CONCERNING CUBA.

Military Organizations in the United States to Aid the Rebels

REGARDED AS A VIOLATION OF LAW

Spain About to Open an Energetic Campaign on the Island—The Plan Adopted

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Attorney General Harmon within the last few days received a large number of letters making inquiry as to the rights of American citizens under international law with respect to engaging themselves with property or otherwise, in the present struggle. The following is a reply to one of these letters and is substantially the same as all of the replies sent:

I believe I am in reply to your letter that the organization of military forces in any part of the United States in aid of the insurrection in Cuba would be a direct violation of the laws, earefully to civil relations, providing for a fine, revised statutes, providing for a fine, revised statutes, providing for a fine, revised statutes
