

TILLMAN MADE NO OBJECTION

To Confirmation of Nomination of Philander C. Knox as Secretary of State.

HE DIDN'T OBJECT TO MEYER

Though Had Been Accused by Him of Being a Liar When He Was Not While He Was.

Washington, March 5.—Promptly at noon today Vice President Tillman called the senate in order and after Chaplain Hale had delivered an impressive invocation the roll was called and a committee appointed to call upon the president and notify him that the senate was organized and ready for business.

The session attracted a large gathering and much interest was centered upon the new senators. The "Chloroform strip," as a part of the Democratic side on the extreme right hand of the vice president is known, was rendered interesting by the location there of Senator Root, among the new senators. It is in this portion of the senate that are located the "insurgents," the new Republican senators who are not altogether pleased with their committee assignments, and who are inclined in retaliation at times to revolt from the policies of the majority.

NEW SENATORS.
Senators-elect Smith of Maryland and Chamberlain of Oregon, both of whom were prevented from reaching the senate in time to be sworn in yesterday, took the oath of office.

Senator Tillman stated that his colleague, Senator Knox, had sent his resignation as United States senator to the governor of Pennsylvania and asked that his name be stricken from the roll of the Sixty-first Congress, it having just been called by the clerk. The vice president ordered that this should be done.

On motion of Mr. Hale, the senate took a recess until 1:20 p. m., to permit the notification committee to perform its duties.

As soon as the doors were closed the president's nominations were laid before the senate and Senator Tillman called attention to the amendments relating to Senator Knox. He stated, however, that he had no objection to Mr. Knox's confirmation and as no objection was voiced from any other direction, he was immediately confirmed.

The senate took a recess of 15 minutes to permit the various committees to which the cabinet nominations were referred to consider and report upon them. The usual exception was made in Senator Knox's case out of courtesy to him as a member of the body.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATIONS.

At 1:30 o'clock the senate reassembled. Senator Gallinger announced that the president would immediately send in a communication. The president's assistant secretary immediately appeared with a list of nominations, including those of the cabinet positions, and on motion of Mr. Aldrich the senate went into executive session.

The senate was at once confronted by a question as to Mr. Knox's standing. Senator Foraker stated at the earlier session that his colleague had sent his resignation as senator to the governor of Pennsylvania, but some senators had made a mental note of the fact that there was no other evidence that Mr. Knox was not still a member of the senate, and it was stated that the point probably would be raised in executive session.

TILLMAN'S COMMENTS.

No specific opposition was made to the confirmation of any member of the cabinet, but some sharp comments were made by Mr. Tillman concerning the nomination of Mr. Meyer to be secretary of the navy, and by Mr. Bailey concerning Mr. Nagel to be secretary of commerce and labor.

In his remarks Mr. Tillman called attention to the investigation of him by the postoffice department during Mr. Meyer's incumbency of the office of postmaster-general. The South Carolina senator said that Meyer "accused me of being a liar when I was not and I accused Meyer of being a liar when he was." At the same time Mr. Tillman did not object to confirmation.

The comments of Mr. Bailey upon the qualifications of Mr. Nagel had reference to the fact that he was counseled by the Waters-Pierce oil company. In speaking of this Mr. Bailey said he understood that Mr. Nagel had been attorney for the Standard oil company. Mr. Bailey said that Mr. Nagel only basis was the fact that Mr. Nagel for the Waters-Pierce oil company had once passed upon the validity of an opinion of a court.

The senate expects that President Taft will send a number of nominations to the senate tomorrow. These probably would include assistants to the several heads of the executive departments and probably most of them will be confirmed at once. Although no decision has been reached it is understood that the special session of the senate will be adjourned tomorrow.

DOOM OF DISARMAMENT OF NATIONS PRONOUNCED

Bristol, England, March 5.—Addressing a political meeting here tonight Mr. Birrell, chief secretary for Ireland, expressed the belief that President Taft in his recent address pronounced the doom of the hope of the disarmament of nations. There was universal feeling abroad in which the United States now joined, in which Mr. Birrell said, far increased armaments. It was enough to make angels weep, but in face of it, he declared "It is our duty to maintain our navy strong enough to keep Great Britain's shores inviolate."

NEW TARIFF BILL TENTATIVELY COMPLETED

Washington, March 5.—The new tariff has been tentatively completed by the Republican members of the house ways and means committee and the tariff framers are now devoting their attention principally to discussing proposed provisions for additional income for securing revenue. Among those suggested are an inheritance tax and an income tax. The members declare that the bill will be ready to introduce on March 15.

DOORS LOCKED FINED $50.

This morning in the criminal division of the city court Judge J. M. Burton, rendered his decision in the case of the City vs. Harry Reeves, manager of the Majestic theater, charged with violating the theater ordinance by permitting doors and exits to be locked during a performance, and at a time when there were several hundred persons in the place.

