AMATEUR FEATURE AT PALACE TRACK

CACHE COUNTY BIDS FOR PUGILISTIC FAME

Wright and Lawrence Furnish Stirring Event in Australian Pursuit Race.

McFarland is Disqualified.

After Missing Out, He Remains on Track to Pull Samuelson Over the Tape to Win.

One of the kind of races that fans will like to talk about long after this season has become nothing but a memory was the Australian pursuit race, amateur, run at the Salt Palace last evening. When it had narrowed down to two men, Wright and Lawrence, spectators imagined the end was near. But it was not, nor soon for the two boys kept a safe distance apart for many laps. When Wright crossed the finish tape, Lawrence was on the other side of the track. One was at one end of the track and the other rider at the other end. When this had been going on for several minutes the crowd began to sit up and take notice. Cheering broke out at intervals. Finally it became a steady roar—and still the two boys were grinding away, the same distance apart. Now and then one of the men would gain a little but it was given and taken. Finally Wright made a desperate rally and putting every ounce of ebbing strength into his work closed in on the smaller youngster. When he passed Lawrence, seven miles four laps and 170 yards had been covered. The time was 17:15.5. The distance a record and tells wonders for the two boys.

The amateur pursuit race won more applause than any race run during the evening as there was no end of sprints and by-plays to keep excitement high. Lawrence cleared a number of times of men made a game effort to keep from being passed and succeeded until Diefenbacher, Lawrence, Wright and himself were the four last men. Diefenbacher went down first, followed by Schnell.

MAC KEPT RIGHT ON.

McFarland remained in the professional mile-and-a-half race after being called to dismount, as was the last man on every half-mile. Magagnones were aimed at the lanky rider's ear and a hundred warnings shouted at him that he was out. Yet "Mac" kept riding and when the race had narrowed down to one between Samuelson and Wilcox, McFarland jumped in and appeared to pull Samuelson away from Wilcox. The crowd shouted all sorts of imprecations and jeers at McFarland and hooted to the judges to give the race to Wilcox. After a long argument in which some of the judges were in favor of disqualifying both McFarland and Samuelson, the race was finally given to Samuelson. "Mac" was disqualified.

Owing to its being the third program in as many nights and because the night was rather cold and because there were a dozen counter-attractions up town and because of several other things, the attendance was smaller than usual. The waits between races were somewhat long, but the races themselves were highly satisfactory to the crowd with the exception of the McFarland incident.

FRENCH AVIATOR TO FLY AT SO MUCH A FLY

New York, June 20.—Delagrang, the famous French aviator, who has been making successful long distance airplane flights in different parts of Europe, will visit America this summer. He has been secured by a contract of enthusiastic aeronauts of St. Louis, including many members of the St. Louis club, and while it is impossible to ascertain the details of his visit, it is believed that virtually all flights with his famous aeroplane will be made in the west. A. B. Lambert, a director of the St. Louis club, who recently qualified as a pilot in the Aero club of France, has assisted in concluding the negotiations. It was learned that a sufficient sum of money to insure the visit of Delagrang has been secured by the St. Louis and the actual contract has been made. Delagrang made his most notable achievement May 3 in Rome, when he surpassed all of his previous records by remaining in the air for 15 minutes and 30 seconds, traveling about 9-10 miles. He got $2,000 for his flight in Rome and as the gate receipts were larger the syndicate made more good profit. His flights in America will be made in some large enclosed grounds and admission will be charged.

