LOCAL NEWS.

Arizona Missionaries.—Another company of missionaries will start by rail for Arizona on the 30th of June. All who propose going on that date will report as early as practicable to Joseph F. Smith, Box 38, Salt Lake City.

Skeleton Leaves.—Sister A. C. Smyth, of Fountain Green, Sanpete County, has shown us some very beautiful work in skeletonized leaves, the work of her own hands, by a secret process. It was in the form of a cross, embossed in box-elder leaves, with one or two other plants by way of variety. They make a very handsome ornament under a glass case.

Decoration Day Excursion.—The prospects are, we are told, that the excursion on the Utah Central Railway to Ogden, Provo, Springville and Payson on Decoration Day will be the largest and most pleasant of the season. Tickets can now be obtained as far south as Payson, and are going off lively. Every person desiring a pleasant holiday may avail themselves of this opportunity to visit friends in the mountain rest and recreation in the country.

The Song Garland.—We have just received a copy of this most and excellent work. It contains a number of sweet, fresh songs, choruses, duets, trios and quartettes, suitable for entertainments, etc., all of which are original and new. Valuable instructions are interspersed, after Mr. Stephen's method of teaching vocal music, the words and music being on one page. It is published by Dwyer & Co., and is a most useful and beautiful book of its kind has never been issued here. Price 50c.

"Bunch of Keys."—It is the most natural thing in the world to expect a large audience at the Opera House tonight. One of the funniest things ever put upon the stage, if report speaks truly, will be seen in the presentation by the "Sparks" Company of the laughable, satirical comedy, "Bunch of Keys." We have said so much of late concerning it, that it would be superfluous to repeat it. By to-morrow evening the whole town will be ringing with its praises. To-night and Wednesday and Thursday evenings, at the Walker Opera House.

How to Save Money.—The following item from the Idaho Democrat in reference to the Idaho Statesman contains a suggestion that would be worth considering to other sheets, that chiefly all up their editorial columns with anti-"Mormon" papabulism.

The Statesman omitted its stereotyped Mormon platitudes yesterday. The boys in that office "made" the news, and in their acknowledgments to the Statesman, they used the words "Mormon" and other words in some instances whole paragraphs which they cut from the Statesman at one sweep; while two of the compositors have repeated so often that they now set up the desired quality of Mormon platitudes without copy.

M'Alle Rhea.—This distinguished artist, supported by her own company, will appear at the Salt Lake Theatre, June 4th, for four nights in a choice selection from her best characters. The following clipping is from the Montpelier Herald:

"The last attraction was M'Alle Rhea, and for the four nights she appeared the house was filled by the elite and intelligence of the city. M'Alle Rhea needs no words of praise from me; she is without exception the most finished and conscientious actress on the stage in this continent. Her whole heart and soul is in her work, and she lives to elevate and ennoble the drama. Since poor Adelaide Neilson's time no other artist has so completely captured the theatrical public in this city. Her several roles, whether in the heroic drama or comedy, were unsurpassed for their beautiful portrayal of our best critics, Rhea in "Rou-Frou," surpassed her in "An Unusual Match," she fairly rivaled such an artist as Miss Redick. However, the role of Belle-Iola in "Richard's Wager," is one of her most charming performances. Her acting and the recitals were inimitable. Rhea has won all hearts, the ladies being even more demonstrative in their acknowledgments than the 'lords of creation,' and worthily is all that deserved. During the week M'Alle Rhea was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Beauregard and Dr. and Mrs. Wheeler. The heavy and laden of the city were present at the receptions. The party left on Friday morning for Ottawa. The new Governor-General and his wife were to be present on the next night to see Rhea in 'The Girl of the Year.'

Eveline M. Short.—We have received from North Ogden an account of the funeral of Sister Eveline Matthews Short, which took place there on May 19th, being conducted by Elder R. G. Berrett. The speakers were Elders Amos Maycock and R. G. Berrett. Following are some interesting facts concerning the life and character of the deceased:

She was born about the year 1802, of Lamante parents, and was stolen from her mother by the Indians when about three years of age. The Utes returned from the West where they had been on a "stealing tour," bringing with them four children they had carried off. They went into the southern part of Utah, where they disposed of the children to some of the Saints. Sister Matthews was one of them, and was taken into the family of Bishop Grover. Some time after Bishop Grover's daughter married Brother Daniel Matthews, taking the little Indian girl into his family, where she was cared for till she became a woman. She was baptized into the Church when eight years old, and was very pious and devoted. About five years, received a testimony that the faith she had embraced was true, and bore her testimony hundred of times to that effect.

She also received a knowledge that the Book of Mormon was a true record of her forefathers, which caused her great joy and satisfaction. About five years ago she went to live with the Hilton family, at Virgin City, Washington Territory, after that with Brother Samuel Richards' family. About 18 months ago, Brother Augustus Short went to Virgin City, where he became acquainted with Sister Matthews, and on the 14th of June, 1883, they were married. Sister Short went to North Ogden the latter part of May the same year. She was a kind and affectionate wife and a constant and true Latter-day Saint. She wrote a number of articles for the Contributor.

"Hearts of Oak."—The bad state of the weather did not prevent a good-sized audience from witnessing this exceedingly beautiful and interesting play at the Theatre last evening, and it is certainly very probable that had there been no rain, the house would have been crowded in every part. The play has been seen here before under the title of "Chums," but since then it has been remodeled and improved. The scenery is beautiful, in fact no more realistic stage settings have graced our dramatic boards. Every change was a surprise and evoked continuous applause.

