LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THERMOMETER 71° in the shade at two o'clock to-day.

THEATRE.—The play of "Jezebel" portrays the progress of an unscrupulous adventuress, represented by Miss Ada Gray, who marries two husbands, the latter of whom she attempts to poison, and is in love with another man, a gambler, whom her last husband kills as the result of a quarrel. The husband discovers her perfidy, and to escape the legal consequences she consents to leave the country, but afterward, after she had believed him dead, discovering him to be living and remarried she returns to France and endeavors to establish her claim as his wife. However, her first husband, whom she also supposed to be dead, appears on the scene and the discomfiture of the adventuress is complete.

Miss Gray is an able and accomplished actress, and plays very effectively. Miss Walters, as "Gretchen," D'Artigues' second and really lawful wife, appeared only in the last act, when she played with excellent ability. In the affecting scene when she learned of her husband's having been previously married, she reminded one much of Julia Dean Hayne in "Genevra."

Mr. Chaplin, as the husband, "D'Artigues," was able and effective, as he always is, and Messrs. Graham and Marden contributed much to the success of the piece. Mr. Thorne, as "Capt. Breitman," made a very good impression, justifying the estimation in which he is held by the public.

"Rough Diamond" went off roaringly—how could it be otherwise with Miss Gray and Mr. Margetts as Margery and Joe?

Jezebel will be repeated to-night, supplemented by "Sketches in India," Miss Gray and Mr. Margetts appearing in the latter.

To-morrow evening for the benefit of Miss Gray, "Who's Wife."

PEACHES.—Brother R. Williams brought a lot of fine peaches to the office this morning, and said they were for the "boys." They were of good size and flavor, and were raised by Robert on his lot from the seed. The "boys" appreciate Robert's kind feeling.

GONE EAST.—Bishop John Sharp, Superintendent of the U. C. R. R., left for the east this morning, where he has gone to negotiate for the purchase of iron for the Utah Southern track from the point of the Mountain to Payson. He will probably be absent several weeks.

TELEGRAPH.—The branch of the W. U. Telegraph line having been completed to Camp Douglas, an office of the company was opened at the latter place last evening.

FROM SODA SPRINGS.—Col. Thomas P. Akers is in town, having arrived, on Tuesday, from a visit to Soda Springs, where he has been spending a few weeks for the benefit of his health. His condition is materially improved.

NEEDED.—A petition to the Mayor and City Council is in circulation, asking that the work of grading South Temple Street, between the intersections of East Temple and First East Streets be prosecuted to completion. The grading was commenced in the Spring, but has been in statu quo for a long time. The present appearance and condition of the street is anything but creditable. Let the grading be done by all means.

ASSAULT.—Yesterday Edward Irvin, Charles A. Tracy and H. H. Tracy were brought before Alderman Thompson charged with assault and battery on the person of S. H. Tracy. The parties all reside at Broom's Bench, and a dispute had arisen about some land claimed by the mother of the Tracy boys, but of which S. H. Tracy holds the deed. On the latter going into the field in question to haul away some grain, he having cultivated the land, he was stopped by Irvin, a scuffle ensued and S. H. Tracy was knocked down and the Tracy boys conducted him out of the field. Mr. Lacelles appeared for the defendants. Irvin was fined $10 and costs for the assault, the Tracy boys were discharged.—Ogden Junction, Sept. 4.

THE MANUFACTURER AND BUILDER for September contains numerous excellent and useful articles, many of them illustrated. This is one of the best periodicals of its class in the country.

SUSPICIOUS.—A gentleman informs us that there are one or two men peddling articles around town who have several times visited his house and the houses of his neighbors of late, and whose conduct has excited suspicions as to the object of their visits. They endeavor to draw those whose houses they enter into conversation entirely foreign to the ostensible business which they profess to be following, and in this manner contrive to prolong their visits. In houses where the residents are Latter-day Saints, they pass as newly-baptized converts, filled with new-born zeal for the faith and are properly warm in its advocacy and defense. These persons may be honest and well-meaning; but if so, until they have proved themselves to be such, they will probably not think it improper for residents to guard against any ulterior designs they may suspect them of having.

