

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Special Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 7, 1905.—The silver men were busy for a day or two after President Cleveland issued his proclamation calling on a extra session of Congress to meet August 7th for the purpose of repealing the Sherman silver law...

It is stated here that one of the numerous financial measures that will be introduced in Congress will be a bill providing for the conversion of gold into the making of silver coins...

One of the added of some mystery was the fact that the 100 words were written from Philadelphia on Dec. 1, 1896, in the journal Atlanta, of Triumvir, as she was believed...

Between 2 and 3 years did our credit begin to change its face. The middle part of front teeth are pushed out by the permanent teeth which take their place...