Judge Newman held that the ordinance was plain as to its intent and that there was no doubt that a violation of the law had been committed. He found Reeves guilty as charged and imposed a fine of $50 for the offense. A stay of execution was granted until Monday afternoon as the defendant was not present.

DEATH OF JOHN BENCH.

Member of Logan Sixth Ward Bishopric Answers Sudden Summons.

(Special to the "News.")
Logan, March 5.—John Bench, highly respected citizen of Logan, and a member of the bishopric of the Sixth ward, died unexpectedly this morning. Though he had been slightly ailing for a month, nothing serious was anticipated, and his sudden death comes as a shock to the family and the entire community. Mr. Bench came to Utah in 1872 from England, and has been a member of the bishopric in the sixth ward for the past two years. He is survived by his wife and 12 children. Funeral announcement later.

"MADE NO CHARGES."

A. S. Reiser Reviews Utterances of Senators Regarding "Daily Bulletin."

Daily Bulletin, No. 5, made its appearance yesterday. This is in no way connected with the propaganda carried on by the representatives of the Anti-Saloon league.

The latest number of the Bulletin is devoted mainly to reviewing the utterances of Senators Budge and Burton in the senate Thursday morning when the two members resented statements made concerning them in earlier issues of the Bulletin. In the publication of yesterday, Mr. Budge claims having made any charge against Mr. Budge, and says: "This it will be seen that Mr. Budge's heated denial in the senate is a mere denial to no purpose, unless it be to show that there is something weighing heavily upon his conscience."

Concerning the speech of Mr. Burton, Senator Budge denies that he showed Jack Hicks a letter from Congressman Howell, advising him to vote against prohibition. As in the case of Messrs. Budge and Burton, we might leave Messrs. Budge and Hicks, both of which comports, to fight out the question of veracity between themselves but cannot refrain from venturing the opinion that in view of Senator Budge's hostile attitude on prohibition, his constituents will prefer to believe Mr. Hicks, who unlike Senator Budge, has no personal interest in the prohibition question.

BOYS IN DRUNKEN REVEL.

Police Arrest Three Lads of Tender Years in Amusing Condition.

An appalling case of depraved youth was shockingly brought to the attention of the police this afternoon at First West and South Temple streets when Patrolmen Wood and McFarland placed under arrest three boys of from 14 to 17 years of age. All were so drunk they had to be dragged from behind the billboard where they were sitting. The boys were so influenced by the liquor they had taken that they were unable to tell their names to the desk sergeant when they were booked at the police station. One of the boys managed to mumble that a man had given them a bottle of whiskey and that there were other boys who were equally as drunk, but they did not remember where they had left their home. The boys were thrown into the drunk house to sober up, and later they will be taken to the juvenile court and a thorough investigation will be made of the affair.

RAILROAD NEWS

A BOOST FOR DAILEY.

C. M. Hickling, general western agent of the Mathey steamship line, whose vessels ply the Gulf of Mexico, between Galveston and New York, and Frank J. Burke, of the International & Great Northern railroad, connecting with Galveston and Port Worth, Texas, are in Salt Lake for a few days. These gentlemen are enthusiastic over the prospects for increased business for their lines by the acquisition by the Hill interests of the Colorado & Southern railroad, which runs from Fort Worth to Denver, thus opening the way for traffic between the Gulf of Mexico and Utah points.

In speaking of Mr. J. C. Dailey, new superintendent of the Utah lines of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, but who was formerly with the I. & G. N., Mr. Burke said his road was sorry to lose him. "Mr. Dailey is a capable man," said he, "and if given a chance will accomplish great results for this country and the Rio Grande."

HAD ITS ADVANTAGES.

Jefferson D. Thompson, the chairman of the Vanderbilt end committee, was uttering at a dinner in New York a few moments ago the following: "Even the advantages claimed for the car," said Mr. Thompson, "appear doubtful to me. Take that same automobile, for instance, of excessive halitosis."

Mr. Thompson smiled and said: "I am sure you would be probably a very clean, very light car, but it has a very bad odor."

"Yes," said one, "it is splendid! Whenever it breaks down we can always push it home."

COURT NEWS.

ARE NOW IN THE GUNBO.

Hens Which Once Cackled in Pietro Barnyard Are No More.

Three and thirty cackles Cackling in a barn, Long came Joe Sharp And then there were none.

Three and thirty cackles Cackled a lot of fun, Now, Joe is taken to Cough up all the "fun."

Because Joseph C. Sharp, sheriff of Salt Lake county, levied on chickens to satisfy a judgment he is now the defendant in a suit filed in the district court by Mrs. Margaret Pietro, in which she asks that the court assess damages against the high, substantial for $75. She asserts that the fowls were levied upon unlawfully and that she is entitled to the amount asked.

According to the complaint, a deputy sheriff on Feb. 7, 1909, on the hen roost to satisfy a judgment. It is asserted that he entered the chicken run, chased down the rows and carted them off to market. In vain, the woman contends, she pleaded, and then she was driven to satisfy her rights and demanded the return of the hen family. The demand, she asserts, was unheeded and the fowls went the way of the chopping block.