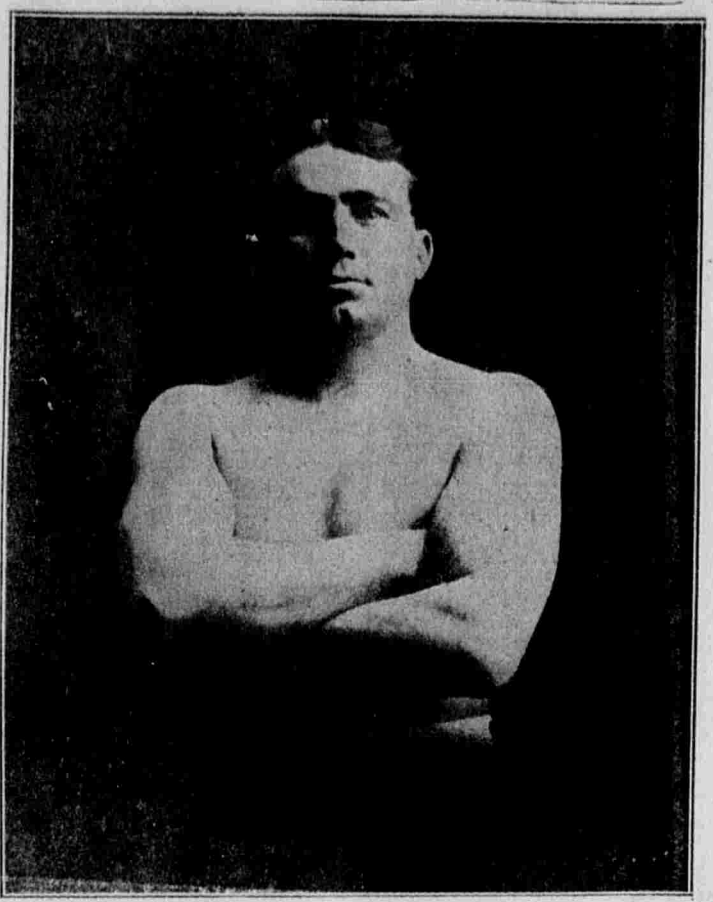

SON TRIES TO DOWN FATHER WITH DISCUS

New York, June 20.—Martin Sheridan was scheduled to take part in the Pittsburgh games today but he cut out the engagement so that he could appear in his native county's games in Celtic park tomorrow. Sheridan is a Mayo man and in the Westport athletic sports three weeks ago when Sheridan, Sr., sent the slant 142 feet inches. That beats Dearborn's hurl about three feet. "His curious thing," said Martin, "that my father should throw the discus better than I can, but he hasn't been up against me in competition since Ireland. Maybe it will surprise him when I get up against him. The trouble is that my father throws the discus every day of his life. I could get on to the style of my father's from I can probably do business with him. It would be the best of my life if I could scale the discus a few feet over him, but it's a tough game. Before the Sheridan contest he will be one of the best athletes in the country. That will call out the best athletes in the country."

