

WYOMING WOMEN FIGHT A DUEL.

Mrs. Leon Demars and Mrs. Nancy Richards Exchange Several Shots.

MRS. LEON DEMARS WAS KILLED

Had Had Quarrels—Finally Sent Each Other Word Next Meeting Would Be for Blood.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Evanston, Wyo., says:

Mrs. Leon Demars, shot in a duel by her neighbor, Mrs. Nancy Richards, is dead. Several times the women had come to blows, and each had warned the other the next encounter would be with guns. Mrs. Demars went to Mrs. Richards' ranch, near Fort Bridger, and upon being ordered away displayed a big revolver. Mrs. Richards had been carrying a weapon in expectation of meeting Mrs. Demars. Mrs. Richards says Mrs. Demars fired first, but there were no other witnesses. At the second shot Mrs. Demars fell with a bullet in her breast, but kept on firing, emptying the revolver. Mrs. Richards also fired six shots. Both are wives of ranchers. They are 20 years old. Mrs. Richards was arrested.

GRESS UNGER SUSPENDED

Was Seizure Clerk in Collector's Office at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Gress Unger, seizure clerk in the office of the collector of the port, has been suspended. The charge made against him, it is said, is that he received the deposits made on valuable parcels and kept the money. The extent of Unger's alleged appropriations of these funds is not yet known, but it is said the amount will exceed $1,500. It is further reported that when the seizure clerk learned that his doings had been discovered he declined to accept the resignation and suspended Unger until the situation could be lifted to the bottom. Regarding Unger's troubles, Collector Stratton declines to be interviewed. "This is departmental business," he said, "and I am not permitted to discuss it. I can say that Mr. Unger is suspended for cause."

Roy Jeffers' Body Found.

San Bernardino, Cal., Nov. 8.—The news has been received here that the body of Roy Jeffers, the young man who disappeared from Highland, near this city, a few weeks ago, has been found in a lake near St. Louis, Mo. The body bears marks of violence. Jeffers had been in the employ of a lumber company here for some time, and when he saved up several hundred dollars he left with the avowed intention of returning to his parents at Greenville, Ky. Some days later an inquiry was received from the parents in Kentucky, asking what had become of the young man. This inquiry was answered from end to end, but no trace of him was found.

A Long Voyage Ended.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—One of the longest passages of the year from Australia has been made by the French bark Notre Dame d'Arvor, arriving off the heads today, 193 days from Newcastle with a cargo of coal. For some days past the vessel, which has always heretofore shown good speed, has been posted at the merchants' exchange as overdue, and a rate of 15 per cent for reinsurance has been quoted.

Watson to Live in New York.

New York, Nov. 8.—It is stated here that Thomas R. Watson, of Georgia, candidate of the People's Party for president, will after Dec. 1 make his home in New York. Whether he will take up the practice of law or newspaper work is not known.

Argentine Note to England.

New York, Nov. 8.—The minister of foreign affairs has handed the British minister a note referring to the resumption of British ports for Argentine livestock, says a Herald dispatch from Buenos Ayres. The note points out that the Argentine government has followed strictly the regulations made by the British government in adopting measures to extirpate the foot and mouth disease.

Immigration has increased. During October there arrived 18,432 immigrants. The majority came from Spain and Italy.

Ryeshitelni Crew at Shanghai.

Shanghai, Nov. 8.—The officers and crew of the Russian torpedo boat destroyer Ryeshitelni, which the Japanese cut out of the harbor at Chefoo on Aug. 12, have arrived here on the Mariner, with the exception of the commander, who escaped at Wosung. He is probably now homeward bound.

RUSSIAN STUDENTS

Start a Disturbance Which is Rationally Handled.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—There was a small student disturbance at the university today but it was handled in the same rational manner as the one at the Kazan cathedral about 10 days ago, and as a result the whole affair passed off without serious consequences. About 1,000 university students divided into two groups, one singing the

"Mr. —
Don't put your arms around a man; it
annoys him."

