Physical Culture Class.

The Weber State Academy of this city, in harmony with the march of progress, is now in the midst of a building a course in "physical culture" and "recreational training." Miss Mauda Glaser, a talented young lady from France, has been engaged for the purpose.

The system taught by Miss Glaser is the culmination of years of labor by such men as Sturgeson, of England, Long of Sweden, and Bergstrom of America, the best features of each have been combined, and the result is that taught at Harvard University.

The advantages of an educated mind are no longer a novelty, but for long years physical culture has been the subject of serious, systematic, scientific study.
