ALL NIGHT IN THE STORM.

John Hobercker of maha presented the public with another sensational story. It was he who played the star part in the recent wreck on the lake, which was talked about some at the time. Hobercker repaired his small craft, and in company with Mrs. John Hobercker, of Salt Lake, Mrs. W. Eaton, of Denver, and Mrs. J. W. Bright, of St. Louis, and their husbands, sailed out about half a mile from the pavilion, intending to start for Antelope island this morning. The men thought that there was not enough water so they returned to get more, leaving the women alone in the boat. Before the men made ready to return a terrific wind arose, and it was absolutely impossible to get to the anchored boat. The men spent a miserable night, full of apprehension, and about 3 o'clock this morning they got in a boat and rowed out to the craft. The women were grateful to see them as they had spent a night bordering on terror, not knowing at what time the great waves would capsize the boat.
