SUNDAY SCHOOL JUBILEE.

Celebrations Held Throughout Weber County—Program of Fourth Ward, Ogden.

Arrangements of Apostle P. A. Richards—Fire in a Church—Paid the Judgment.

The Sunday schools of Weber county held celebrations yesterday, the first of a series of similar observances, commemorative of the establishment of the first Sabbath school in the Rocky Mountains, fifty years ago. The program prepared by the Ogden school was especially noteworthy, and was enthusiastically carried out in every school in the county.

PROGRAM IN FOURTH WARD.

The local jubilee celebration held in the Fourth ward of Ogden was of special interest because that ward has for many years, the home ward of the founder of the first school, the late John W. Chambers, who died in 1849. The program was prepared by the Ogden school, and was enthusiastically carried out in every school in the county.

distress across the way south from the Bishop's house. Hans Dunsen's family have been the greatest sufferers; the older ones have been down with the disease, which, however, is in a mild form.

On the road entering and departing from town are the ashes of the victims of the disease, which are now being carried to the cemetery. The disease is now in a mild form.

FINE SCHOOL BUILDING.
Sterling has one of the best finished school houses (judging from its outside appearance) that is in the county; its foundations are of cut stone surmounted by solid brick walls, with brown tile roof and a fine finish of paint.

Just Saved His Life.
It was a thrilling escape that Charles Davis of Boverton, O., lately had from a frightful death. For two years a severe lung trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of consumption. Then he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and lately wrote: "It gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure."

LOA.
Meeting of the County Commissioners—Appropriations Aggregate $358.92.
Loa, Wayne Co., Dec. 6.—The county commissioners of Wayne county met on Dec. 6. The proposal of M. W. Mansfield to survey and plat the county road in Wayne county for $150, was accepted.

CEDAR CITY.
Hopeful of Coal and Iron Industries—Drought Causes Much Hardship.
Special Correspondence.
Cedar City, Iron Co., Dec. 8.—The weather is dull and murky, indications are for a few days school in relation to the contemplated iron and steel works for iron county, as well as a branch line of the Utah and Pacific penetrating our quiet town, and we wonder if it will be such a reality.

SUNDAY SCHOOL JUBILEE.
All the Sunday schools of this city, today held Sunday school jubilee, at which interesting programs were carried out both forenoon and afternoon. On account of the jubilee there was no service held in the State Tabernacle.

YOUNG PETERSON'S FUNERAL.
The body of E. H. Peterson, the young man killed by a railway train in this city Friday, is still lying at the undertaking parlors of O. H. Berg in this city. They will be taken to Pleasant Grove Monday morning, where the funeral services will be held.

ON TO MANILA, 20 CENTS.
The last 1,000 of the beautiful book, "On to Manila," detailing the achievements of the Utah batteries in the Philippines, are now offered at 20 cents. Postage prepaid.

MOAB.
The Silk Interest—Deceased of Norman Taylor, a Respected Pioneer.
Special Correspondence.
Moab, Grand Co., Dec. 8.—We are indeed having winter in this part of the world, as the country is covered in snow, and at the present date a heavy fog is hanging over the mountains and valleys.

PROVO.
Our Bishop is quite exercised over a clipping from the Detroit Journal sent him by a missionary friend wherein the "Mormons" of Salina are accused of being drunkards and profane. The article is written by the Rev. Anderson, a member of the Protestant Episcopal church in Salina. The Salina Press published the article this week and though the editor is a non-Mormon and has been a radical anti-Mormon man, yet he is in his comments administered a rebuke to the Rev. gentleman so strong and cutting that he will no doubt think twice before he writes another malicious article.

STERLING.
Middle of the Road, Sterling, Sanpete Co., Dec. 8.—In conversation with Bishop Christensen's wife, at a convenient distance from the house, we learn that five flags are still waiting their notice of smallpox at this picturesque little town. Norman Edwards, the storekeeper, left his place of business last Saturday to avoid his family being exposed and came down with the disease last Sunday and is now lying in immediate danger.

OUR NEIGHBORS.
ALPINE, ARIZONA.
Death of Miss Prinita McEate—A Beautiful Career Cut Short.
Special Correspondence.
Alpine, Apache Co., Arizona, Dec. 2.—Miss Prinita, beloved daughter of Joseph S. and Olive Filiza McEate, died Nov. 25th, 1899, after an illness of two weeks. She was born Oct. 21, 1885, and was an earnest worker in the various associations for the advancement of the youth of Zion, and beloved by all her associates. She appeared to be in the best of health, and was to the great regret, at different times during her illness she requested her sister to get the guitar and sing to her, and asked what she should sing. Her favorite answer would be, "God plans it all," the title of her favorite hymn.

GUNNISON.
Several Cases of Smallpox Have Broken Out—All Cases Under Strict Quarantine.
Special Correspondence.
Gunnison, Sanpete Co., Dec. 10.—There has been considerable stir here this past week over the prevalence of smallpox. A week ago the health board were called to the attention of the situation, and they immediately issued a notice that smallpox was in the town, and that all cases were to be kept under strict quarantine.

PARKER, IDAHO.
Agricultural Conditions—Death of Mrs. Adelia Carbine, a Veteran of 98 Years.
Special Correspondence.
Parker, Fremont Co., Ida., Dec. 8.—Plowing was stopped on the 2nd inst. by the frost hardening the ground 2 to 4 inches deep. Threshing was continued in force until further developments. Two days afterwards the case suspected proved to be that of smallpox and the home of Mrs. Carbine was promptly isolated. Mrs. Carbine was 98 years of age, and had been a resident of Parker for many years. She was a very kind and generous person, and was much loved by her neighbors.