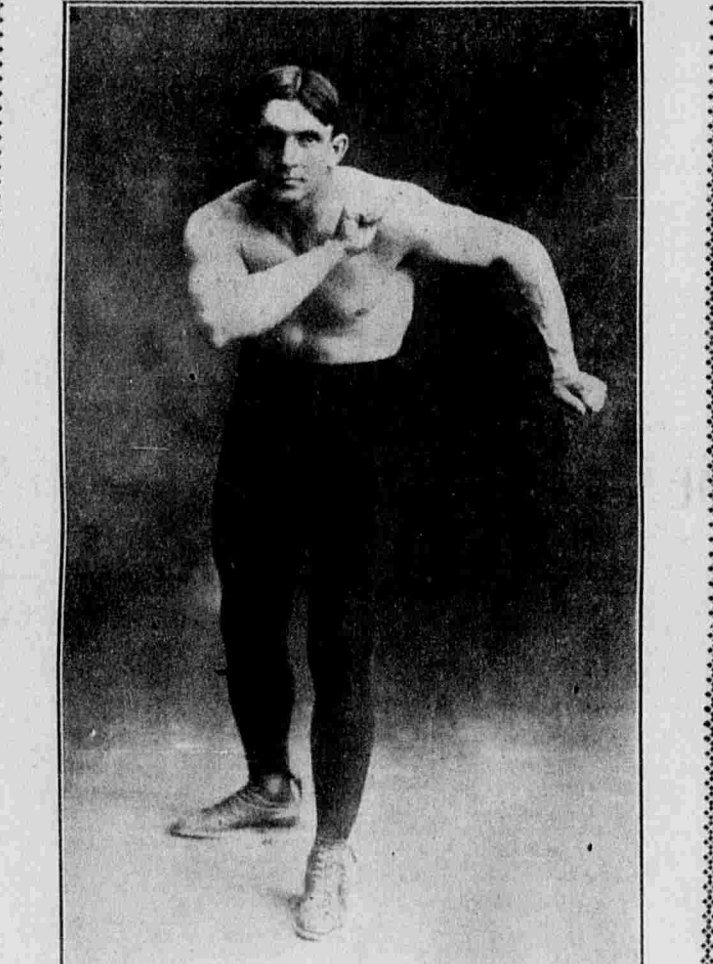

TWENTY THOUSAND SEE BALLOT LEAD TO POLE

Sheepshead Bay, N. Y., June 19.—Before a crowd of 20,000 persons James R. Keene's Ballot, the favorite, easily won the $25,000 suburban handicap at Sheepshead Bay today, defeating probably the best field that has ever faced the starter for the great event. Ballot was loudly cheered when it was seen that he could not lose, and as he flashed under the wire a winner the cheering was deafening and continued until Keene returned to the scales with the winner.

BERT DANFORD. Preston, Idaho, Bigger for Pugilistic Fame on Independence Day.

BILLY HAMP OF LOGAN. Who Meets Bert Danford at Preston in 20-Round Bout.

Preston, Idaho, will break into pugilistic circles on July 4, when a 20-round go will be in order between two old rivals, Bert Danford, "the little cyclone" and Billy Hamp, "the pugilistic whirlwind" of Logan. According to the press agent Danford is the terror of northern Utah and oats 'em alive, in fact he has engaged in 47 fights, all of which is going some. Of these 47 fights Danford has copped 46, all of which is going some more. The admirers of the "manly art" ought to sit up and take notice when these men come together because they both have met four times already and the last time Danford went down in the 19th. This happened on March 17. Since that time arrangements have been perfected to get the men together again. The sports of Cache county in consequence are decidedly worked up over the event and will migrate to Preston on Independence Day. Whether it will be worth while is another matter, but if the press agent is to be believed the Dan and Nelson argument will be a kindergarten display to what "the little cyclone" and "the pugilistic whirlwind" will hand out.

FLYING DUTCHMAN WINS MATCH RACE

Jockie Clarke Follows Mayer Over the Tape in Feature Event.

CREBS AND DOWNING FIRTS

Amateur and Professional Three-Cornered Affairs Spirited Finishes Live Things Up.

Henry Mayer, whose speed and head have won him the sobriquet of "The Flying Dutchman," flew around Jackie Clarke out on the Saltair track last evening. It was a match race, mile heats, best two in three. Mayer won the first and third heats by outriding and outkicking his opponent at every turn of the oval. The race saw Mayer make a sprint within a quarter of the tape, passing Clarke as if the latter were simply riding around for exercise. The final heat had same ginger in it, however, and brought out a sprint which gave the crowd—a small one—an opportunity to make a noise. Downing won the three-cornered professional match race and Crebs the same race in the amateur class. Ed. Heagren's motion picture show good time in both trials.

