

ANNIVERSARY PARTY.

AN AGREEABLE GATHERING AT THE GARDO HOUSE.

The seventy-fourth anniversary of the birthday of President John Taylor, November 1st, was made the occasion of a very pleasant social gathering at the Gardo House, last evening. The guests numbered about one hundred, and with the exception of Presidents George J. Cannon and Joseph F. Smith, and their wives, were mainly members of President Taylor's family—children, grandchildren and other relatives.

A bounteous supper was served at six o'clock, the grown guests filling the long dining table while the little children formed a pleasing picture as they sat at the second table. After the repast the company engaged in pleasant social conversation and were regaled with delightful singing and music from the piano. Everything passed off in the most agreeable manner and many were the heartfelt wishes of long life and happiness to our esteemed and respected President.

KILLED BY A CAVE.

JAMES McNEILL WAS SUDDENLY CALLED TO HIS LAST ACCOUNT.

The following special dispatch was received this morning from Silver City, Tintic, Utah: James McNeill, a miner, was killed about 12 o'clock last night, by a cave in the Crisman Mammoth mine. He was caught by the falling timbers and killed instantly. He came from Colorado last month, and has a partner named Fitzgerald at Frisco. There is nothing to show where McNeill is from, but his fellow miners think he is from Pennsylvania. A coffin has been ordered from Salt Lake, and a coroner summoned.

A Disgraceful Proceeding.—The Utah Journal says it has received information of the doings of the grand jury at Malad, which if true, stamps that body with the impress of brutality. The statement is that, a lady witness was lately questioned before this abandoned set of scoundrels and for two hours was subjected to an examination that, while utterly purposeless and useless, was so painful and shocking in its character, as to cause the lady to faint twice. Questions of the most filthy character, having no other object than to offend the modesty and mental torture of the witness, were asked, and answers were forced from her by threats. Our informant states that a severe attack of illness followed the ordeal to which the witness was subjected, and that the consequences are likely to be serious if not fatal, as she is about to become a mother.

The grand jury was hunting for evidence against polygamists, and this lady was supposed to be a plural wife. There are times, of course, when witnesses are required to answer disagreeable questions, but in this instance objectionable questions were put with no justifiable motive.

A Bland Boy.—A letter appears in this issue from our townsman Mr. Henry Riser, who warns the people against the insinuating deceptions of a young fellow who gives the name of Gros. One of the nefarious acts complained of was, we are informed, to obtain a valuable letter belonging to a lady who resides in the Fifth Ward and appropriate the money it contained to his own use. What makes him more liable to deceive the unwary is the fact that he is young and beardless, is fairly well dressed, conducts himself with well assumed modesty, as if he were a sweet and guileless creature, with an overdose of religious sentimentalism thrown in. He is evidently a fellow well adapted to play upon the sympathies of the unsuspecting, of whom there are many in this community.

Ratification at Kayville.—J. B. forwards the following, dated yesterday:

We had a rousing ratification meeting of the People's Party here last night. The Declaration of Principles was read and taken, the speakers were made by Jas. T. Smith, of Farmington, and B. H. Roberts, of Centerville, who frequently brought out the house. Old Mr. Robins of this place made some telling hits in a short speech, quoting and appropriately applying to the People's Party, the words of Admiral Nelson, "England expects that every man in this day will do his duty."

The people were enthusiastic, heartily endorsed the speeches, unanimously adopted the Declaration of Principles as the platform of the People's Party, and sustained the action of the Territorial Convention in nominating Hon. John T. Calne for Delegate to Congress, and all seemed to feel as Mr. Robins expressed himself, "We will show what can be done on Tuesday next by voting solid for John T. Calne."

What was done at Mona.—James Gleibill Jr., speaks of the Mona ratification of Tuesday. Ratification meeting held here last night by the People's Party, stirring speeches were made by Delegates from Nephi, Hon. Wm. May, and John Chase. There was singing by the choir, under the supervision of Jas. Gleibill. "Hold the Fort," and "Strike, Strike for Victory." Speeches were also made by John H. Hays, Geo. W. McKnight, throwing hot shot into the "liberal" ranks. There was a unanimous expression for the candidacy of John T. Calne. The Nephi brass band led by John Fode, on hand, and supplied inspiring music.

Priesthood Meeting.—The regular meeting of the Priesthood of this Stake will be held in the Assembly Hall on Saturday the 4th inst., at 11 a.m. WILLIAM W. TAYLOR, Clerk of Stake.

The Last Chance.—Professor Dow's second and final class in the science of accounts will be organized this evening at the City Hall. Don't forget it.

No Word Yet.—No word has yet been received of the arrival of the company of emigrants who left Liverpool on October 21st. Ordinarily they should have arrived yesterday afternoon or to-day, but the Abessinia, on which the company sailed, is slower than the usual run of boats on the line.

Nellie Boyd Troupe.—A fair house last night to see "A Case for Divorce." It was finely played. Mr. Harry Emory divided the honors with Miss Nellie Boyd, but all the performers played with care and fidelity and are deserving of great credit. The pieces put on the stage of the Opera House by this company are all highly interesting and presented in a manner to please and entertain "Lucretia Borgia" to-night with a full cast.

Sweets.—We understand that Mr. Arthur Stayner, of Farmington, will have the requisite 7,000 pounds of sugar produced at his factory ready for the inspection of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature, next week. The centrifugal machine is in position. After the saccharine substance passes through this process, which separates the sugar from the syrup, it will be ready for sacking, unless it should require drying. The syrup, which is of very superior quality, will also soon be on the market.

Beware of Him.—A young man has been in this city lately who claimed to have originally come from Wirtzburg, Germany, and recently from St. Louis, where he says he attended meetings held by Elder John Morgan. He professes to have read the Church works and to be anxious for baptism. He is about 20 years old. I warn all whom it may concern to beware of his deceptions as he has committed acts within the last two days that would warrant his being placed in jail. He gives his name as Gros.

HENRY RISER.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 24, 1882.

Mill Creek Ratification.—Last night there was a rousing, enthusiastic ratification meeting at Mill Creek. Mr. J. F. Suedaker was elected chairman and Mr. George G. Bailey secretary. The choir furnished sweet singing, which was rendered between the speeches. The reading of the People's platform was greeted with ringing plaudits, as were also the pointed speeches made by Hon. C. W. Penrose and Messrs. T. B. Lewis and John Nicholson. The declaration of principles of the People's Party and the candidacy of Hon. John T. Calne were unanimously sustained.

Lost His Money.—This morning a young man who stopped at the Overland House last night complained to the police that, while he was wrapped in sweet sleep he was relieved of $12.50 by some party unknown to make a raise without hard labor. It happened that in two rooms adjoining each other, without fastenings between—in one of which was the nuptial man—six different individuals spent the night. It also appeared that the door leading to the hall was unlocked and unlatched, making the search by officer Thomas for the missing money a hopeless scrutiny, terminating in an unfruitful result.

Death of "Susie Spencer."—By a notice elsewhere it will be seen that Mrs. J. H. Rice expired at 2:30 o'clock this morning, the cause of death being typhoid fever. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. Claudius V. Spencer, and born and reared in this city. As a young, bright, intelligent girl, years ago, when she gave promise of a brilliant future, she was familiarly and affectionately known as Susie Spencer, and it will be as the baming, sprightly petti kindhearted "Susie" that she will be remembered by her many friends.

The funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock a.m. on Sunday, at the residence of Mr. Spencer Clawson, Thirteenth Ward.
