FOUR COUNTY FAIR CLOSES TONIGHT

Most Successful Exhibition Ever
Held in Northern Utah Attended by 30,000 People.

SOME OF THE PRIZE WINNERS

Ogden Fruit Growers Association Ships
104 Cars to Outside Markets—
Other Ogden Notes.

Ogden, Oct. 3.—The four-county fair, after four days' session closes this evening. It has been one of the most successful events of its kind that has ever been held in northern Utah. During the time that the fair has been in operation it is estimated that about 30,000 people attended.

Everything connected with the fair has been a decided success—the races were the best ever, the exhibits excelled everything of the past. The fruit exhibit while small in quantity was more than made up for in quality. The amusements were clean and high class, and there was plenty of music and some real open air fire shows which included the Indian dances and fireworks in the evening.

There is only one regrettable thing about the fair, and that was the lack of interest taken in the livestock, poultry and dog shows by the people of the four counties under whose auspices the fair was held. In the horse show department there was a splendid representation, with more than 100 horses but in the livestock, poultry and dog departments there were very small exhibits.

The sudden change in the weather yesterday was the cause of the dropping off in the attendance during the afternoon and last evening. The following prizes have been awarded:

Morgan county, first prize and gold medal on potatoes, cabbage, onions, turnips, beets, etc.

The Roy district, won the special prize of $50 of the Ogden Sewer Pipe company and the fair association gold medal on farm products.

Tony Nelson won first prize and gold medal on an imported English shire draft horse, also first and gold medal on imported mares.

Blackman & Griffen, first and gold medal on creamery butter, with J. S. Bingham a close second. Mrs. C. A. Stullings, first and gold medal on dairy butter.

Cache Valley Condensed Milk company, first and gold medal on evaporated cream and milk.

Superior Horse Radish and Pickle company, first and gold medal on pickled bottled goods, etc.

Ogden Packing and Commission company, first and gold medal on lamb, bacon and ham. Russell-James company, first and gold medal on sausage and bologna.

Ogden Pharmacist company, first and medals on extracts and special chemicals.

College Pure Food company, first and gold medal on cereals.

Western Bottling works, first and medals on sodas and soft drinks.

Superior Honey company, first and gold medals and special mention on display.

Mrs. T. D. Ryan won first prizes on breads and cakes made from Phoenix flour.

In the combined exhibits of Peery Brothers for Crescent flour and George A. Love for batavia, Mrs. S. H. Wright won special mention and blue ribbon for display in biscuit making. Each day of the fair Mrs. Winter makes and serves about 5,000 hot biscuits.

The merchants' display, the firm of J. G. H. & Co. was awarded the special prize of a cash register, as well as the gold medal, for the best display. The first honorable mention was given to C. D. Ives, and the second honorable mention to The Den, Charles C. Hupfer.

The Redd company was also given the first and gold medal on saddles and harness.

The Egyptian Manufacturing company was given first and gold medal on massage and face creams and shampoos.

C. L. White of Kaneville was given first and gold medal on home manufactured brushes.

Utah Knitting company, first and gold medal on knit goods.

Ogden Overall & Shirt company, first and gold medal on home manufactured overalls.

Mildred Rogers, first and gold medal on clay modeling and kodak finishing.

The Den, C. C. Hupfer, first and gold medal on cigars and tobaccos.

Columbia Club Cigar company, first and gold medal on home manufactured cigars.

Paul & Hurst, first and gold medal on dry cleaning.

Machine, first premium. C. D. Ives, first and gold medal on gent's furnishings display.

George A. Love & Co., first and gold medal on hardware display.

Goyie Hardware company, second and silver medal on hardware display.

Consolidated Wagon & Machine company, first and gold medal on farm implements and vehicles.

Studebaker company, second and silver medal; Deseret Implement company, special first on light vehicles.

