

MERRYMAKING ENDS IN DISASTER

Many Excursionists Killed and Others Wounded.

TRAINS PLOW INTO PEOPLE.

Threw Them to Both Sides of the Track—Some Ground Under Wheels
Of the Engine.

Detroit, Mich., May 3.—A day of merry-making and celebration by 1,500 Polish excursionists from Toledo was brought to a close by a frightful catastrophe at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre streets at 8:30 o'clock to-night, in which at least seven of the excursionists were killed and a number of others, estimated at 50, injured. The excursion was given by the Polish Lancers of Toledo, over the Lake Shore railroad. The excursionists left the train at the corner of Canfield and Dequindre streets this morning and were greeted by a number of local Poles and Polish societies, who escorted the visitors to St. Joseph's church. An entertainment was held later at Harmon hall.

Despite their efforts hundreds crawled under the cover of the gates and walked down the dark tracks to await the arrival of their train, which could be seen coming up slowly from the station. Probably 1,000 persons were scattered along the tracks for two blocks, waiting to board the Lake Shore excursion train and secure seats. It was only a few blocks down the track, creeping carefully along.

Suddenly from out of the darkness came the Grand Trunk Chicago and New York express, known as the Pan-American flyer. It plowed through the mass of people, throwing them to both sides of the track, bruised and maimed, and grinding a number of them under the wheels.

The flyer was checked and stopped as quickly as possible, and backed to the scene of the catastrophe, where for two blocks the track was covered with mangled and dying people. Four of the dead were killed outright by the train and the others died after being taken to hospitals.

The tracks are very dark after Canfield street, and lanterns had to be brought in use to find the victims. A neighboring coal office, several neighboring houses and the gatekeeper's shack at the crossing were made tenacious hospitals, and the wounded were carried into them until the ambulances arrived a few minutes later. Every ambulance in the city was called to the scene, and the injured were soon under the care of surgeons in the hospitals.

Patrolman Schultz, who was one of the officers on duty at the crossing, said: "We made every effort to keep the people off the tracks, but it was impossible. There were 1,500 excursionists going back to Toledo, and twice that number of local Poles who had been entertaining them were down at the crossing to see them off. Those behind pushed and shoved the foremost ones and they crowded into the tracks, where they were downed or jumped over them, despite our best efforts."

"There was no warning whatever of the approaching Grand Trunk train. No whistle was blown, and the bell was not ringing. I should think that 1,000 was a small number for the people who were on the tracks for two blocks trying to get on the first aboard the Lake Shore train and thereby secure seats for the homeward trip."

"The Grand Trunk train came like a meter out of the darkness up the track and was through the crowd almost before I realized what had happened, and rescuers swarmed down the track. The cries and moans of the injured guided us in the search, and we picked them up from both sides of the track for two blocks. Some of the signs were so sickening to describe."

When Thomas H. Hart, the engineer who was in charge of the Grand Trunk train which ran into the crowd, was seen at his home tonight, he gave the following version of the affair: "The place where the accident occurred is not a regular stopping point for incoming passenger trains, and unless the engineer receives notice before reaching the crossing or has the signal turned against him he runs through without stopping."

"We were running down on time to-night, and when we reached Canfield avenue I noticed the headlight of the Lake Shore train standing at Canfield avenue, but this is a common occurrence. I paid no attention to it. The light from the other engine was shining in my eyes, and it was impossible for me to see the crowd on the track until it passed the other engine."

"When I first noticed the crowd the people were scattered all over the track and after blowing the whistle I applied the brakes, but it was impossible to stop the train in time to prevent running into them. We were running about twelve miles an hour, the usual speed at that place, and it was impossible to stop the train in time to prevent running into them. We were running about twelve miles an hour, the usual speed at that place, and it was impossible to stop the train in time to prevent running into them."

"Many in the crowd became excited and threatened to take my life. They threw bricks and stones through the cab windows, and I was finally forced to send for the police to protect me. Several of the crowd came into the cab with me."