As the chickens are now on the market and cannot be returned, Mrs. Pietro demands that the court allow her $2.27 for each fowl taken, with interest from March 3. She contends that $75 is what should be given her. Mrs. Pietro asserts that the sheriff in taking the birds exceeded his authority and acted without full warrant of law. Under the statutes she avers chickens are exempt from execution and that when the agent of sheriff Sharp took possession he exceeded his authority.

SAYS HE WAS VERY CRUEL.

On the ground of cruelty, Pauline Greghun seeks a divorce from her husband, Otto Greghun in a complaint filed yesterday in the Third district court. They were married in Salt Lake on Feb. 12, 1907. Within a year after their marriage he drove her out of the house threatening to kill her. Since that time she has not lived with him and has provided for herself. She asks for the custody of her three-months-old child, $50 alimony and attorney's fees and costs.

STOCK IN TRANSIT CASE.

Demurrer Sustained Because U. P. Failed to Show Impossibility.

In the case of the United States vs. the Union Pacific Railway company, which is of much interest to stockholders generally, the court has sustained the demurrer of the complaint to the answer of the defendant railroad company. The suit arose out of an excessive delay of something like 48 hours, during which time a shipment of cattle from Denver to San Francisco had not been taken from the cars for feed and water. The law is that they shall not be confined longer than 24 hours consecutively. In this case it was stated that a written consent had been given which allowed the railroad company to allow 36 hours to elapse before the cattle were taken from the cars. It was on this ground that its defense, the railroad company acknowledged that 40 hours and 20 minutes had elapsed before they were taken out, and pleaded as an excuse that an accident to the engine of an east-bound train delayed the cattle train. In the answer, which was sustained today, the position was taken that the railroad company failed to show that it was impossible to unload the cattle at some intermediate point, say between Rawlins and Ogden.

The shipment was made by Wyatt & Wyatt of Denver.

DISTRICT COURT NOTES.

The California Plate and Window Glass company, sued in the Third district court today against Vander Horst Bros., contractors, to recover $2,500 on a promissory note which was executed on Jan. 19, 1908, and was due one year from date.

E. V. Duncan filed suit against J. W. Williams, S. E. Wright, Frank Harrington, J. W. Barrett, Franklin Webb and Webster Bros. of Murray to recover $1,218.75 and interest from Dec. 20, 1907, when the debt was contracted. It is alleged that the defendants drew a promissory note for $1,400 and only one payment was made upon it.

The Western Loan and Savings company filed a suit of foreclosure today against M. H. Lund, administrator of the estate of Ernest Anderson. The company claims to have a promissory note for $1,020. There is now due and owing the savings company $270.35. Attorney's fees and costs of the suit are also asked. In an answer filed by Lund the defendant acknowledged the debt, but claimed that the property which was given as a mortgage is agreed to under the terms that the heirs of the estate are allowed to purchase it.

EUREKA.

OPENING OF CARNEGIE LIBRARY

Silver City Votes for $10,000 School Bonds—Stolen Goods Recovered.

Eureka, March 5.—About $2,000 worth of furniture for the new Eureka library has been ordered and as soon as the furnishings arrive, which should be within the next month, the library will be formally opened. A tablet bearing the name of Andrew Carnegie, who contributed $10,000 toward the erection of the building, has also been ordered and will be given a prominent place in the building. The cost of the building has exceeded the donation of Mr. Carnegie by $1,500, and it is to be expected that the full amount, $15,000, has been expeditiously expended, and that the Eureka library building is as good as done in Eureka or Provo. Miss Buckhee, a former resident of this city, has written to the library board stating that she has a valuable collection of books which she wishes to donate to the library.

The regular semi-annual election of officers of the Eureka Miners' union will be held Saturday.

STOLEN GOODS RECOVERED.

This week Sheriff Hendon and Marshal Church recovered a box of stolen goods near Tintic Junction. The goods were the merchandise taken from a box car at the Junction over a month ago and believed by the officers to have been stolen by Horne and Nolan, who tried to chew the law in their escape from this city. For the latter offense Nolan was sentenced at Nephth last week to 10 years in the penitentiary, and Horne is still at Nephth awaiting his trial, under $100 bonds.

SILVER CITY SCHOOL BONDS.

At the special election of taxpayers at Silver City Tuesday that town voted in favor of issuing bonds to the extent of $10,000 for the erection of a new school building. The building will be erected this summer and be in readiness for the opening of school in September.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thurmond were called to Santaquin this week by the death of the latter's mother, Mrs. Boyle, who died Wednesday. The funeral services were conducted at Santaquin today.

The building committee of the local lodge of Elks is advertising for bids for the erection of a two-story building upon its Main street property. The bids will be opened Saturday, and according to the statement of the building committee the erection of the structure will be commenced at once.