H. C. Hansen, first on gasoline machines. A. B. Brewer, Dairy Supply Co., first on separators and dairy supplies.

The Ogden Fruit Growers' association shipped its one hundred and fourth car of fruit Friday evening, since it started about a month ago. While the greater portion of the shipments have been peaches, the company will begin the shipping of apples within a week. It is estimated that 100 cars of apples will be shipped from Ogden this fall by the association.

DUCK HUNTING GALORE.

The duck hunters who have been out after the festive ducks for the past two days, are beginning to return to the city. Most of them bring back a few mallards and teal, but not the limit as allowed by law. On one or two small bodies of water west of the city, yesterday, and upon which a small flock of ducks made their headquarters, there were no less than ten hunters, and when a duck arose, the clamoring that followed blew the hunters returned with their game bags filled with mud hens.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Douglass announced the marriage, on Oct. 22, of their daughter Glen to Frank Q. Cannon.

POLICE COURT.

In the police court this morning Judge Murphy sentenced Kel Kuruti, a Japanese, and Dan Williams, habitues of gambling houses, to serve the city for 60 days each. They were charged with vagrancy.

JUNCTION CITY BRIEFS.

Must Support Child—Sergeant Charles Pincock of the police department retired from Riverside, California, yesterday afternoon having in custody Phillip F. Geiger, who is wanted here upon the charge of failing to support a minor child. This is the second time Geiger has been brought to Ogden from Riverside to answer to this charge. He was arraigned in the police court this morning and remained to the custody of the sheriff in default of $500 bonds, to await a hearing.

Martha Society—The Martha society meets Monday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. David Decker.

Snow Storm Due—Advises received at the railroad offices in Ogden last evening were to the effect that Monticello, Nevada, being visited by a heavy snow storm. Up to noon today the storm had not interfered with traffic.

Republican Manager—Oscar B. Madison has been selected as campaign manager by the Republican central committee. Carl Allison was chosen as secretary.

BRIGHAM CITY.

SPORT IN HUNTERS PARADISE.

Death of Joseph J. Wade, a Prominent And Esteemed School Teacher.

Special Correspondence.

Brigham City, Oct. 2.—Duckville, situated just west of Brigham City at the mouth of Bear river, is a regular "Hunters' Paradise." During the last two days it has been one of the busiest camps in the state. Sept. 30 millions of ducks, geese, swans and other birds could be seen in the river, lake and ponds, and hundreds of sports and hunters were getting ready for the morning of Oct. 1, when most of the nimrods got the full quota that the law allows.

"SOONERS" CAUGHT RED HANDED.

Voevo Call, the county game warden, has been kept busy of late to prevent shooting of game before Oct. 1. A few days ago, while on his farm near Bear river, he heard some shooting, and got on his horse to investigate. Before long he located an automobile containing a couple of ladies and the front seat vacant. He soon spotted the guilty pair, a couple of sports with their guns, not far distant, and Judge of his surprise to find two of Ogden's representative citizens, supposed to be boosting for the Four-County fair. These fellows offered the game warden all kinds of prices to let them off this time, but Voevo said no. It was just the kind of game he wanted, and they must appear before the justice of the peace to answer to the charge of breaking the law. When they failed to buy him off, they begged not to be called to an account before the Ogden fair was over, so that their names would not appear in print while they were performing their duties there. Sympathizing with the ladies, who were thoroughly frightened, this request was granted, and their names kept out of the papers for the present.

KELLY KNUDSEN NUPITALS.

Mr. Jesse Knudsen and Miss Ethel Kelly of the Second ward were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday, Sept. 23.

DEATH OF JOS. D. WADE.

Joseph D. Wade, one of the prominent school teachers of Boxelder county, died at his home in the Third ward Monday evening of typhoid and dried troubles. The funeral services were held in the ward hall Thursday afternoon. It was an impressive sight to see the classes of young men and women, in lines that he had taught in the Central school this winter attend in mass and walk ahead of the cortege from the home to the cemetery. Mr. Wade, who was a member of the Salt Lake school board, was 44 years of age. He was born at Ogden, 1864. He leaves a wife and three children, and a host of friends.

SESSION OF CITY COUNCIL.

