LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THE IMMIGRATION.-We are informed that Elder David M. Stuart has telegraphed President Young that Captain John E. Pace's company of immigrants left Omaha at noon yesterday in nine ars. All well. Their names appear in another column.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug., 13, 1869.

Elder Geo. Q. Cunnon:—Dear Sir.—Feeling an interest for the advancement of Zion, and an interest for the advancement of Zion, and an intense gratification when iruth is told concerning her, I gladly tell you that on the 11th inst., I listened to a lecture delivered by Mrs. St Clair in San Francisco.

Her subject was "Mormon Women, or six months in Utah." The discourse was ably written, and truthfully portrayed, as far as she went, the characteristics of "Mormon women." She stated, although differing from most lecturers and writers, in her ing from most lecturers and writers, in her opinion respecting this strange people she could not speak other than truthfully and must represent them as she found

Her views were clear and comprehensive. She spoke with reverence of the virtues of "Mormon women," and in praise of their self-denial, of their sympathy and charity for strangers, not to be equalled in any other denomination; of their devotion to God's laws, as they believed them, their cheerfulness and hope, amounting to knowledge with them, regarding the Great

The audience was attentive and seemingly deeply interested, and remained, with but two or three exceptions, until the close of the lecture. (Setting in the gallery, I observ-ed this), notwithstanding the statement of as. F. paper, the next morning, that "The people assembled were restless, and kept leav-

After the lecture, I spoke with Mrs. St. Clair, thanking her, in the name of my people, for her candor, and telling her, it was a brave woman who would dare to tell the truth, when it clashed with public opinion. She thought her sex would protect her from any harm.

Eloquence and truth will make them-selves heard and felt, they command at-tention and respect, with no distinction in regard to sect.

I am respectfully yours, CHARLOTTE I GODBE.

SELLING LIQUOR ON SUNDAY .- This is orning John Lollin, Paul Engelbrecht, Thomas Burke and Robert Cleghorn, were charged before his Honor, Alderman Clinton, with selling liquor on the Sabbath contrary to the city ordinance. The char-ges having been proved the prisoners were nned $50 each.

PROBATE COURT .- In the case of Hubert Humes, defendant's attorney having filed a motion in arrest of judgment, the matter was argued before his Honor Judge Smith | Evans D L on Friday last. This morning the Judge overruled the motion, and sontenced the Fawks J3 prisoners to two years' confinement in the penitentiary.

SCHOOL EXCURSION. - Yesterday the Fuller R.O. scholars of the 14th Ward Sabbath School spent a verry pleasant day at Calder's Farm, under the direction of Elder Thos. Taylor, their Superintendent, and the teachers of the school. The youngsters gathered at the ward school-house to the num-ber of nearly four hundred, and from thence proceeded to the ground, accompanied by a good string band. In the evening, af-ter the young folks had returned home, the parents and friends enjoyed themseives in a dance by moonlight.

NOT ALL BAD, -Brother Paul A. Schettler left a fine specimen of the "Early Goodrich" potato, grown by him this season, from seed obtained from General Clarke, late U.S. Surveyor General in this Terri-tory. Brother Schettler planted a couple of dozen sometime in May, which have yielded four bushels, all thoroughly sound. One root had thirty four potatoes.

Found,-On Saturday evening, a span of horses and harness; the loser can obtain information of their whereabouts by applying to the police at the City Hall.

CALLED.-Mr. W. H. McKay, the present proprietor of the Revere House, called upon us this afternoon, and wished us to correct a misapprehension that is likely to arise through that portion of Mr.

A. Lagmark's communication in yester-day's issue, which refers to "mine host of the only gentile hotel in Salt Lake City."

Mr. McKay considers that this reflects unjustly upon him, and he desires to have the public made aware of the fact that the Revere House has recently changed hands, he having purchased it from its former proprietors, and that he, Mr. McKay, was not implicated in any way in that case, but considered it a great outrage.

MADAME SCHELLER,-This charming artiste is at present in the city. She will probably remain here a few weeks in pleasant retirement, to recruit her health before en-tering upon her engagement in California.

MORMON PROSECTING.-The Chicago Evening Journal, of a recent date says:

"Two Mormon Elders have been proselyting in North Carolina, and managed in two counties to make one hundred and thirty converts. It is said that the people seemed to be deeply imbued with the peculiar doctrines of the sect, and to have full faith in their leaders. They have sold off their property, wherever practicable, and will make a fresh start in the land of promise. Some of them, being unable to dispose of their lands, let them rather than to be left behind."

We have still a number of accounts of these celebrations on hand, unpublished, the last received, came yesterday, from Oxford, Cache Co. We should be pleased to publish them, but they are so very similar in character, and are now so far behind that we are compelled to decline doing so. In publishing some and not publishing others we have not been influenced. lishing others we have not been influenced in the least by partiality or preference; we published those first which came first to hand. If all the accounts had reached us in three or four days after the Celebrations should have tried to notice all; but as this vanot possible, and as they have come stragence of the company of the their perusal at this late date council be of the least interest to the grammass of our readers.
