A HANDCART SURVIVOR.

She Had Both Her Feet Frozen While Coming to Utah.

Her Feet Brought Off and Her Limbs Were Amputated Above the Ankles and Then at the Knees.

KOOGHARREL, Price Co.,
Ut., June 24, 1897.

To the Editor:
Following an article in the News from "A Handcart Pioneer," has led me to write the following, as I am a living witness of those memorable days. My father and mother both died on the Missouri river, at Marmet Grove. The oldest child was in Utah, the other two were distributed in different places. My lot fell with unfeeling guardians.

The summer following my parents' death, 1856, I think in July, we started with our handcart for Salt Lake City, under command of Captain Hunt. As soon as President Brigham Young learned that there were complices on the road, he started teams and supplies to meet us. They found us camped at the two old log cabins on the other side of Devil's Gate. I was a year-old orphan, without a relative near. My guardians were unfeeling and unkind, and after I was a child that could complain; but, however, when we arrived at those old log cabins my feet were bound to be very badly. While there they were thrown out and beaten. The two who took care of us, kind friends, all did what was possible under the circumstances, but my few toes dropped off before we got to the city, which was about 11 miles off. My legs were suspended above the ankles, and then at the knees. My two brothers had reached Salt Lake City in November. How well do I remember our meeting. I told them that I had lost my feet and my feet again when I got to heaven. I have walked upon my known for forty years; during that time I had had three operations performed at the knee, the last at Dr. Stevens' office, Yankton, S. D., last November. I was married in 1885. I am the mother of seven children, four sons and three daughters, five of whom are now living. The family I came with soon left the Church and returned East.
