Correspondence Between San Francisco Journalists.

ACCUSATION AND DENIAL.

McEwen Will Hold His Adversary Responsible for Anything Published Against Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 2.—The following letters are printed here to-night:

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

1608 Montgomery Street,
San Francisco, Feb. 5, 1894.

Mr. H. D. DuYOUNG:
Sir—I know the precise sum you recently paid the Post as a bribe in the calculation of swindling me while I was an editor of that paper.

Chicago, March 2.—Dear Sirs:—I am waiting for the decision of Chairman Collier on the Anti-trust demand for a boycott. The Advertisers today reiterated its demand for a speedy action, declaring it would be necessary to move the bill at once. I am not so anxious Monday if the decision is not forthcoming by that time. Once out of the field it will never again come up with the Union Pacific as an adversary.

Officials of the Southern Pacific say the report that other persons will be allowed to run their lines until the present cost of $25,000 between the Missouri River and California is untrue. The single track is all that is required for continuous passage only.

KIRK'S DECREE.

Washington, March 3.—A special from Washington, Va., says: "When General James Garfield was appointed General Curtis' health and personal attendant he gave him a ring and said, 'It is a sign of my trust in you as a general officer. He was given either with the idea of war or the development of strategy. I give it to his attendants now, and I shall not be able to get it back again.' The commandant whom Curtis met at Jackson knew not what, but Jackson never knew strategy. This was not the fault of the man, who was as brave as they were under Jackson, but was owing only to the confidence of the general in command."

INDUSTRIAL FRIEND.

By LOUIS, March 4.—A special from Birmingham, Ala., says: "Last night the Federal agent who indicted United States Commissioners W. H. Hunter, H. A. Williams, J. C. McRae, and Attorney Materials A. G. O'Neil, W. G. Reid and W. H. Nuckles on the charge of obtaining more money from the government than they warranted Special Examiner Chisholm and Commissioner of Internal Revenue J. T. McLean were arraigned before U. S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue J. T. McLean, who had been informed, but the details are yet to be made public. On Friday morning the agents came to the office of the examiner and said they had been investigating the examination since last Friday. They said the government had $3,000 to examine the north Alabama counts to 1900, $10,000 in 1892 and $30,000 in 1893. This increase, they say, gives evidence of the extent of the fraud committed.

THUNDER AND RUMBLE.

MOSCOW, March 4.—Russia was visited today by one of the world's thunder and rain systems over known to science. A meteorologist the newspaper correspondent reporting from Moscow said: "At 10 o'clock this morning it was estimated that no fewer than 1,000,000 cubic yards of snow must have fallen over the surrounding country. The bridge will be in real danger unless a cable snap shatters the flood.

GLADSTONE'S RESIGNATION.

The Queen Accepts It and Calls Lord Rosebery.

Changes in the Cabinet.—Secretary to Germany.—The Partition to Prussia.

LONDON, March 5.—It was officially announced this evening that the queen had accepted the resignation of Gladstone, and that her majesty had summoned Lord Rosebery and had offered him the post of prime minister. It was also announced that Lord Rosebery had accepted the position.

It is truly asserted tonight that Gladstone and the liberal party have been beaten in the election, and that the government of Gladstone has lost its majority. The result of the election of the new national party in the selection of a peer, as the successor to Gladstone, there is no reason to suppose that Gladstone will remain in power, in which case he will be compelled to resign his position.

Lord Rosebery's premiership will involve new changes in the cabinet, it is said, and it is expected that Mr. Hartley, Mr. Hall, Mr. Balfour, and Mr. Balfour will go to the foreign office, and that John Morley will become secretary of state and India.

The nationalists have insisted that Hartley and the liberal party will be represented at the conference of Gladstone.

BRUSSELS, March 5.—Although no diplomatic questions have arisen between Belgium and the German Empire during the recent visit of Gladstone to the news of his retirement has caused speculation here. The German people have more anxiety over the reconstruction of the empire than the manner in which Gladstone has treated policies in the matter of his resignation.

Lord Rosebery's premiership will involve new changes in the cabinet, it is said, and it is expected that Mr. Hartley, Mr. Hall, Mr. Balfour, and Mr. Balfour will go to the foreign office, and that John Morley will become secretary of state and India.

The nationalists have insisted that Hartley and the liberal party will be represented at the conference of Gladstone.

BRUSSELS, March 5.—The Belgian government has issued a decree authorizing the king to accept the resignation of Gladstone, and to offer the premiership to Mr. Gladstone, provided he is willing to do so. The Belgian government has issued a decree authorizing the king to accept the resignation of Gladstone, and to offer the premiership to Mr. Gladstone, provided he is willing to do so.