AFTER TRAMPS.
Police Authorities Think They Tried
To Wreck a Train.

Stamford, Conn., May 4.—The police authorities are patrolling the railroad tracks and closely guarding the woods at Seleck's cut between South Beach and Stamford in effect to prevent any further acts of tramps who, it is believed, attempted to wreck two trains.

The accommodation train, westbound, as it entered the cut, crashed into a huge pile of railroad ties, which had been placed close to the outside rails. The engine struck the obstacle, but was not damaged, but the first two cars had the steps torn off and the sides of the cars were badly damaged. When the matter was reported to the police in this city a patrol of officers was sent back along the tracks and on what is known as track No. 1, two logs were found stretched across the rails. After the logs had been removed and while the officers were on their way to the city they saw several night men hurrying through the woods, it is believed these are men who attempted to wreck the train.

Little Hope for Sankey.
New York, May 4.—Very little hope is held out by the physicians that Ira D. Sankey, the suffering evangelist, who was associated for many years with the late Dwight L. Moody, will recover his sight. Some weeks ago an operation was performed on Mr. Sankey, and

PRIEST ACCUSED OF HORRIBLE CRIME

Rev. Ferdinand Walsch Charged
With Murder.

YOUNG WOMAN THE VICTIM.

Her Name is Agatha Reichlin—Her
Head was Crushed With a
Big Paving Stone.

Elyria, O., May 3.—Rev. Ferdinand Walsch, assistant pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart at Toledo, lies in the county jail here to-night, charged with the murder of Miss Agatha Reichlin, sister of Rev. Charles Reichlin, pastor of St. Joseph's Catholic church at Lorain, O. It is charged by the authorities that Rev. Walsch, who was a guest at the home of the latter, entered the young woman's room at the parsonage Thursday night during the absence of Rev. Charles Reichlin and crushed her head with a big paving stone.

Bloodhounds were taken to the scene of the crime early today and given the scent of the murderer, and they persistently led the officers to the room occupied by Rev. Walsch at the Reichlin home on the night of the murder.

The officers admit that the evidence against the priest is purely circumstantial, but it is said the chain is unusually strong.

While the feeling was very strong against the priest at Lorain today and a big crowd gathered when the officers boarded a electric car with the priest on route to the county jail here, there was no demonstration against the prisoner.

Father Walsch, when seen by a reporter in his cell tonight and asked for a statement, said: "All I have to say is that I am not guilty of any crime. I am innocent, and say that with a clear conscience."

"I am entirely blameless of any crime. This is an outrageous proceeding and a disgrace. It is a disgrace to the city and to the country. I am as innocent of the crime as a babe in its cradle. First they had me tell my story and I told it over and over again to them. Why did they not arrest Casimir Reichlin, who was also in the house? If I had been guilty of such a crime I would have fled from this place and gone to some place of hiding. If a man is guilty of such a crime it can be seen in the eye and on the face."

"A conscience tells its story on the face. My conscience is perfectly clear and the end of this will show me the situation. The Chinese laundrymen are working overtime and enjoying the situation."

SITUATION IN SALONICA.
Owing to Press Censorship Difficult
To Get Reliable Information.

London, May 3.—Owing to the existing censorship it is impossible to obtain reliable news from Salonica. The reports of a general massacre there probably are exaggerated, but the statements that several hundred were killed emanate from various points, including Constantinople, where it is alleged also that Turkey has decided to send an ultimatum to Bulgaria.

Two Italian warships have arrived at Salonica and the Porte, fearing that foreign troops will be landed, has requested Austria to withdraw her squadron.

It is reported from Uskub, European Turkey, that Turks are holding meetings in the mosques and discussing a general massacre of the Christian population in the event of dynamite outrages which, according to the prisoners arrested in Salonica, have been planned to occur at Constantinople, Uskub and Adrianople.

Albanians have plundered several Serbian villages near Prizren, Turkey. The Turkish troops made no attempt to hinder them.