WATER, WATER.—This has been the cry of the residents of the bench north of the Twentieth Ward and beyond the city wall for several years past. Two years ago the people there co-operated and made a ditch connecting with that belonging to the Eleventh Ward, at a point near the mouth of Red Butte Kanyon, and which cost several thousands of dollars. The supply from that source, however, is entirely too meagre, and during the greater part of each season is entirely cut off, there not being enough during the latter part of Summer for the use of Camp Douglas and the Eleventh Ward, which, of course have a prior claim. The people on the north bench, during several years past, have vainly attempted to raise vegetables and fruit trees, and as often as they have tried they have seen their efforts thrown away by the fading and withering of the vegetation they had endeavored to cultivate, and all for the want of this indispensable commodity—water. Not only is this the case, but many people who reside in that locality suffer real hardship from having to carry all the water used by them for culinary and other purposes distances of from a block to a mile. With the great increase of residents and residences there the demand for water increases proportionately, and, we understand, another numerously signed petition will soon be presented to the Mayor and City Council with regard to the matter, in hopes that some relief will be rendered from that direction.

That portion of the city now probably represents several hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of property and an ample supply of water would probably cause it to nearly double in value in a short time, so that any assistance that might be rendered in the matter by the municipality would probably be repaid in time. It is not improbable that a reservoir on City Creek and a ditch with a source considerably higher than the main ditch now running along the north-eastern portion of the city would do the whole business. Anyhow the subject is one worthy of consideration.

Some really excellent residences have been erected on the bench lately, the finest of which is that of Mr. Septimus Sears, which would do credit to any part of the city.

ONE OF THEM.—One of the parties who had their pockets picked at the last performance of "Yankee" Robinson's circus was Mr. Walter Clayton. Among other papers taken with his pocket book was an order on a contractor's paymaster of the American Fork Railroad for sixty dollars, which he had, a short time previously, received in payment for labor done on the line. The thief will not be likely to attempt to cash that order.

DEAD.—Wilford Tibbets, who was shot and mortally wounded by William Wilson on Tuesday night, died from his injuries last evening. We are informed that he retained his senses to the last, and up to a few minutes before he expired, expressed a belief that he would soon recover.

A post mortem examination of the body was made by Drs. J. M. and F. D. Benedict, who discovered that the bullet, glancing downward from the point of entrance, near the navel, to the right thigh, perforated the bowels eight times in its course. The opinion of Dr. J. M. Benedict, that the ball had lodged in the right thigh, proved correct, as it was cut out of that part of the body at the examination.

FINED.—B. Gale, who, it will be remembered, cut and wounded Henry Walker with a knife some time since, was arrested yesterday afternoon and fined $25. Previous to his arrest Gale met with Walker and agreed to make the matter right with the latter as far as he could, by paying Walker's medical expenses, &c.

WILL CLOSE.—Z. C. M. I. Grocery Department will be closed on Monday, 16th, Tuesday, 17, and Wednesday, 18th, for the purpose of taking an account of stock. An advertisement containing an announcement to that effect will be found in another column.

INFORMATION Wanted of Peter Rasmussen, who left this city to go to Echo to drive team three or four years ago, who has not been heard of since about eight months afterward. He would now be about 21 years old. Address his mother, Mrs. Mary Rasmussen, 11th Ward, Salt Lake City.

THE SHOOTING CASE.—The case of William Wilson for the shooting and killing of Wilford Tibbits was before Justice Clinton for examination this afternoon, Judge Hoge appearing as prosecuting attorney on the part of the people and Mr. Smith for the defendant.

Dr. J. M. Benedict was the first witness examined. He testified to having been called to see the deceased Tibbits on the night of the 3rd, whom he found suffering from a gunshot wound, which had penetrated his intestines, and from the effects of which he had since died. He had examined the body of Tibbits after his death, and gave a minute description of the wound, and stated that he certainly died from the effects of the wound.

Eliza Corbett was next placed on the stand. She saw Wilford Tibbits on the night of the 3rd at the gate of Mr. Corbett's residence, 2nd Ward, and she accompanied him to the gate of Mrs. Putnam's residence. While at the latter place they met Whiting and Tibbits. Saw Wilson fire a pistol at Tibbits. On being asked to give a detailed account of circumstances connected with the affair, the witness broke down, bursting into tears and finally going off into a fainting fit. Assistance was rendered her by Dr. Benedict, which enabled her to recover. This circumstance caused some delay in the examination, which, however, was shortly afterwards resumed, and was proceeding when we went to press.
