

DOWNING WINS IN PRETTY FAST TIME

Captures Five-Mile Motor-Paced Race From Iver Redman.

W. E. SAMUELSON GETS EVEN

By Defeating Hardy Downing in the Half Mile Open Professional Event—Hume Wins as Usual.

It is really astonishing how the Salt Lake public supports the bicycle racing game, remarked an old-time fan as the large crowd was rushing for street cars after last evening's races.

"The explanation is simple enough," replied the fan's companion. "Downing has been giving the people good races, the sport is on a high plane, and everybody knows that Salt Lake will patronize good, clean sport."

All of which is true, and last evening's races were as good as usual.

Perhaps the features were the five-mile motor-paced race between Hardy Downing and Iver Redman, and the finish of the half-mile open professional, in which Downing was beaten by Samuelson.

Downing, however, captured the five-mile event.

The motor-paced race was certainly a good one. The race set by the crowd-buzz was terrific from start to finish.

Downing was leading by a mile and a half when he was overtaken by Redman, who was riding a four-mile clip, and if you don't think that's going some, just try it once.

The half-mile open professional was another good race. In this event, Samuelson got even with Downing, who has been taking about everything recently.

Two laps from home Downing made a duck jump and sprang for the tape. Samuelson caught on and hung like a grizzly until half a lap from the tape when he passed Downing and took the race.

The two-mile amateur saw some flat riding on the part of Hume, who rode as usual and won hands down. The summary follows:

Five-mile motor-paced race—Hardy Downing, West, Time—26:15. Iver Redman, second. Time—26:45. Five-mile open professional—Hardy Downing, West, Time—14:15. Iver Redman, second. Time—14:45.

Half-mile open professional—W. E. Samuelson, first. Time—1:15. Hardy Downing, second. Time—1:20.
