as follows: Name Rexburg, Fremont Co., Idaho, Dec. 3.—The Snake river country in and around Rexburg, St. Anthony, Teton and Parker shows a growth unprece-dented in any locality in the west. The building of the St. Anthony branch of the O. S. L. railroad has done wondors. Baxburg has doubled its purefail a so F. Cronan. John A. Ekman, 515 John A. Ekman, 516 John A. Ekman, 517 John A. Ekman, 518 John A. Ekman, 519 Geo. Romney, Jr., Jos. Nelson, the O. S. L. railroad has done wonders. Rexburg has doubled its population, 29 has St. Anthony, and the many large business blocks of both brick and stone and the many elegant residences and other substantial improvements, show evidence of general prosperity. Then the substantial prosperity. M. A. Miller, 528 John W. Hughes, 530 J. B. Miller, L. E. Camomile, Philip Maycock, Emma Hodges, evidence of general prosperity. Then the sugar factory has given a wonder-ful impetus. Many suffered losses in the beet growing venture. They had no experience in their cultivation, and farm planted all the way from ten to one hundred acres of beets, in addition to their usual farming, and falled in this time, then is time, and called in C. Coal is non est up here and wood was till lately. Coal is selling from $7,59 to $8 per ton. Many were suffer-ing till wood was brought in. The peo-ple of the Snake river valley are look-ing for the B. & M. railroad coming this way, and with the great coal de-posit that has been found in the Teton basin, the people up here hone soon to basin, the people up here hope soon to have coal at much lower figures and have coal at much lower neures and a more sure supply. The great water question before the district court at St. Anthony, which has been before the courts the past three years, has been postponed indefinitely. The court decided that all companies and persons using waters from the source of the Teton and Snake river from the source to Blackfoot must be from its source to Blackfoot, must be brought into court, that all claims may be adjusted, and the service of the may be adjusted, and the service of the necessary papers will take at least one year. Then it must be remem-bered that at times since show has been scarce in the mountains these great rivers have been dry. The Ricks academy is flourishing and the consiltrant has reached 200 end
