TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

A man named Billy Morris started to walk from Leadville to Arizona last Friday. He had no money to ride, was the reason.

Saturday's Ogden Herald contains a list of voters registered to participate in the city election to take place February 9.

On Monday last Wm. Entrickson a brakeman on the U. & N. had his left hand pretty badly crushed while coupling cars at the Deer Lodge depot.

Dwight S. Dow, the noted teacher of book-keeping, has been engaged to open classes in that art in Logan, under the auspices of the B. Y. College.

Charles C. Richards, son of Apostle Franklin D. Richards, has passed a creditable examination before the Supreme Court of this Territory and been admitted to the bar. He has opened an office in Ogden and some time ago entered practically upon the profession he has chosen, and for which he certainly possesses excellent talent.

Last week two miners, Con Sullivan and Pete Owens were killed in the Mendota Mine near Ploche, Nevada. They were ascending the shaft and when near the top the sweep fastened to the drum of the whym gave way, and the bucket containing the two men was dashed to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of nearly 200 feet. Sullivan lived a short time, but Owens was killed instantly, both legs being broken, his head badly cut, and the body near the bowels fearfully crushed.

An Omaha man created considerable amusement for the Council Bluffs authorities last Wednesday by asking for the release of his mother-in-law from the insane asylum. The keeper of the asylum told him that most Iowa men were anxious to get their wives' mothers committed, enquired what there was in the climate of Nebraska that had such a contrary effect on him, and volunteered the advice that he had better keep out of the way of the lunacy commissioners lest they should run him in.

Last week several citizens of Richmond and one of Franklin, Cache Valley, were the victims of an odd kind of a swindle. A young fellow bought a new pair of gum boots, put them on and called successively upon several citizens, offering to sell the boots at a great price on order to raise some cash at once. Four or five different persons paid him for the boots, which he promised each to "bring round the next day," but it is needless to say he did not fulfill his promise, but left for parts unknown, perhaps to sell the boots a few more times.

A GOOD MOVE. At the meeting held in the City Hall Saturday evening the matter of enforcing the law for the protection of fish and game was well discussed. Mr. John Sharp, Jr., was elected chairman, and Mr. Charles Reed secretary.

Reports were rendered which showed that the law is being violated with impunity, and that vast numbers of deer are being killed simply for their skins, while game powder is used in catching fish. Many different plans were presented and discussed as to the best method of getting information that would bring the violators of the law to justice. Mr. George A. Meers suggested that the reward given to informers had the opposite effect from the one intended. Informers worked for a small reward and the occupation was considered low.

Past experience shows that few interest themselves sufficiently in this matter to check the evil in the least. After considerable discussion it was decided that perhaps the best method to accomplish the desired object would be to employ a number of detectives to watch the places frequented by game and report all violations of the game act. The detriment to our fish interests caused by saw-dust from mills on the mountain streams was also mentioned, as well as the fifth, dyestuffs, etc., emptied into the streams from factories, mining works, and other contrivances built near them.

Mr. Le Grande Young moved for the appointment of a committee of three to canvass the city and collect an amount could be raised for discovering and prosecuting violators of the game law.

The motion was carried and the chair appointed Messrs. Roundy, Jennings and I. M. Barratt, as the committee. The day in which we live, The World's Exposition, and Home Affairs, besides some readable correspondence and reports.

The Second Lecture.—William J. Silver, M. E., will deliver his second lecture on "Iron" in the Fourteenth Ward hall to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. It will be given under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A. of that Ward, and promises to be equal to the other in interest and instruction, and there will doubtless be a full house.

The following headings give an idea of the manner that the subject will be handled:

Fuels, Refractory materials. Cast iron. Blast furnaces open top with hot blast; pig bed, cupola, and open top; Scotch, Colorado, Ogden, White hard pig. Latest type closed top blast furnace, with fire brick heating stoves using waste gases. Anthracite furnaces, chilled castings, malleable castings. Wrought iron, puddling furnace, converters, rolls, early American rolling mill. Steel: Blast steel, concrete furnace, shear steel, crucible steel casting furnace. Bessemer process of steel making, converter, ingot ladle and moulds, hydraulic gauge. Open earth process, gas producer, regenerative furnace. Basic process, steam hammers, 80-ton hammer at Creusot. Heavy forging.

