Is for Greatly Reducing it or Removing it Altogether.

Washington, July 16 .-- The White louse was stormed today by a delegaion of 23 Republican congressmen who pent an hour and a half with the president telling him that their political lives depended on the protection of raw material. It has become pretty general knowledge about the Capitol that the president favors the free entry of hides, oil and coal and material eductions in lumber, etc.

reductions in lumber, etc. Many of the congressmen who com-posed the delegation represent southern districts. They told the president they had been elected on the theory that they would protect raw materials in which their people were interested and that if the party falled to do this, their districts would return to the Demo-cratic column. Mr. Taft listened patiently to all that was said. He chaffed the congressmen good-naturedly at times. Representa-good-naturedly at times. Representa-tive Hayes of California made a speech in favor of protecting iron ore, for in stance, but the president said he sus pected Mr. Hayes of being chiefly in-terested in lemons. When the discussion was over the resident stated his position.

He said he favored protection where protection was necessary, and that where protection no longer was needed where protection no longer was needed he was in favor either of greatly reduc-ing the duty or removing it altogether. "It is merely a question of facts," the president said to the congressmen, "and in the light of facts we all want to try to do the right thing." Mr. Langley of Kentucky put the matter squarely up to the president as a question of political expediency. "We come from Democratic states, some of us." said Mr. Langley, "but we are elected as Republicans who believe in the protection of raw ma-terials and if we fail to protect our constituents we will be "revised downconstituents we will be 'revised down-ward'--into private life." President Tatt remarked dryly that he was as much interested in Republican success as any one could be

ALLEGES IMPROPER LEASE.

It is further alleged that the mine as leased to Heber Wild without 1 was leased to Heber Wild without being properly ratified by the board, and that more than $10,000 was paid to Holden on the lease, which money, with that from other sales of ore, it is alleged Holden has converted to his own use. It is also alleged in the complaint that Wild brothers opened up a large body of ore, which they did not take out at the expiration of their lease, which led, KABYLE TRIBESMEN the Dutchman Leasing company, of which Willis J. Holden is alleged to have acted as manager, for the benefit of himself and associates, and at the expense of Madison and other stock-of himself and associates, and at the expense of Madison and other stock-holders of the Dutchman Mining com-pany. Through the medium of the leasing company it is alleged that ore valued at more than $300,000 was ex-tracted, and there is now said to be more than $250,000 work of ore in sight. Further, is it alleged that at a meet-ing of Willis J. Holden, Frank B. Many and William G. Andrews at Cleveland last year an unlawful issue of treasury stock was made to the folloving persons: Frank B. Many, 55,000 shares; H. J. Kruse, 10 shares; J. S. Casement, wife and son, 11,500 shares; W. G. Andrews, 2,750 shares; Theo. M. Andrews, 3,000 shares; W. J. Holden, 37,740 shares; Olvie M. Wright, 5,000 shares; J. E. McFarland, 5,000 shares.

For the above causes a receiver is asked for, also that the lease to the Dutchman Leasing company be Dutchman Leasing company be set aside, and the company be made to account for all ore sold; also that de-fendants Holden. Many and Andrews be required to account for all money and property of every name which they may have received from the Dutchman Mining company; also that the certificates of treasury stock al-leged to have been issued unlawful-iv be cancelled.
