SALISBURY WINS SUIT.

Judge Hiles Renders a Decision in Highland Mine Case.

Finds in Favor of the Defendant—Amount Involved was $75,000.

Judge Hiles today rendered a decision in the case of Sarah E. Cavanaugh vs. O. J. Salisbury, Catherine T. Belcher, administrator of the estate of John T. Gilmer, deceased, et al, finding in favor of the defendant Salisbury.

The plaintiff sued to recover 45,000 shares in the Highland mine, South Dakota, valued at about $75,000. In her complaint Miss Cavanaugh alleged the shares belonged to her father during his life time, and which should have come to her at his death. As the other defendants a dismissal was entered some time ago, a compromise having been effected.

CASE OF CONVICT GRAY.

His Attorneys Argue Demurrer to the Information Filed.

John Gray, charged with assisting Goldie Brown to escape from the State Prison, was brought down from Warden Dow's place this morning to the criminal court room where he sat patiently and listened to the arguments of his attorneys, Ed McGurran and J. M. Hamilton on a demurrer to the information.

The demurrer is based on the following grounds: 1. The court has no jurisdiction to try the defendant for the reason that a demurrer heretofore interposed to another information was allowed by the court and no permission given to file a new one.

2. The information does not conform to the requirements of the statutes.

3. More than one offense is attempted to be charged.

4. The facts recited in information do not constitute a public offense.

Judge Norrell will decide the question Monday morning.

Promised to Do Better.

Ottie Path, a boy about 11 years old, appeared before Judge Hiles today on the charge of assault and battery and gambling. Ottie was required more particularly to show cause why he should not be committed to the reform school, but on his promise to obey his parents in future before Judge and school Judge Hiles allowed him to go upon his own recognizance.

Complaints in Intervention.

In the case of John R. Foulkes vs. The New Mammoth Gold Mining company Judge Norrell made an order permitting the filing of complaints in intervention.

New Trial Allowed.

In the case of Matthew Cullen vs. Michael L. Powers Judge Hiles today rendered a decision on the motion of defendant for a new trial. The court ordered that the motion be allowed.

Will be Resumed Monday.

The testimony in the $10,125 damage suit of Andrew P. Anderson against the Huthburn Mercantile company, which has been on trial before Judge and jury for the past four days, closed late yesterday afternoon, and after a portion of the arguments had been heard court adjourned until Monday morning.

The Supreme court has delivered an opinion in the case of Arthur H. Shaw vs. the Salt Lake City Railroad company, affirming the judgment of the trial court. While crossing the defendant company's tracks on Second and Sixth North streets, in August, 1898, the plaintiff was run into by a car, through his wagon and severely injured. A jury in the Third district court found in Shaw's favor, awarding him $800 damages. From this judgment the street car company appealed on the grounds of alleged errors in the judge's charge to the jury and the alleged wrongful admission of certain testimony. The Supreme court found no reversible error and therefore affirmed the district court's verdict and judgment. The opinion was written by Justice Baskin, and concurred in by Chief Justice Barch and Justice Miner.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A pleasant event occurred last night in the celebration of the eighty-fifth birthday of Mrs. Esther Bullen, mother of Dr. Romanus B. Pratt of this city.

A large gathering of relatives and friends took place in Mrs. Bullen's pleasant room in the Constitution block, which were prettily decorated with flowers. Mrs. Bullen has four children, fourteen grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren, the most of whom were present at last night's event. A delicious supper was served, and speeches, music and the wholly genial and social reunion made the evening a most enjoyable one.

At the Presbyterian church last night the Christian Endeavor society gave an "apple social," the game of apple being played, and a negro sermon by Frank Footo, and some good music were also features of the evening.

S., were installed last night with elaborate ceremonies, the affair taking place at Masonic hall. The room was prettily decorated and a fine selection of instrumental music was rendered by Mrs. Daisy Cushing.

GROWING CROCKERY.

Rare Natural Phenomena Which Makes China Immensely Valuable.

Recently there was sold in New York, for no less a sum than $1,000, an old-fashioned china plate of the extremely rare kind which is known to the collectors as "growing crockery." From the plate issue a fine spring, to a height of more than a third of an inch, a sort of eruption of beautiful crystals that seemed to take the form of elegant trees and miniature pagodas. The growing crystals were gradually rising higher and higher, and they had brought up with them the enamel surface.

Some proud people think they have strong constitutions, and ridicule the idea of disease. Such people neglect their health, let the blood run down, and their stomach, kidneys and liver become deranged. Don't be foolish about your health. Use Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will prevent the fall and save your pride.

Bladder Troubles—"Hood's Sarsaparilla has done me so much good for my stomach and bladder troubles that I want to recommend it heartily to others. I am in better health than I have been for the past 20 years." Rev. E. I. Monroe, Dublin, Virginia.

CRIPPLES AT WORK.

In an article on "Work and Play in Crutch-Land" in the November Quiver, Miss D. L. Woolmer gives an interesting description of the various trades carried on at the Home for Crippled Boys, known as Woolsthorpe House, Kensington.

Amongst the orders executed in Woolsthorpe for royalty, she states was a large order for the new year's cards by the direction of the king. Low shamed ice-tables, presses, bookcases, and a handsome ottoman box were in process. In each department, work has to be suited to the strength and capacity. A head must be full of intelligence, though it is set back by the slower limbs, and a leading hedge sparrow, and the limbs beneath it may be of fair strength. One such stunted figure belonged to one of the few apprentices strong enough to stand and work the press in the relief stamping and copper-plate printing room. Defective arms and loss of fingers are not a bar to the manipulation of visiting or printed cards, nor to obtaining good wages in this calling. The relief stampers sit two and two, an adept and a learner, at each press, along a counter; the one stamps designs or crests, plain or in colors, the other books on and lays the sheets to dry. One lad has the attractive work of filling in the gold and silver as required. Under the law that governs nature, every living thing must produce something useful or beautiful in order to gain the smile of contentment. Poetry is written by a plant rejoicing in its own flowers and fruit. It needs little imagination to observe a face chastened and prematurely aged by suffering light up with pleasure over an irreproachable specimen of copper-plate writing or an artistic device stamped and finished off in three different colors. The photographs and the department also offers opportunities for decorative taste. Twenty-three boys are employed in the leather room. The designs on blinkers and bridles are less likely to be lost on them than on their high-bred owners. Horses probably are better able to appreciate the well-studied designs of the leather room. The drive in Hyde Park sees the harness that comes from this home, but knows little of the makers. The tailoring department is perhaps the most useful to the community, for it undertakes all mending and making, besides turning out high-class work. The skilled craftsmen, in the four trades taught in the institution, have seldom any difficulty in obtaining situations. Ex-pupils who have risen to be masters engage assistants from amongst their successors in Woolsthorpe. The photographs and the department also offers opportunities for decorative taste.
