Drowned .- The Milford Sentine of the 26th, has the following on a fatal accident which occurred there recently:

"On Saturday morning, at about 9 o'clock, as a teamster was water-ing his herses at the old well of Donald McKay, his bucket caught on to something in the well, and it being very icy in and around the vicinity and no curbing around the same, he reached out his hand and placed it upon the windlass, and gazing down in the bottom of the well he beheld the form of a man. He at once gave the alarm and in a short time a large crowd of citizens