Chicago Short of Clean Linen.
Chicago, May 4.—Serious as is the shortage in clean linen and napery in Chicago this week promises to bring a far worse condition of affairs unless the laundry workers' strike is ended. Rather than continue doing business with a crippled working force every large steam laundry in the city will close down today.

The proprietors have decided that even the suburban firms must look out their workers and last night they sent a committee to the city to request the firms there to join in the fight.

The hotels and restaurants of the downtown districts are already in straits for clean goods. A number of restaurants are using paper napkins. Most of the smaller hotels and some of the larger ones have notified guests of their inability to attend to "bunions" with clean linen.

The hand laundries of the city are overrun with business but should they run day and night they cannot relieve the situation. The Chinese laundrymen are working overtime and enjoying the situation.

Leo Receives the Kaiser.
Rome, May 3.—Emperor William was received by the pope today. He had a conference with the pope of 40 minutes' duration and then returned to the residence of the Prussian minister at the holy see.

The day was bright, and as the emperor and his suite traversed the streets of Rome he was enthusiastically acclaimed. His majesty presented Prince Frederick William and Prince Eitel to the pope.

At the Vatican the emperor was received with military honors by the Palatine guard and a platoon of gendarmes, and he was welcomed by the high dignitaries of the pontifical court. The visit of Emperor William was returned by Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state, at the Prussian legation.

Emperor William presented to the pope a large photograph of the Metz cathedral. The pope expressed his thanks for the gift, and remarked that the Metz cathedral was the most beautiful of the Prussian empire.

At Reims, Emperor William was surprised at the quickness of the pontiff in remarking that the one cathedral was a reproduction of the other.

Berlin, May 3.—David Belasco's "Du Barry" was produced for the first time in Germany at the Theatre des Westens last night. Frau Odilon of Vienna appeared in the title role. The play was splendidly staged and the house was filled. It was not considered a success, however, and the critics this morning exhaust their vocabularies in ridiculing the play.

CASE OF THE MISSIONARIES.
Ambassador Tower Sends a Lengthy Report on Them.

Washington, May 2.—A long mail report has been received at the state department from Ambassador Tower at Berlin, recounting the results of his investigation into complaints that certain American Mormon preachers had been expelled from Germany. These cases ante date the recent reports in the press of expulsions taken in the view that Mormon preachers are objectionable to German authorities and order and morality, this government can do nothing to prevent the expulsion of the missionaries, for it reserves a similar right to expulsion to itself. Of course, it could not admit any such right on the part of the German government if its missionaries were persecuted because they were Americans, but Mr. Tower's report negates this report.

The failure of the Berlin foreign office to hear of any recent approaches by the United States in the interest of the "Mormons" is probably because Mr. Tower has not yet had time to prepare his case.

MEN AND WOMEN HAVE A FIGHT

Occurred in Slavonic Roman Catholic Church, Joliet.

WENT IT LIKE CATS AND DOGS

When Police Arrived They Drew
Their Revolvers and Created
Great Consternation.

Joliet, Ill., May 3.—Women and men today fought hand to hand with each other and then fought hand in hand against the police in the Slavonic Roman Catholic church. The trouble was started by several women as the collectors were circulating through the church.

There were 2,000 men, women and children in the church when the fight began. In spite of all the protests of Father Kollar and others the church members fought with fists and pieces of furniture, knocking each other right and left. Some one ran from the church and called on the police for help.

In a few minutes a patrol wagon full of policemen drove up to the church and the patrolmen entered the edifice, which was filled with whacks, bombs, din and tumult. Bloody noses and lacerated faces were numerous. The men had been penned in by a cordon of angry women who held the stronger sex with clenched hands and books.

By the time the police arrived, some of the combatants had fled to the church doors and the police entered the church from the outside returned to the fight, armed with clubs, stones and revolvers. Those within left off fighting with each other and unitedly beset the police. The police without fired into the patrolmen from the rear.

Women and children cried out in terror at the sight and many men ran from the church or leaped out of the windows. Then the policemen drew revolvers and threatened to shoot unless order prevailed. The frightened combatants ceased fighting and the policemen began to make arrests. Of all the persons injured none had to be taken to the hospital.