FLESH BUILDER

The liver of the cod fish produces oil that is a wonderful flesh builder. No fat or oil can compare with it in that respect. To get the best out of it, it must be emulsified and made like cream. In Scott's Emulsion it is prepared in the best possible form to produce the best possible results. Thirty years have proven this.

Ruined an national anthem, and the other the "Marseillaise." The police appealed to the latter group to stop, and they agreed to do so if their opponents stopped. This was done, and the affair ended with a hearty laugh all around. The previous affair, referred to above, was organized on the occasion of the requiem in the Kazan cathedral on the anniversary of the death of Alexander III. The students making a demonstration in memory of the death in the Peter and Paul fortress of one of their number, named Borisl. On this occasion Fulton, the prefect of police, ordered the police home and personally spoke to the students, asking them to disperse and disperse, which they did.

These two incidents, small in themselves, have created much talk in St. Petersburg owing to the methods of dealing with student disturbances, which is attributed to the initiative of Prince Sviatopolk Mirsky, minister of the interior. The demonstrations were neither more nor less serious than many which in recent years were put down by charging Cossacks with lowered lances. Much pleasure is also expressed with the announcement of the resumption of Prince Sviatopolk Mirsky's public receptions.

POLITICS IN AMERICA.

T. Wemyss Reid Believes Plane Is Growing Higher.

New York, Nov. 8.—Sir Wemyss Reid, chairman of the Reform club of London, the largest Liberal organization in England, who is now in this city, believed the political plane in America is gradually growing higher. "As a lifetime observer of American politics," he said, "I cannot help remarking that both parties have reached a much higher standard in their campaign than ever before. I might say, your politics have not always been regarded as on the highest level obtainable. But there has been a perceptible ascent to a higher platform."

SAN DOMINGO.

J. T. Abbott Says Carlos F. Morales is an Able Man.

New York, Nov. 8.—John T. Abbott, who recently took charge of the Puerto Plata customs house in order to liquidate a judgment against the San Domingo government, has arrived here. He declared that Carlos F. Morales, the former priest, who recently placed himself at the head of the little West Indian republic, to be a very friendly man and one of great ability. The customs house at Puerto Plata is working out the indemnity which the San Domingo government owes American citizens. Having full power in the matter Mr. Abbott has been liberal with the government in the 20 days he has been in charge and has turned over most of the money for government use. The indemnity payments will be taken out later on. He is in this city at present on a brief business trip, and will sail for San Domingo again tomorrow.

"The idea of paying the indemnity has rather taken the fancy of the government," he said. "Our relations with the people and the government have been most cordial."

"The averages of the last five years indicate that the revenues will be more than sufficient to pay the installment on the indemnity and provide for the budget."

"The revenues are always a little larger when collected by Americans."

DOLBEER WILL CASE.

Efforts to be Made to Prove She Was of Unsound Mind.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—At the opening session of the Dolbeer will contest, the trial of which has just commenced, the counsel for Adolph Schander, the contestant, said he proposed to show that Miss Bertha M. Dolbeer was of unsound mind when she made the will bequeathing over $1,000,000 to Miss Ella M. Warren.

The testimony of Mrs. Sherman, a cousin of Miss Dolbeer, one of the strongest witnesses for the contestant, was read to the jury. She testified to the effect that a "change came over Miss Dolbeer in the last year, she looked sad and appeared indifferent to anybody or anything or to life," but the witness had never seen or heard anything that would firmly establish the fact of an unbalanced mind.

Mrs. Scott Bowen of Oakland, testified that Miss Dolbeer's mother, who died of insanity and melancholia at the time of her daughter's birth.

Mrs. Mary Ribbes, employed as foster-mother for Miss Dolbeer in 1878 and 1879, told of Mrs. Dolbeer's insanity and suicide.

NEGROES ATTACK DEMOCRAT

While Addressing a Crowd They Pelted Him With Missiles.

New York, Nov. 8.—Negroes in One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street have attacked a truck from which James H. Spurgeon, a former minister to Liberia, was haranguing the crowd in support of a Democratic congressional nominee. The crowd, incensed by some remark of the orator, pelted him with various missiles, and finally set fire to the building with which the truck was decorated. Flames shot up all around the speaker and those on the truck with him and they began a hasty retreat. Police reserves had to be called out, and night sticks frequently used at intervals for an hour and a half before the negroes were persuaded to go to their homes.

Struck by Train and Killed.

Alameda, Cal., Nov. 7.—While hurrying with a party of Alamedans to take a train for San Francisco, Mrs. Leona Matheson of 114 McAllister street, San Francisco, and her friend, Mrs. M. D. Etienne of 629 Los Angeles street, Los Angeles, were struck by the eastbound local on the South Shore line at Ninth street and Central avenue, and almost instantly killed. The accident occurred at a point where the local train for the north and the eastbound train pass. The party was waiting for the train from Park street to pass on the farther track, failed to note the approach of the up-train, when they walked in front of the locomotive with fatal results.

SUPREME COURT OF UNITED STATES

Pacific Mail Steamship Company Refused Writ of Certiorari in Case Against Sarah Guyon.

MISS DODGE LOSES JEWELRY.

Criminal Case from Porto Rico Dismissed for Want of Jurisdiction.—Wisconsin Anti Trust Law Valid.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Chief Justice Fuller, in the United States supreme court, today, announced that the court had refused a writ of certiorari in the case of the Pacific Mail Steamship company vs. Sarah Guyon. The case involved the question of damages on account of the wreck of the passenger steamer City of Rio Janeiro, which sank off Golden Gate at San Francisco in 1901, carrying down 120 persons, including Consul General Wildman. The case was a test one and it was charged that although 20 minutes' time elapsed after the signal to lower boats before the catastrophe occurred, only one boat was floated. This the steamship company claimed was due to the fact that as many members of the crew were Chinese they could not understand the orders given them, but the court refused to limit liability on this account. The purpose of the petition for a writ of certiorari was to bring the case to the supreme court for review and the denial has the effect of making final the decision of the circuit court of appeals for the Ninth circuit which was favorable to the passengers.

The supreme court of the United States today refused to grant a writ of certiorari in the case of Phyllis E. Dodge vs. the United States. The case being one of appeals from the circuit court of appeals for the Second circuit which was favorable to the government. The case involved the seizure of $64,000 worth of jewelry seized by the customs authorities in New York upon the arrival there of Miss Dodge from Europe on the steamer St. Paul in 1892. Miss Dodge failed to mention the jewelry in her declaration to the authorities and claimed that it had been presented to her while abroad. She also pleaded that she did not consider the jewelry dutiable.

In the case of Albert Heff, of Holton, Kas., under sentence for selling liquor to an Indian the United States supreme court today granted leave to file a petition for a writ of habeas corpus and issued an order for Heff's release on bail of $1,000. The court fixed the hearing for the case for the 28th inst.

The supreme court of the United States today dismissed for want of jurisdiction the case of Amador vs. the United States. The case was a criminal prosecution for smuggling liquor into Porto Rico in which Amador was found guilty and sentenced to prison.

The supreme court of the United States today affirmed the decision of the supreme court of the state of Wisconsin in the newspaper boycotting case arising from the alleged business combination of the Sentinel, the News and the Evening Wisconsin, all published in Milwaukee, against the Journal of that city, affecting advertising rates. The opinion upheld the validity of the Wisconsin anti-trust law so far as it applies to this case.

The case came before the supreme court on writs of error to set aside convictions and sentences of A. J. Atkins, Albert Hueglin and M. H. Hoyt, publishers of the three newspapers in the combination. The ground of the writs is that the proceedings violated the rights of the plaintiffs in error under the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States. The information was brought under the Wisconsin statutes of 1898, which impose imprisonment or fine, on "any two or more persons who shall combine for the purpose of willfully and maliciously injuring another in his reputation, trade, business or profession by any means whatever, etc." The plaintiffs in error were severely charged with unlawfully combining together with the intent of willfully and maliciously injuring the Journal company, by agreeing as follows:

"If any person should agree to pay the increased advertising rate charged by the Journal company, then he should not be permitted to advertise in any of the other three newspapers except at a corresponding increase of rate, but if he should refuse to pay the Journal company the increased rate, then he should be allowed to advertise in any of the other three papers at the rate previously charged."

It was alleged that this conspiracy was carried out and that much damage to the business of the Journal company ensued.

COURT OF APPEALS.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—The United States circuit court of appeals today handed down the following decisions: Steamship Oregon vs. A. Aaseth, from the District of Washington; affirmed. United States vs. Gasoline Launch John Leeds, affirmed.

United States vs. Ritter Root Development company; affirmed.

United States vs. The Convent of St. Rose; reversed. This case is from the district of Washington.

To Increase Brazilian Army.

New York, Nov. 8.—The bill providing for an increase of the army and navy, which has been approved by the chamber of deputies and is pending in the senate, contemplates the building of several war vessels during the year 1905, says a Herald dispatch from Rio Janeiro, Brazil. The government will order three cruisers of 12,000 tons each and 10 torpedo boats of 25 knots.

28th INFANTRY.

Leaves the Presidio for Fort Snelling.

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—After nearly a year in the infantry cantonment at the Presidio, where it had been since its return from Mindanao campaign of last year, the Twenty-eighth infantry left this city today for its new stations at Fort Snelling, Minn., and Fort Lincoln, N. D., under the command of Lieut.-Col. W. L. Pitcher, Col. Sweet, the regular commander of the regiment, being already in the east on leave of absence. The Twenty-first infantry, which arrived late Friday night, will remain in the cantonment vacated by the Twenty-eighth until the early spring, when it will proceed to the Philippines, being relieved at the Presidio by either the Fourteenth or the Twenty-third infantry, both of which regiments will soon be ordered home from the islands.

No Whisky Quotations.

Peoria, Nov. 7.—No whisky quotations were posted on the board of trade today, and none will be hereafter, at least until the whisky war is over. The independents announced that they had agreed among themselves to maintain the basing price at $1.24, and that no attention would be paid to the price of $1.23, as announced by Col. Kinsinger, the trust manager of this city. The war among the independents, therefore, has come to a temporary halt.

LESE MAJESTE.

Polish Boy Thirteen Years Old Sentenced for It.

New York, Nov. 8.—A 13-year-old Polish boy has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment for lese majeste in Lissa, province of Posen, according to a times dispatch from Berlin.

While at school in conversation with other boys, he is alleged to have condemned the neutrality of Germany in the far eastern war.

CRIPPLE CREEK MINE OWNERS

Judge Marshall Makes Injunction Against Them Permanent.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 7.—Judge Marshall of the United States court has made permanent the temporary injunction recently issued restraining members of the Cripple Creek Mine Owners' Association and Citizens' alliance members and others from interfering with the owners and employees and property of the Inter-State Mercantile company of Montana at Cripple Creek. The store of the company was looted Aug. 21 last and its employees deported from the camp at the points of guns. The decision gives the company which re-established its business under the temporary injunction the full protection of the court. Judge Marshall rendered the decision in Salt Lake City and mailed it to Denver. It was filed in the clerk's office today.

Transferred to the Ohio.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Several hundred landmen and apprentices who have been given a good training during a cruise of the Buffalo to Alaska and the islands of mid-Pacific have been transferred to the battleship Ohio, lying in the streets of the United States. The new battleship is now well-supplied with men and ready for any emergency.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. E. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said that he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago. Since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For cough and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.
