ING PUBLIC. It is the duy of all persons be fore starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to decide which is the safest and pleasantest to travel. We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN WALLWAY is the oldest, and several ulles the shortest, route between Quaha and Chicago. Within the last two years the road bed has een put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel ralls. The Depot in Chicago is central ly located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other lines, passengers can always be sure of making East ern connections. Close connections are made a Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee Line and Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should, by all means, purchase your tickets on the Old Pioneer Route-

Retiring .- We understand that Phil. Kholheyer, the well known butcher, has sold out his business to another party, to whom it is said he has bound himself not to enter upon business in the same line again in this city. It is said that Phil, always sold lower than anybody else, the which had an air of mystery about it.

Benefit to Miss Walters .- A complimentary lenefit will be given to Miss Jean Clara Walters, on Wednesday, Nov. 17th, as an expression of sympathy in her losses by the Virginia fire. The pleces selected for the occasion are "Ingomar" Walters and Messrs. Lindsoy and Douglas, will play a number musical selections.

At Omaha.-The following is an extract frtm a letter from Elder Junius F. Wells, dated at Omaha,

"I expect to remain here and sively in use than the white. a ld meeting in a private house, where I have been invited to speak to a congregation of 'Mormons' Our Country Contemporaries. who have only proceeded thus lar on their way from the 'old country,' and desire to continue their journey to Utah. We had hardly arrived before we were attacked by them, invited to their hall, etc. All attentions at their hands have been generally respectfully declined. The Elders have stout hearts and good faith, and will go right to work on the river side, laboring as opportunity affords, between here and St. Louis."

New Panorama.-Messrs. Alfred Lambourne and Reuben Kirkman have nearly completed the painting of a panorama to be entitled Across the Continent, or From the Atlantic to the Pacific. The views are painted in water color or, technically speaking, in distemper, and Saturday morning, the 13th inst., comprise the most conspicuous give 400 pounds of beef to the poor scenes, sixty in number, from ocean to ocean. The pictures, which are all fluished excepting a few, are twelve feet six inches long, and of proportionate height, save one, a erately, they are good, comparing will insure promptness in the defavorably with those of the "Hibernicon" panorama, exhibited here some time since. The experience of the painters as scenic artists, [combined with the practice they have had in the more advanced branch of the art, enables them to execute readily the panoramic style, a leading quality necessary in which is boldness and dash, to produce distant effect, in which they have well succeeded in their present effort, so Discourse by President D. H. Wells. far as we can judge from the specimens we have seen.

When the panerama is finished it is the intention of the gentlemen No Matter the Strie. named to exhibit it to the public.
