brought the case to this Court.

clearly appear. Under the former ritory, (or if a female) I am "na- unimportant matter, when we re- upon them that is not imposed upon place in the street, and if you were sequent proceedings in the case, the case may be) of a native born tory, according to the last census, Such a discrimination is un- and--" and resembled, in this respect, the or naturalized citizen of the United were of foreign birth or the children just and unreasonable. The "I want to know if you saw the common law. It was necessery that provides that "upon the receipt of birth. upon its face a clear right to the such affidavit, the Assessor, as This act, without any restrictions only to that extent. The court, as Mr. Pinder had sworn to tell all mandamus be shown, and the ma- aforesaid, shall place the name of I think, has no right or authority about it in a truthful manner, but relied be strictly set forth, so that List of the voters of the county." citizens are not citizens. they may be admitted or traversed (Sec. 1.) by the return.

this respect.

Pleadings, sec. 537-538.

mer case.

1 Utah 267).

reaches back to the first fault com- not depend upon that oath. mitted by either party; and on deis therefore competent for the de- | not? fendant to avail himself of any material defect in the complaint or affidavit.

(High's Extraordinary Remedies, §493). State vs. McArthur, 23 Wis. 427. Gould's Pl. Ch. 9, Sec. 36. 1 Noah's Pl., 4th Ed., p. 260. People vs. Booth, 32 N. Y. 327).

And if the answer be obnoxious is properly given for defendant. (Id., §493.)

When, therefore, the demurrer in intentions" to become citizens.

tive in substance.

perform the act sought to be perormed. (Id., §536.)

In this case now before us, the ffidavit contains none of the facts going to show that it is the duty of ppellants to do the things which hey are now asking the court to ompel them to do. It does not ven refer to any statute. And it annot be claimed that the manamus should be granted in anticiation of a supposed omission of aty. An actual omission of duty aust be shown. (High, Ex. Rem. 12, and cases cited there; Id., 239 nd 41) For this failure therefore, he ground for a mandamus does ot appear. he appellants in the premises, by he simple recital "as required by aw," and the law refers to "an act roviding for the registration of oters," etc., "approved 22d Februry, 1878," we then must consider assed upon in this case.

he following cath or affirmation:

Territory of Utah, } ss

tained. The appellants electing to months, and in the precinct of Territorial statute and oath allow vote without being either natural- wouldn't let him do either one. stand upon their answer, the Court | --- one month next preceding her to be registered and to vote. | ized or native-born. below granted the peremptory man- the date hereof, and (if a male) am | She has no more right to that privi- This Territorial act not only condamus, and thereupen appellants a "native" or "naturalized" (as the lege than a son, and the Legisla- fines the male voters to those who when ____" case may be) citizen of the United ture had no authority to grant it to are native-born or naturalized, but The right to the mandamus must States, and a tax-payer in this Ter- either. This cannot be deemed an it also imposes an additional burden pened in your house. A fight took practice the alternative writ was re- tive born" or "naturalized," or the member that two-thirds, or nearly the female voters. The male voters on the spet I want to know it." garded as the foundation of all sub- "wife," "widow" or "daughter" (as so, of the population of this Terri- are required to be tax-payers. "Well, I heard a loud talking, terial facts on which the applicant such voter upon the Registration citizens to vote; yet all wives of for doing this. It is not an anala- he was now ordered to leave out