Father Kollar, who entered into the midst of the fighting in an effort to calm his parishioners, escaped unharmed. Many arrests were made during the day, but no one knows exactly who started the fight or what it was about.

The Canadian Pacific has lent every possible assistance to the people in their emergency by furnishing special trains whenever asked for and by furnishing an abundance of cars for the removal of goods and passengers. At the time the exodus yesterday morning merchants were not permitted to load their stocks until the people had first had an opportunity to get household effects away.

Today an engine and train crew has been kept between Frank and Blairmont, hauling to the latter place cattle and every description of stock as loaded. Most of the merchants had determined yesterday not to move their stocks, but all have now consented to take them and because of this the H. L. Frank, majority owner of the coal mining property, arrived today with General Manager Gobo. Mr. Frank, when seen, expressed himself feelingly as regretting for more the loss of life that he would have done the complete destruction of the mine. He said he had no statement to make relative to his intentions regarding the property.

PREACHER AND CONSTABLE.

Shot and Killed by a Mob at Caruthersville, Mo.

Caruthersville, Mo., May 3.—D. M. Malone, a preacher for a sect known as "Sanctified People," and Constable W. J. Moonen were shot and killed by a mob last night at Wardfield, 15 miles west of Caruthersville. Malone had been proselyting in this county for several months and much feeling had been aroused against him.

A woman named Mrs. Frill having left her husband, caused much agitation recently by living with Malone, who had left his own wife, Mrs. Alice Malone. The preacher's wife objected vigorously to this arrangement, and Malone declared her insane and caused her to be detained in jail pending an inquiry.

The action aroused the citizens to a frenzy and a warrant was issued against Malone and Mrs. Frill, on the charge of unlawfully living together. Constable Moonen last night arrested both, and because of the lateness of the hour decided not to take them to Caruthersville until morning, but instead took his prisoners to his own home for the night.

Shortly after midnight there was a knock at the front door and Moonen opened the door. He was shot dead in the doorway. A mob streamed into the house and seized Malone, dragging him out into the darkness. Mrs. Frill frantically begged that no harm be done to him, but she was roughly pushed inside the house and the mob departed. Malone was taken to a wood some distance away and shot to death. The mob then dispersed. No harm was offered to Mrs. Frill or to Mrs. Moonen.

WAS HOOPER YOUNG INNOCENT?

A Man Once Associated with Him
Says He Was.

New York, May 3.—The body of a man who shot himself last night in a cab at the Liberty street ferry was identified today as that of Ernest A. Falsaeur, a master in a training school in Brooklyn in which Hooper Young, the murderer of Mrs. Pulitzer, was formerly educated. The identification revealed the extraordinary story which Falsaeur told at the district attorney's office a few hours before he shot himself and told an assistant district attorney that he knew that Young was innocent of the murder and that he was in a position to prove it.

He also said that he himself was engaged to a young woman who had been murdered, and that her body would be discovered in a few days. Then, he said, he would give information to the police and would be able to identify the murderer. The young woman referred to was found today. She denied that she was engaged to Falsaeur, and was drinking heavily and appeared to be crazy.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

Government Publishes Two Volumes
On Their Legal Relations.
Washington, May 3.—The government printing office has just issued two quarto volumes, entitled "Indian Affairs, Law and Treaties," compiled by Director of Congress by Charles L. Knapp, clerk of the senate committee on Indian affairs. The volumes contain every treaty made by the United States with the Indians and all the laws, executive orders and proclamations relating to the Indians up to Dec. 1, 1907, together with statistics of tribes, trust funds, etc.

The commission of Indian affairs in its annual reports has urged for some time past that a compilation be made, for the reason that the past orders relating to the Indians were scattered through a great number and variety of public documents, making it exceedingly difficult to locate that one had before him all legislation on any given question relative to the Indians. The present compilation is indexed carefully and it is in general arrangement follows the form of the statutes-at-large.
