NOTES.

Proposals must be to carry the mail with "celerity, certainty, and security;" using the terms of the law, and they must be guaranteed by two responsible persons, certified to as such by a postmaster or judge of a court of record.

No pay will be made for trips not performed, and for each of such omissions not satisfactory to the party named in the contract. For arrivals three times the pay of the trip may be deducted. For arrivals far behind time as to break connexion with depending mails, and not sufficiently excused, one fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be satisfactorily explained, for neglecting to take the mail from or into a post office; for suffering it to be injured, lost, or robbed; or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running vehicles on the route. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for violation of the post office laws, or for disobedience of the instructions of the department. He may alter the schedule, and also order an increase of service by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may also curtail or discontinue the service in whole or in part, at pro rata decrease of pay, allowing one month's extra compensation on the amount of service dispensed with. Bids should be addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," superscribed "Proposals Territory of Utah," and sent by mail. For forms of proposal, &c., and other information, see advertisement of this date, in pamphlet form, at the principal post offices. Blank proposals will be furnished on application to the Postmaster at Salt Lake City, Brigham City and Fillmore City. M. BLAIR, Postmaster General.

LOT SMITH, Ass't and Col'r. per WM. BUDGE, Deputy. 22-3m

STONE TURNING.

I AM prepared to turn stones for walls, pillars, graves and all kinds of ornamental work. I have constantly on hand at my place, north of the Lime Kiln, in the 20th Ward, and at R. Davis' store, on Main street, a good assortment of grind stones for sale. WM. WALKER. 21-6

NOTICE.

THE teamsters sent from the General Tithing Office in G. S. L. City, to collect butter, eggs, etc., are at liberty, at their discretion on their outward trips, to carry passengers and freight at the following rates.—Passengers without any luggage; four cents a mile. Freight; three dollars a hundred for each hundred miles; to be paid in advance or upon delivery. BRIGHAM YOUNG, Trustee in Trust. 20-1f

NOTICE.

PERSONS indebted to me for Medical and Surgical services will confer a favor by settling their accounts, and paying the same in grain or produce at as early a date as practicable, as I have building material to pay for, workmen to settle with, medicines and instruments to purchase, and require the wherewithal to do it. Parties living at a distance will do well to take notice and govern themselves accordingly. THOS. ATKIN, sen., Tooele City, Oct. 7, 1861. 24-3 W. F. ANDERSON, M.D.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the Estate of Wm. B. Adams, late of Tooele city, deceased, are requested to settle the same immediately; and all persons having claims against said estate, are hereby requested to present them for adjustment and settlement by the 1st day of November next, as it is desired to settle up the affairs of the estate with dispatch. THOS. ATKIN, sen., Tooele City, Oct. 7, 1861. 24-3 Administrator.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.

AT Payson City, Utah county, one or two good HARNESSEMAKERS. I will furnish the tools and material to be worked up on shares, or sell the leather and rent the tools, or pay the workman for his labor by the day or by the week. Boots and Shoes constantly on hand, wholesale and retail. Stock and grain taken in exchange. 24-3 G. W. HANCOCK.

SECESSION.

HAVING been called on a mission to the cotton country, south, I wish all that are owing me for cradles, plows, wagon work, and other accounts to call and settle forthwith. If this notice is not responded to, the books will be placed in other hands for collection, which will add cost to the accounts. Come along, brethren; I have waited on some of you from one to ten years. Now come and pay up. 24-3 SAMUEL BRINGHURST.

NOTICE.

THE business formerly carried on by the undersigned will be continued by my son at the old stand, Emigration street, 8th Ward; and the experience he has had with me, fully enables him to give satisfaction to those who may entrust him with the stocking of plows, grain cradles, cultivators and farming implements generally, also carriage and wagon making. In connection with the above, I have established a smith shop; and am now ready to make to order, and will keep on hand, plows, cane mills, etc.; also to do horse and ox shoeing, and smithing in all its various branches, having employed an experienced smith and given him an interest in the business, we will promise to give satisfaction to those who may favor us with their custom. Try us and prove the pretensions we make, that is all we ask. 24-3 SAMUEL BRINGHURST

GREAT BARGAINS.

THE following farms near Ogden city, are now offered for sale, the owners of which are called to go to the cotton country, to wit: 20 acres farming and grass land, adobe house with two rooms, stable and yards. 10 acres farming land, log house and yards. 40 acres farming and grass land, log house. 15 do do do double log house. 19 acres farming land, two log houses and yards. 10 acres farming and grass land, two log houses and yards. 140 acres farming and grass land, double log house, with corrals, etc. Also a quantity of corn fodder and hay to dispose of. For particulars inquire of Bishop O. W. West, Ogden city. 24-3

IRON FOUNDRY.

HAVING got our furnace into successful operation. We are prepared to furnish all kinds of castings for thrashers, saw mills, and every description of machinery, which may be required.

We would call special attention to our STANDARD GEARING, the patterns for which are superior to any yet made in this Territory, being constructed throughout on scientific principles, according to the most approved practice of the best machine shops elsewhere, and are so arranged that any two of a set will gear CORRECTLY together. We also make no charge for patterns which are likely to be useful for other machinery.

We still carry on our millwork business and are fully prepared to build all kinds of cotton, wool and flax machinery. Also, looms for plain and fancy weaving by hand or power.

We want coke, charcoal, old cast and wrought iron, mahogany and maple; and will take all kinds of produce for pay, but no exception to pay on delivery. WM. J. SILVER & JNO. FORBES. 24-3 East side of 10th Ward, G. S. L. City.