Great strictness is requisite in person entitled to vote and desiring woman who is now or may here- of which might be stricken out and when I crossed the street a to be registered, shall take this after be married to a citizen of the the residue stand, and in giving of woman said-" (High's Extraordinary Legal oath. If his or her name be not United States, and who might her- those stricken out, the Legislature of care what a we man upon the registry list, his or her self be lawfully naturalized, shall had transcended its authority. But said, sir," shouted the lawyer. By tacit consent the affidavit has "ballot shall be rejected." (Sec. be deemed a citizen." been treated as the complaint and 13.) It avails a party nothing that | Could a woman who has been a grant based upon several condi- have been told, according to the the first pleading in this case. This he is "entitled to vote," he will not resident of this country less than tions, all of which are to be com- oath taken, but the lawyer wouldn't is in accordance with the rule as be allowed to vote unless he be five years be "lawfully naturaliz- plied with before the grant accrues. have it. laid down in California, and also registered, and will not be allowed ed?" If not, then the fact of her Here several things have to be "Well, I saw two men fightingrecognized by this Court in a for- to register unless he take that oath. being a wife, will not make her a sworn to before the party applying the plaintiff and defendant here," His right, and the right of every citizen. I am not unmindful of will be allowed to register observed Mr. Pinder. (People vs. Supervisors, 27 Cal. citizen to be registered and to vote the limitation made in Kelly vs. and there is no "Do you swear that these were 665, Chamberlain vs. Warburton, depends upon his taking the oath. Owen (7 Wall, 496,) whereby the authority to register such per- the men?" Every part of that Registration restrictive clause in the last section son if any one of those things The affidavit, as a complaint, Act is pivoted on the oath. If the referred to, as it then stood, only specified are left out. Therefore, if | truth, the whole truth, and noththerefore, is to be treated as the al- oath falls, the whole Registration limited the application to free he cannot swear to every one of the ing but the truth," and the lawyer ternative writ formerly was. It is Act falls; for there is no provision white women. In that case the matters required by the oath, he is turned right about and hinted that a well settled rule that a demurrer made for any registration that does limitation hung upon the words, excluded from registration and he might not have seen the men

-provides that citizens alone can the United States Revised Statutes, as given and as a whole, must be vote. (Sec. 5 of the Organic Act.) which provides that the natural- taken. If one of its provisions If this provision has since been ization laws shall apply to persons falls, that which remains is not the modified by United States Statute of African birth or descent. If the oath required for registration. And black eye and a busted nose, who (U. S. R. S. § 1860) giving the Le- hook upon which the court in that any attempt by the court to change gislature power to allow aliens to case hung its exception or qualifica- the oath and authorize a different and Mr. Pinder had seen the fight. vote upon declaring their intention | tion, has been stricken out and also one, is, in my judgment, simply and yet he claimed that Pinder to become citizens, the principle is expressly negatived by statute, legislating. not changed in regard to the oath; and yet the clause, shorn of But, I have, I think, shown the to a demurrer, yet if the complaint for our Legislature has not availed those qualifying words, "un- oath in question is not defective in is defective in substance, judgment itself of this medification and has der existing laws," be allow- merely one particular. There are never passed any act allowing ed to stand and be embodied defects in almost every branch of it dare defendant to strike him, and aliens to vote upon "declaring their in the revision of the laws, we |-defects that are incurable by this | he had sworn to tell the truth, yet is referred to? Some statute of the Legislatures of the Territories may view. United States or of the Territory? fix the qualifications of voters, In the case of Minor vs. Happer- Collins, 17 Ohio St. R. 665). and the law should be designated. of the Legislative Assembly, name- considerable length upon the sub- matter. The oath and registration don't." And I do not think that a simple ly," &c., and the first restriction is ject of native born women being act being in direct violation of the designation even of the law would that the right of suffrage shall be citizens, and refers to the fact that statutes of the United States, are be sufficient, unless sufficient was confined to citizens and those who the Government has also made unconstitutional, null and void. know what you heard!" alleged, aside from this, to sustain have declared their intention to provision for alien women to bethe Relator's case. (High's Ex. become such. This is in effect a come citizens. It refers to the same son stated, but also because they press anything, but he was forced Rem., 2536-538.) The affidavit constitutional prohibition upon the section as above given to show this; are against the plain and obvious to; he wanted to tell all about it, should have contained all of the Legislature, and if the Legislature and there is nothing whatever in principles of common right and but they wouldn't let him; he facts which go to constitute the attempt to extend the right of suf- the opinion in that case not in har- common reason. Whenever any wanted to tell the whole truth, but duty and which induce the obliga- frage beyond these named limits mony with the view I have given law is calculated to operate against they wouldn't have it. They made ion on the part of the defendant to their action is nugatory. The Le- of the section. gislatures, as I have said, have not The conclusion to my mind is (Wilkinson vs. Leland, 2 Peters; to tell the truth, the whole truth, availed themselves of the power that no married woman of foreign 657; Terrett vs. Taylor, 9 Cranch and nothing but the truth.- Detroit to extend the right of suf- birth can be allowed to vote in this 43, Cooley's Const. Lim. p. 166 n. Free Press. frage to "those who have declared | Territory by reason of such mar- 11) their intentions" to become citi- riage, until she has been a resident zens. Therefore, no person, male of this country for five years, the right and common reason, is manior female, can vote in this Territo- time required for naturalization of fest to every one. ry, unless such person be a citizen. | males, otherwise the law would not |