THE SUMMARY. Amateur match race, mile heats—First heat: Crebs, Brodbeck, Mayer. Time—2:39. Second heat: Crebs, Mayer, King. Time—2:45. TRAVELERS VICTORIOUS IN GAME WITH LOGAN

The U. C. T. baseball players and the Logan team made good every promise that yesterday's game would be an interesting one. The Travelers held the Farmers down to a goose-egg and the Farmers held the Travelers but two. Now a score of 2 to 0 is league ball and a crowd of half a thousand fans cheered themselves hoarse. This is the second game the Travelers have won; they defeated Provo day before yesterday; Logan yesterday, and proclaim confidently they will defeat Boise at Logan this afternoon. Grant and Walker pitched for the U. C. T., allowing but three hits between them. With two errors, only the Travelers had things in good shape at all stages of the game. Seattle Logan gave out eight runs, but three errors, only, were made in the field, so the contest was full of interest throughout. Dutch umpired satisfactorily.

NO BETS? THEN NO RACES

Overland Park at Denver Shuts Down When Court Says Gambling Is Gambling.

Denver, June 19.—In the Overland Park cases today Judge Carlton M. Bliss of the district court held that betting on horse racing is unlawful according to the statutes of Colorado, and dissolved the writs of prohibition issued against the judges who issued warrants for bookmakers. Attorneys for the bookmakers filed notice of an appeal, and hope to prevent further proceedings until the supreme court shall have passed upon the question. Because of the ruling of Judge Bliss the Overland Park management called off the races scheduled for this afternoon and announced that there would be no more racing at Overland until the supreme court passes upon the question of race betting.

again. Ogden has a different notion, however, so a hard contest is anticipated. Ogden's will be in Murray to root for their team, and with Murray-ites out in force the grandstand at Salt Lake this week and spent considerable time around the Country club. As a result of this visit a game may be arranged between the local golfers and the Colorado Springs men. Should the game be arranged a series in which Denver might participate would not be at all improbable. Link followers are willin'.

IRENE LAING SECURES JUDGMENT FOR BIG SUM

Chicago, June 20.—Miss Irene Laing, daughter of Cuthbert W. Laing, was given a judgment for $79,904 yesterday in Judge Pickney's court against Herbert A. Streater of Evanston, Ill. A year ago she received a judgment of $100,000 against Vincent C. Price. Both Mr. Streater and Mr. Price signed bonds for Mr. Laing when Miss Laing, his daughter, was a minor. She was left valuable real estate at the death of her mother. Mr. Laing's alleged misuse of the funds entrusted to him as guardian of the property was the cause of the suits by his daughter.

When Miss Laing, who now resides at Ann Arbor, Mich., became of age in 1894, she signed a release to her father. This was set aside by the court, which held that it had been secured under duress. It was shown that most of the estate had been lost through real estate investments. The court held that Mr. Laing and his bondsmen were responsible, as the necessary consent of the court had not been obtained to make the transfers for the minor daughter.

An attempt was made to bring Mr. Laing into court by the attorneys representing Miss Laing. He refused to come, sending a telegram from Toledo, Ohio, where he now resides, that he would not appear in behalf of Mr. Streater. Judge Pickney instructed the jury to bring in a verdict for Miss Laing. Mr. Streater the defendant in the suit, is 74 years old.

S.S.S. CURES SKIN DISEASES

When the blood is pure and healthy, the skin will be soft, smooth, and free from all blemishes and eruptions; but when some acid humor takes root in the circulation, its presence is quickly manifested by some form of skin disease. The skin receives its necessary nourishment and strength from the blood. When, however, this vital fluid becomes a humor-laden stream, it can no longer preserve the healthy, natural appearance of the skin, but by its acid, impure nature continually irritates and inflames the delicate tissues and fibres and keeps the cuticle in a diseased and disfigured condition. External applications cannot reach the blood, and therefore are beneficial only for their ability to reduce inflammation, and assist in keeping the parts clean. To cure any skin trouble the blood must be purified of the humors that are causing the trouble. S. S. S. drives out the humors from the blood so that the skin, instead of being irritated and diseased, is nourished by a healthy, cooling stream. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impure matter, all acids and humors, and restores the blood to its normal, pure condition, thereby curing every form of skin disease or affection. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free to all who write. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.
