The fire spread rapidly and the local firemen and fire companies were sent from Philadelphia.

The burned building was known as Denbig hall and had a commodious of 200 students. The fire started on the second floor in the western end of the structure. When the fire was discovered by the young women, it was too late to save the building. The fire immediately rang the fire alarm and started to fight the flames.

The alarm aroused all the young women in the building, many of whom were asleep, and when it was seen that the flames were getting beyond their control they made their exit.

Those who occupied the first and second floors managed to save some of their effects, but those occupying the third floor saved nothing.

Denbig hall was erected in 1896, at a cost of $90,000. It was a two-story building, and was used as a dormitory for the third floor. It was a two-story building, and was used as a dormitory for the third floor.

The managers of one of the companies are considering the fitting of all boats, passenger and freight with sailing and reefing stations of the Marconi pattern. With this in view they will make tests of the system within a few weeks.

Discussion of the plans has been going on for some time. Officials have become convinced of the value of the contrivance. If the tests are satisfactory the boats probably will be equipped with telegraph stations before the summer navigation season is well under way.

"WEARING OF THE GREEN."

It Will Not Be So Popular in London This Year.

New York, March 17.—"The wearing of the green" is not likely to be so popular as usual in London today, says the London correspondent of the Tribune. The previous demonstration in the house of commons when the news of Lord Methuen's capture was announced has been taken greatly to heart by Englishmen. They have been almost as much humiliated by the Irish reception of the disaster as by the disaster itself. One Irish Nationalist has written to The Times dissociating himself from the demonstration, but he is not an Irish leaguer, and his anti-Boerism is almost certain to cost him his seat at the next election. A great many of the Irish people are strongly opposed to the war, and would gladly see it ended by an acknowledgment of the independence of the South African republics. Speaking at a Nationalist meeting in Glasgow last night John Dillon, M. P., called for cheers for Delaney, and the audience responded heartily. English radicals fail to understand this attitude. They cannot see that what annoys England pleases Ireland.

Venezuelan Revolutionists Victorious.

New York, March 17.—About 600 Venezuelan revolutionists under the command of Gen. Gen. Landaeze, a Venezuelan government officer, has abandoned Carupano and has fled toward Caracas. It is expected that Gen. Landaeze's forces will intercept Gen. Landaeze's troops. Revolutionists, under the command of Gen. Cordoba, are moving on Cumana.