the qualifications of voters, uses gress never contemplated such inelanguage to which that of the oath quality. in the Registration law exactly cor- The registration act referred to responds. The assessor then, in allows "widows" of citizens to vote, ascertaining who are "entitled to when all widows are not citizens, vote," looks to the statute, and the for the same reason that all "wives" language of the statute and that of cannot be such. As to the citizen-2d. But if it be assumed that the registration oath being the ship itself of widows there is this for Mr. Pinder to go into court as a hough is alleged as to the duty of same, it follows that the persons exception—that if their husbands witness. Mr. Pinder knows the possessing the qualifications speci- had declared their intentions to nature of an oath, and he isn't a fied in the oath and who will take become citizens, then the widows man who would perjure himself the oath, will be allowed to register | would be citizens "upon taking the | for the biggest and best farm in and to vote.

way to avoid it.

The registration act referred to born" nor "naturalized." The evi- taken the "prescribe 1 oath."

sone? citizen is not made a citizen by her from voting unless he be naturalizbeing first duly sworn, father's naturalization, any more ed himself. It requires all male I want to know what you know." epose and say, that I am over 21 than a son, unless she was under 21 persons to be native born or natears of age, and have resided in years of age at the time of her fa- uralized in order to vote, notwith- tell the truth and the whole truth, Territory of Utah for six ther's naturalization; and yet this standing it allows female persons to but right at the outset the lawyer

This statute requires that each ed States (Sec. 1994) says: "Any dependent upon each other, part the lawyer.

The question then for considera- words have been left out of the based upon an eath of specific promurrer to the return or answer, it tion is whether the oath be valid or later statute. And not only so, visions, the court cannot say that but the limitation has also been ex- he cannot be registered and vote by Our "Organic Act"-our charter pressly negatived by Sec. 2169 of taking part of that oath. The oath, must conclude that there was some or any other court. The branch apthis case is interposed to the an. The Legislature can have no other matter sought to be reached, plying to "wives" is thus defective, jury. He wouldn't let him tell the swer, this demurrer reaches back to power to do that which the laws of other than of the applicant being a (also that applying to "widows," the complaint or affidavit; and it is Congress say the Legislature shall free white woman. In the case re- also that applying to "daughters," claimed that the affidavit is defec- not do. There might be sometime ferred to, (Kelly vs. Owen,) the par- and that applying to male persons. a disagreement as to what the Le- ties to the action had all been resi- A registration act founded upon 1st. The complaint (the affidavit) gislature might do when the mat- dents of this country five years, an oath so bristling with unjust disdoes not allege or show that it was ter was not by law of Congress for- and hence no question on that criminations, ought not to stand. the duty of the appellants to do the bidden; but there can be no possi- point did or could arise. The rul- An election carried on under it is a various things which it is asked ble disagreement when the power ing there simply resolves itself into fraud upon the rights of the people. first."

The territorial statute prescribing | Constitution in such cases. Con- them.

oaths prescribed by law." (Rev. Michigan. Mr. Pinder was ordered and vote who are neither "native citizen, nor show that she has and a lawyer began:

provides that the assessor "shall as- dent intention was to evade or ig- The registration oath not only did you?" ertain upon what ground such nore the law of Congress. If this allows "wives," "widows" and person claims to be a voter, and he were not the purpose, why not stop "daughters" to vote, who are not hall require each person entitled with the words "native born or citizens, but it, on the other hand, took place." o vote and desiring to be registered naturalized" when referring to fe- excludes men from voting who are take and subscribe in substance male persons, as was done when the citizens. A male person of foreign and my wife suddenly called—" language referred to male per- birth who, when his father was naturalized was under twenty-one der," interrupted the lawyer. The daughter of a naturalized years of age, is by the actiexcluded holds, but says the oath is nugatory | terrupted the lawyer. The Revised Statute of the Unit- which contains various grants, not truth" and begin where it suited "under existing laws," and those voting. His right to vote being he swore he saw.

