TALK OF THE TOWN.

Provo is steadily growing.

Dr. Shipp is lecturing in Ogden.

The telephone exchange is enlarging.

Bishop's meeting at 7 o'clock tonight.

June 5th is the anniversary of Pentecost.

Jonathan J. Reynolds was today admitted to citizenship.

The High Council meets tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock.

Tomorrow's predicted eclipse is looked forward to with interest.

A man was fined $5 today for obtaining meals under false pretenses.

The Utah State Conference convenes at Provo, on Saturday, at 10 a. m.

The Relief Society Conference of Utah State begins tomorrow at Provo.

Crops in Cache Valley, "Utah's Granary," were never so promising as now.

Charles W. Nibley, Esq., of Logan, came down to the city last evening.

The case of M. Shaugnessy vs. L. F. Gerrish et al. has been dismissed.

The habit of "making calls" is increasing. Most of them, however, are made by telephone.

A ten-year-old son of J. W. Lewis, of Provo, was severely kicked by a grazing horse, the other day.

In the case of L. S. Osgood vs. P. E. Connor et al., the motion for continuance has been overruled.

The purchase of the Mill Farm by the city, for a public park, comes in for its share of public conversation.

St. Louis to visit his mother, who is ill. He will be absent about 10 days.

A narrow gauge railroad from Santaquin to the Flat Iron mines, is a rumored project of the U. S. R. R.

To-day is Ascension; commemorated by the Catholic Church as the anniversary of the Savior's ascension to heaven.

The Herald says: "A piece of the placed on the live coal in a stove will effectively clean out a stove pipe." So will a piece of giant power.

Sanpete County is expected to furnish grain to contractors on the Sevier Valley Railroad. "If the hopes spare the crops the farmers may do well."

Two potatoes, of notable size, picked several days ago from the vines of W. P. Affleck, 21st Ward, were exhibited in the Tithing Yard this morning. Early "vegetables."

About half the men and teams of Cache Valley are away working on the railroad. Fears are entertained that not enough hands remain to harvest the bountiful crops which are promised.

James Boyden, of Provo, while chopping wood on Monday last, accidentally caught his arm upon a clothes line, and was struck by the implement with such force as to knock him senseless.

The registered voters of the 3d, 17th and 18th School Districts will hold meetings, in their respective school houses, on Monday June 5th, at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing one trustee each, receiving annual reports, and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meetings.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—The members of the High Council are requested to meet in the Council House tomorrow (Friday) evening, at half-past seven o'clock.

WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Salt Lake Theatre.—The public are notified that the curtain will rise at 8:15 sharp on the performance of "Our Bachelors," this evening and every evening during the engagement of Robson and Crane.

Theatre patrons, particularly the holders of reserved seats, should observe this, as much of the interest of both plays hinges upon the opening of the first act.

Stannoh Sailors.—The Ogden Herald, of last evening says:

Last night a fine looking crew of sailors, bound for the Pacific Coast, went through here. There were 23 men, all picked men, from the United States navy, of the same height and weight, none over 35 years of age, with a most imposing group of splendid specimens of manhood. They were destined for an exploring voyage in the Arctic seas, in search of James G. Bennett's polar vessel, the Jeannette. They have three years' provisions. Lieut. Commander Lamberton is in charge of the men.

Home Dramatic Club.—The Home Dramatic Club with a number of professionals, leave for Ogden on Saturday afternoon, whither they go to play a two nights' engagement at the Union Opera House in that city. As heretofore announced, the "Banker's Daughter" will be the opening attraction, on Saturday night, while the new French play of "Cousin" will be presented for the first time in the Territory on the evening of Monday, Decoration Day.

An orchestra of ten picked instruments, selected from the talented Ogden Orchestra Society, under the direction of Mr. Willard Welke, the accomplished violinist, will appear each evening.

The club will be accompanied by a number of their Salt Lake friends desirous of seeing them perform, for the first time in their history, away from the city which has witnessed their debut and subsequent successful career.

Eastman College Excursion.—We have received a cordial and handsomely printed invitation to accompany the students of Eastman College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on their first grand excursion of the season down the Hudson River, on Saturday the 28th inst. The elegant and swift steamer Mary Powell, commanded by Captain Anderson, has been secured for the occasion, and music will be furnished by the College band. We scarcely think the news will be represented, but the managers of the excursion have our hearty thanks for the tendered courtesy.

FIRE IN OGDEN.

The Transfer Building, on the corner of 1st and 2nd streets, was completely destroyed by the fire.

Twenty cars of merchandise, belonging to the transfer building, were destroyed.

Rumors were current in this city, this morning, to the effect that the Transfer Building, on the corner of 1st and 2nd streets, had been destroyed by fire, and in connection therewith that 50 car loads of merchandise (the report said 30) had been destroyed.

A news reporter was soon out gathering up the facts, and ascertained as follows:

A brief dispatch, received at the Salt Lake depot this morning, was the foundation for the above report, but not responsible for its exaggeration.