Out of Whole Cloth.—Sunday's Tribune says:

"Two young boys, apparently about 17 or 18 years of age, came to The Tribune office near midnight last night made of the following statement. One of them had his head tied up, and he was evidently suffering from the effects of recent blows back of his head, being cut and swollen. Their account of the affair is briefly as follows: At about 10 o'clock last night, as they were going home from the skating rink with two girls, who live in the Eleventh Ward, Police-man Mallis accosted them, after having followed them some distance, and deliberately struck one of the boys three blows on the head with his fist, at the same time calling him an opprobrious name. He was considerably stunned, and the party were frightened by the attack, not knowing the cause or motive which induced the policeman to assault their companion. The boy who was hurt will probably make a complaint before a U. S. Commissioner on Monday.

Officer Mallis was very much surprised when he read the above article, and said it was the first he had heard of it. When we went to press, the Commissioner had seen nothing of the boys who were to appear and make their complaint." The threat broke off again.

A Fine Animal.—Mr. Theodore McKean has just imported a very fine registered Jersey bull, that arrived this morning in care of the Pacific Express Company. He had been five days on the road, and was in the snow block, but came in all right, reflecting great credit on the amount of care he received from the employees of the express company. Florence's Dignity is the name of the bull. He was dropped May 24, 1883, at Beech Grove Farm, Indiana, is a grandson of Mercury, who has daughters in the 16 and 19 pound butter list; also a grandson of De Broca's Prize, with a number of daughters in the 12 and 16 pound butter list, at an average age of three years. Florence's Dignity's dam bred of butter in seven days, and her dam tested 15 pounds in seven days. Here is a rich combination of better breeding in this bull, that makes him a valuable acquisition to Mr. McKean's herd, and will benefit the country at large.

Commercial Men on Wheels.—We understand that C. M. Graves, of the Milwaukee roller king and J. C. Feldman, the celebrated speed skater of Chicago, have arranged to give an exhibition of their skill at the skating rink this evening, commencing at 8.30. Messrs. Shields, Parker and Van Horn have been engaged to furnish the music. A large number of friends of the contestants and musicians will be present. After the performance, all will repair to a sumptuously spread table. Four able-bodied men have been engaged to hold the blanket while some of their daring feats are being performed.

A quarter of a mile race, testing the speed of each, will conclude the performance.

A Lamentable Death.—By letter to Lyman R. Martineau, of Logan, intelligence was received of the death of his sister, Miss Netta, which occurred on the 9th instant, at St. David, Arizona. She was a most worthy, intelligent and amiable young lady, born and raised in Logan, where she was widely known and much respected. She was the daughter of James H. and Susan J. Martineau, and was born February 4th, 1850, and hence was twenty-two years of age. She experienced a prolonged and dangerous attack of illness last winter, and never wholly regained her health. Last summer she removed with her father's family to Arizona, and for a time in that climate she improved, but disease was too firmly seated in her system to be overcome, and she at length succumbed to it. Deceased suffered from a complication of complaints, but the immediate cause of death was dropsy.

A Delightful Occasion.—The 18th Ward Sabbath School review was held in the chapel last night, and was one of the most delightful occasions of the kind ever had the pleasure of attending. The children executed the exercises with precision and intelligence, showing a most gratifying degree of advancement in knowledge and the truths of the gospel. The superintendent, John C. Gray, his assistants, James Saville and B. S. Young, and the excellent array of teachers have much reason to be pleased with the results of their labors, which are bearing good fruit. One of the features of the occasion was the singing of an anthem—"Daughter of Error," by the Ward choir, led by H. G. Whitney. It was rendered with decided finish, the solo, by Mrs. Edith Clawson. Knowledge being specially excellent, that lady having a beautiful voice under good control. The choral department of the school is also in creditable shape, thanks to the diligent labors of Sidney Clawson, to whose charge it is confided.

An Explanation.—Something over a week ago, a local paragraph appeared in this paper under the caption, "Keep your hands off the outside." It gave what purported to be some details of the movements of a person giving the name of E. M. Stenson. It appears that through a misunderstanding she had been viewed with suspicion, and the article referred to was supplied to us by her by a sister, a woman who states that we have no reason to doubt, that the lady is quite respectable. Her husband, who is also in this city, represents two of the leading papers in Colorado. We say this much in explanation, and also as a matter of justice to the lady in question, as we have no desire to do an injury to any one through our columns.

A Call to Cattle Men.—To the cattle and horsemen of Salt Lake County: There will be a meeting at the Legislative Hall, Salt Lake City, on Saturday, January 24th, 1885, to organize in this county for mutual protection.
