President of Seventh Ward M. I. A. Honored.

Charles H. Hyde, president of the Y. M. M. I. A. of the Seventh ward, was the subject of a very pleasant surprise party at his home last evening. The officers of the Young Men's and Young Ladles' organizations had met at his residence to hold their regular monthly when the first thing he realized was that he was the central object of an enthely different function. The young men presented him with a Bible, handsomely bound, and he ac-cepted it with as much grace and flu-ency as his emotions would allow. The evening was spent in a delightful manner, the main features being impromptu musical selections and re reshments.

The party was tendered Mr. Hyde as a farewell reception as he leaves for a mission to the Southern States on January Sth.