Sidewalk Paving Will Be Done—School Notes—Fair Day.

Murray, Oct. 3.—At the meeting of the city council on Tuesday evening the Farmers' Consolidated Threshing company presented a communication stating that on Sept. 22, an engine and separator belonging to them fell through the bridge over the mill race on Sixteenth street. They asked the council give them $25 to cover their loss. The matter was referred to the city attorney for his opinion.

The street committee reported, recommending the placing of a drain from Vine street across J. P. Freezer's property; that the road supervisor be authorized to continue work as started on West Murray street, and that the property owners be notified to have their property graded.

Two bids have been received for the construction of a curb in front of the Eldridge estate. Ernest Croxford and Joseph Uimer are the applicants. The matter of awarding the bid was referred to the street committee and city attorney to give their legal opinion.

PAVING WILL BE DONE.

Considerable opposition was manifested against the proposed paving of the street in front of the property of the city. The proposition was not carried, but the city council concluded that a majority of the property owners agreed were in favor of the improvement. Murray will now have an addition of two miles of cement walk. Bids on sen; vice president, Nora Sonne; secretary, Earl Stoddard; manager athletics, C. O. Roskelley; cheer master, Albert Thomas; chorister, Ernest Monson.

The B. Y. athletic committee decided last evening to introduce "push ball" into the school and an order was given for a ball. This places the college as the pioneer school of the state to introduce this game.

MARRIAGE PERMITS.

The following couples have obtained wedding licenses: William Glenn Robinson and Elsie McGavin, Freedom, Wyoming.

DEATH OF NOTED PIONEER.

James A. Little Closes Honored and Strenuous Career.

Kanab, Kane Co. Sept. 24, 1908. The funeral was held September 11th over the remains of James A. Little, who died the 10th instant at the age of 86 years and three days.

The services were presided over by Bishop's Counselor F. A. Lundquist.

James A. Little was born in New York state, Sept. 14, 1822. His father died when James was but six weeks old and nothing is known of his childhood until he was seven years of age, when he went to live with a Mr. Bautou, where he remained until the age of 12 when he hired out as a farmhand. He worked on the farm during the summer and attended the county school during the winter months, where he obtained a fairly good education for those days. He made history and biography a specialty in his studies and taught school when 18 years old. In the fall of 1843 he enlisted as a soldier in the army and served all through the Mexican war under General Taylor, acting as postmaster of the army most of the time. He joined the church in 1848, and in 1849 moved to Utah where in December he married Mary Jane Lytle, oldest daughter of John Lytle. In April of 1854 he was called on a mission to England in company with Apostle Franklin D. Richards. During the first part of his mission he acted as associate editor of the Mormon Star, and during the latter part was counselor to Orson Pratt, who was then president of the mission.

THE LATE JAMES A. LITTLE.

In November, 1864, he married Mary Elizabeth Tullege. On his return from his mission he was appointed to remain at St. Louis as emigration agent for the church. He was called by President Brigham Young to go to Dixie and help settle that part of the state. Moving first to Eagle Valley, then to St. George and from there to Kanab.

In 1867 he was called to take another mission with his brother Penamorz to the eastern states for a few months. On his return to Salt Lake he was told to be at the April Conference to go on a two year mission and was appointed to take the work which he received within 30 days and it is expected that work will commence at once. The proposed walks will be east on Vine street, east and west on Murray street and on Main.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Yesterday ended the first month of school and all grades of work have been well begun, and an excellent foundation laid for the year. It is the intention to devote more time to music and art and bring those subjects up to the standard of all others. A higher percentage will be required for promotion and graduation than heretofore. The opinion holding that a pupil should pass from the public school strong and well prepared for high school work. Twenty-three hundred dollars was distributed among teachers and janitors this week.

SCHOOL FAIR DAY.

Friday, Oct. 3 was set apart by the school board as fair day, and schools will all be closed for that day. It is urgently requested that parents will not detain their children for the fair till Friday, as such action will interfere much with the work of the week.