It was not until the arrival of the morning express, due here at 11:30, but late about 11:40 minutes, that any of the particulars were made known. Inquiry then elicited the fact that the transfer depot had been destroyed as rumored, but reduced the number of burnt cars to twenty. The fire is stated to have occurred as follows: About 4 o'clock this morning, several of the transfer hands went into one of a train of cars, standing upon the track alongside of the depot building, and as it was rather dark at that early hour, they took a lamp with them for the purpose of checking freight. The car they entered was laden with gasoline, and some of the fluid having been spilled and the car being very close, the atmosphere was highly charged with the combustible gas. The moment the door was opened and the lamp put inside, the gas ignited, and before the workmen could recover from their astonishment and alarm, the car with its contents was in flames.

Strenuous exertions were soon made, however, to save the remainder of the train, and several times the burning car was pulled away and run up the track past of contact with the others, but as often as this was accomplished, owing to the intense heat of the flames which now completely enveloped their prey, the men were obliged to let loose, whereupon the burning mass sped backward down the grade against the main body of the train. The result was that the other cars and the building alongside, were soon wrapped in the deadly embrace of the ravaging element. The alarm was sounded and the Ogden fire brigade and an excited multitude gathered to the scene of the conflagration, which as may well be imagined, illuminated the surrounding neighborhood in a manner grand and fearful to behold.

The firemen, playing upon the flames, and in addition to their efforts, two of the railroad engines were pumping away to quench the fire.

The firemen, however, to save the building, which steadily consumed until only a smoldering heap of ruins marked the spot where it had stood.

Of the cars which were destroyed, 17 belonged to the Central Pacific and the remaining three to the Union Pacific Company. They were loaded with agricultural machinery, gas piping, boiler iron, groceries and other articles, but whether bound for this city or any other Utah town, or whether it was through freight, we were not able to learn.

Everything being in such confusion, it was impossible for full particulars to be obtained.

The papers of both companies, which were contained in safes inside the building, were found among the debris after the fire.

At 8:40 a. m. when the Utah Central express left Ogden, the ruins were still burning slightly.

Their location is on the line of the U. P., about a block south of the Union Hotel. Our informants are the officers and employees of the U. C. R. R. Fuller and possibly more accurate details will be known by tomorrow. Gen'l Agent McConnell, of the U. P. R. R., and Hon. James Sharp, General Freight and Ticket Agent of the U. C. R. R., with others, went to Ogden this afternoon, to ascertain more of the event. The loss cannot be clearly estimated at present, but undoubtedly is very heavy.

Passed Away.—Brother Laurits Larsen, writing from Mt. Pleasant on the 24th, sends the account of the death, on Tuesday the 17th, of his son Charles, a promising boy of nearly 17 years. The deceased in company with his older brother and several other young men, attended the Sanpete State Conference at Ephraim on the 14th, and returned next day feeling well and telling of what he had heard at the meetings. He inquired anxiously if his younger brother George had been baptized, and was answered in the affirmative. He retired to bed and in the night was seized with a cramp in the stomach. He suffered great pain until Tuesday morning, when he ceased. Towards night he called his oldest brother to his bedside, and begged him to stop at his home, and be good to his mother, as he himself would have to go. Between 11 and 12 o'clock p. m., he bade farewell to his father and mother and the rest, and passed peacefully away. He was much beloved by all who knew him, and his loss is deeply felt, especially by the bereaved parents and relatives. The funeral was held on Friday last.

Union Pacific Railroad Ticket.—From C. W. Nibley, Esq., manager of the U. C. R. R. and B. Company, of Logan, we learn that this corporation has the contract to furnish 75,000 ties for the branch line of the Union Pacific Railroad, now being built from Garfield, westward towards Panguitch. Most of the ties will be procured in Logan Canyon, though 30,000 will come from Blacksmith's Fork. The latter portion of the contract is superintended by Bishop O. N. Lilljengquist, the wide-awake Bishop of Hyrum. The ties are now being hauled, and will be floated down to Logan, and thence transported by rail to Garfield. About 40,000 of the ties are already hauled. We are glad to hear that the ties are being hauled in the manner the general road "thru" of the territory.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

The following business notices are published for the benefit of the community.

A first-class family, especially one who has had experience in running a business, is a valuable asset to any community.

An efficient business man, fully capable of taking charge of a business, is a valuable asset to any community.

A first-class salesman, to serve in a store, is a valuable asset to any community.

Also a good baker, a wagon maker and a blacksmith.

These are wanted to go south into Arizona, to work on the Santa Fe and Pacific Railroad. Good wages and steady employment are offered.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, as its name implies, invigorates and strengthens the hair. It not only restores the original color to gray or faded hair, but by its stimulating action at the roots, produces a vigorous growth and gives it that beautiful lustre which results only from a strong, healthy growth of the hair.

IT SEEMS IMPOSSIBLE.

That a remedy made of such common, simple ingredients, such as Mandrake, Dandelion, etc., should make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do, but when old and young, rich and poor, Father and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them yourself, and doubt no longer. See other column.

The Most Miserable Man on Earth.

Is the sufferer from indigestion. The only way to know if he has it is to feel the effects of the remedy.

To such is offered not only a ray of hope, but a certainty of relief and cure, in the use of Brown's Peppermint Cure. This wonderful remedy cures without fail, when taken as directed. For sale by Z. C. M. I., Godde, Pitts & Co., Moore, Allen & Co., Salt Lake.
