

MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS

EXCITEMENT IN THE STOCK PIT

Last Week's Leaders on the Exchange Continue to Be An Attraction.

BLACK JACK FALLS IN LINE

This Stock Sells at $1—Swansea and Tintic Utah Con. Active.

There was no letting up in the excitement, which characterized the transactions of the mining exchange last week, when the brokers entered the pit this morning. The animation was even more intense than on any previous day, with customers just as ready to buy even after the remarkable advances made by Iron Blossom and Sioux Con. In the audience were scattered many people from Tintic who came in not only to load up with more shares in the mines which have been the leaders of the exchange for several days, but they seemed ready to take almost anything if it bore the Tintic trade mark. The entire list moved up and Black Jack proved to be an interesting feature of the day's doings. The stock opened strong and was handed out at $1 right at the beginning, but the offerings were not so large as the bank to 92 cents at the end of the regular call. Black Jack fell from $1.17 1/2 to $1.22 1/2, while the caller was on the regular list. Crown Point was the only stock in the room and was moved along several points. Iron Blossom continued to $2.60 without the slightest difficulty and then softened, but not to any great extent. There was little change in Lower Mammoth, while Sioux Consolidated went up to $1.37 1/2 before the open board was reached; South Swansea started off at 50 and continued in good demand at that figure, while Tintic Utah Consolidated did business around 24 cents. The enthusiasm spread to Victor Consolidated, with heavy blocks of this stock selling at from 15 to 17 cents per share. The attraction for the listed stocks was so great that little time was left for the unlisted. However, a lot of Keystone was bought at 20 cents. The closing quotations and sales were:
