Will Mean a Great Thing for the Old-Time Bonaza Camp of Palmy Days,

From a private letter received in this city from J. Ross Clark, vice president of the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad, It is learned that the contract for the branch road to operate between Ploche and Callente has been let and work on the proposition is to be commenced at an early date.

Owing to the fact that there has been some difficulty in securing the necessary ties and steel for the branch at this time there may be some delay but Mr. Clark states that the road will be pushed to completion as rapidly as pos-

With the connection of Pioche with the outer world and the Garfield smelt ers will come a great awakening of the old time prolific camp and it is safe to assert that the Ploche branch will be a splendid investment from the start. Of construction there is but little to be done as most of the old grade remains.

NEW LINES OPENED.

Chicago & Northwestern Announces Three New Extensions This Week.

That the Chicago & Northwestern is moving westward is again indicated with the receipt here this morning by General Agent Walker of three circulars announcing the opening of as many new stretches of track on the big sys-

The three lines are respectively 49, 44 and 33 miles in length. The first is across the Indian reservation in the Dakatas, starting from Fort Pierre, across the river and extending to Mid-land, touching Teton. Wendt, Van Metre and Capa en route. The line is now being extended on to Rapid City, S. D. The second line open is from Rapid City to Wasta, passing through Box-elder, Underwood and Owanka.

The third lize to be opened is one running between Green Bay to Gillett. and extension of the Manitowoc-Greer Bay line.

PANIC ON THE ROW.

United States Troops Stack Their Arms Before the Railroad Offices.

There was a mild sensation on Rail road Row this morning when the Twenty-ninth infantry, fully armed and in heavy marching order, drew up in front of the railroad offices and stacked arms. Like wildfire the rumor spread that the inter-state commerce commission had called upon the U.S. regulars to enforce the law and see that the coal famine was lifted.

According to stories that are now current on Second South street, General current on Second South street, General Agent Harding of the Colorado Mid-land was endeavoring to trace a con-signment of holly when he glanced up and saw a lieutenant bearing down on the office. For a second his gaze rest-ed on the long line of soldlers and then with a wild whoop Harding jumped for the cellar. About the same time Dick Neslen, next door, made a quick get-away on to West Temple via the lumber office, while across the street S. V. Derrah and Col. AMBIGUOUS.

An amusing relic of the civil war

An amusing relic of the civil war is in the possession of a young woman in Baltimore, into whose father's hands it fell some years ago with other effects of a southern relative. At the time of the siege of Mobile the women of the cite were busy for many hours making bass to be filled with sand and used in the defenses. The young ladies in one popular boarding school not only made such hags, but decorated them with mottoes in silk or worsted. The relic referred to was one of the bags sent out from the school, and bears in faded blue the unpunctuated device: "God save the south from Martha Bloss."—New York Times.