that they may be compelled to do. is in express words denied to the this, that all the parties being of One able text writer says that The simple allegation that the ap- Legislature. The law of Congress five years residence, then and in "all regulations of the elective fran- are swearing to. Didn't you just pellants, after demand, refused to is our Constitution in the matter. that case the only restriction was chise, must be reasonable, uniform take an oath to tell the truth in this do certain things "as required by The Revised Statutes of the United that of coler. An examination of and impartial." (Cooley's Const. case?" law," is not sufficient. What law States (Sec 1860) provides that the the decision will fully bear out this Lim. p. 602). A statute that is not so is utterly void. (Monroe vs.

They are not only void for the rea-

That this oath is against common

There are two or three minor The conclusion is, to my mind, ir- be uniform, and would be unjust points upon which I am unable to resistable, and I can see no possible and inequitable, and in violation of unite with the majority of the the United States Statutes - our court, but it is not necessary to note

> Natural Result of Too Much Lawyer ANN BLACKWOOD. in Our Legislature.

The other day it was necessary

"I did."

"Well, I was sitting in the house, "Never mind your wife, Mr. Pin-

"Why, sir, my wife called to-" "Never mind your wife, I say Mr. Pinder had been sworn to

Then he began:

"I was sitting in my house

"I don't want to know what hap-declaration in an ordinary action at States; and the same section further of parents who were of foreign Court, in the majority opinion, so defendant strike the plaintiff," ingous instance to that of a statute more, than half of "the whole it might be more analagous to a | What that woman said should

Mr. Pinder had sworn to tell "the

"These were the two men," he answered.

"And you saw the blows struck?"

"I did." "Now we claim that not a single blow passed!" shouted the lawyer,

He was defending a man with a had been arrested while fighting, didn't see a blow struck.

"I heard-"

"No matter what you heard" Mr. Pinder had heard plaintiff the lawyer had forced him into perwhole truth-nor even half of it.

"Did you see blows passed?" resumed the lawyer.

"I did." "And you saw the plaintiff strike

the defendant first?" "No, sir; the defendant struck

"What! do you know what you

"I did."

"And now are you trying to mislead the jury by suppressing part of Or does it refer to the common law? "subject, nevertheless, to the fol- sett, (21 Wall, 162,) the Supreme The statutes of the United States the truth-ty telling what you The allegation should be definite, lowing restrictions upon the power Court of the United States dwell at stand as our constitution in this wish to and suppressing what you

"No, sir. Just as I heard-" "You heard! We don't want to

Mr. Pinder didn't want to supthese principles, it is null and void. him perjure himself while swearing

NOTICE.

In the Probate Court in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

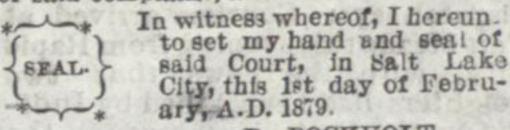

Plaintiff, against JOSEPH BLACKWOOD, Defendant.

The People of the Territory of Utab,

To Joseph Blackwood, Defendant,

Greeeting:

The oath excludes all male per- St. of U. S.; Sec. 2168.) But this to stand up, raise his right hand sons from voting who are not "na- exception does not apply here, for and swear that he would tell the above named Ann Blackwood, plaintiff, in tive born" or "naturalized," yet it the reason that a "widow" does truth the whole truth and nothing hether that be a valid law, as tive born" or "naturalized," yet it the reason that a "widow" does truth, the whole truth, and nothing the Probate Court in and for the County of hat is one of the points raised and allows female persons to register not have to swear that she is a but the truth. Then he sat down swerthe complaint filed therein within ten swer the complaint filed therein within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after "Mr. Pinder, you saw this affair, the service on you of this summons - if served within this county, and if not within this county, but within the Third Judicia District of the Territory of. Utah, within "Well, state to the jury what twenty days; otherwise within forty days. This action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between you and said plaintiff, and if you fail to appear or answer, plaintiff will apply to this court for the relief prayed fori her said complaint, and cost of suit.

D. BOCKHOLT, Clerk Probate Court, Salt Lake County, U.T.