Of the acting it can be said that it was uniformly good. A little more spirit in some places would not hurt but where the playing was generally so satisfactory it would be invidious and dangerous to pick out minor defects. Each actor has a part in which he or she can shine and most of them take advantage of it. The audience paid strict attention and to all appearance were highly entertained.

"Hearts of Oak" is a play worth seeing, for it illustrates some of the noblest traits of humanity—almost too noble to be natural—and delineates with pathetic truth some very beautiful domestic scenes and incidents. It will be repeated to-night. Herne in "Rip Van Winkle" to-morrow evening. Don't fail to see him.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.—Proceedings before Judge James Hunter, on Monday, May 26th, 1884.

People etc. vs Fred Hopt, murder; the time for hearing the motion to amend record extended till Friday, May 30th, and time for clerk to transmit transcript on appeal accordingly extended.

Alice E. Porter vs Chas. H. Porter; on motion of plaintiff dismissed on payment of costs.

People etc. vs Wm. Stokes, Jr., and Joseph Stokes, grand larceny; grand jury having ignored the indictment, defendants are discharged and sureties exonerated.

P. Auerbach et al vs Robert Mulhall et al; levy of execution stayed until further order of Court.

Tuesday, May 27th.

L. B. Mattison vs Wm. Hyde; judgment for plaintiff as prayed—$400.04.

In re estate of J. B. Sullivan, Silver Mining Co., six cases; dismissed.

People etc. vs Joseph Biddlecome, murder; trial resumed and still proceeding.

Returned Missionary.—Elder John R. Ormond, of Logan, who recently returned from his tour to the Northwestern and Eastern States, called in on Saturday to give a brief report of his labors. He left home April 8th, 1882, and labored principally in Pennsylvania, though he spent the first month in Minnesota, after which he visited Iowa, Missouri, Wisconsin, and Illinois. There he talked with a great many on "Mormonism," and much enjoyed his two weeks' stay in that city. He next proceeded to Philadelphia and labored there and all over the State, more or less, principally in the mining regions. His traveling companion was R. H. Dale, formerly an avocated avocated, one in New Jersey. They enjoyed their labors and met with no ill-treatment, though occasionally they had to sleep out of doors. Thirty Saints emigrated from that vicinity during the two years of Brother Ormond's absence.

Sandwich Islands.—We have seen a letter from Elder B. Morris Young, son of Sister Margaret P. Young, who is on a mission on the Sandwich Islands. He expected to leave Honolulu on the 8th inst., for the field of labor to which he was appointed at the late Conference held on the 15th inst. He expects to be absent from the headquarters of the Mission five months. He writes in good spirits and appears to enjoy his labors. Up to date of writing his operations had been for a considerable time confined to the plantation and his going into the traveling ministry is viewed by him as a pleasant change. He and his wife and family were in good health.

Dr. Thompson's Death.—Dr. John D. Thompson, a well known physician at this city, died on Sunday afternoon at about half past one o'clock, and was buried to-day under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity. He was a native of Huntsville, Alabama, and was born July 4th, 1828. He has been in the West since 1858. He has been gradually failing for the past year, since undergoing an operation for a hernia, which operation it was a badly disposed, genital nature, and leaves an enemy that was aware of, here or elsewhere.

From Huntington.—We are indebted to "Jeff. A. H." of Huntington, Emery County, for a communicating typesetters' specimen of the Idaho Statesman, a general character of that place. The reason it does not appear in our columns is that it is not generally the same story as a letter from W. H. H. of the same place, which has appeared in the paper already. It will be pleased to hear from the gentleman again.

The Caterpillar Again.—Father Lorenzo D. Young sends in the following:

"As the caterpillars are beginning their destructive work among the fruit trees, I thought I would make known my way of dealing with them. I use a sponge (but a syringe will do) and by putting a small quantity of coal-oil on the top of the caterpillar it will run away and kill every one that it touches. I have found this to be much quicker and cheaper than burning any other way. In the morning, before they begin to scatter on the tree, is the time to destroy them. Or, if it is raining they will gather in bunches."

Brother George Buckle, of the 10th Ward, also says that the above is an excellent plan to kill the insects. Whether coal oil will injure the buds, we are not informed.

"Prickly Ash Bitters" is an unfailing specific for all complaints arising from derangement of the functions of the liver. It purifies the blood and infuses new life into the invalid. Pains in the side, headache, bilious attacks, etc., are sure indications that a corrective is needed. "Prickly Ash Bitters" is especially adapted for these complaints. It arouses a torpid liver to action and restores it to a healthy condition.

A high mandarin of China, in his letter to the Chinese to Dr. King for having introduced Ayer's Pills into the Celestial Empire, called them "Curing Seeds," very appropriate name. They are sweet, they cure, and are, therefore, the most profitable "seeds" a sick man can invest in.

BRITANNIA STANDS UNRIVALLED. Those troubled with rheumatism, who have tried other remedies and still are unrelieved, will certainly obtain relief within three days, and generally within six hours, by taking BRITANNIA. This great remedy was discovered by a brilliant English physician of great experience, and who has never lost a patient to whom this medicine was administered. BRITANNIA is not a lotion, no external application can permeate with rheumatism, which is a disease of the blood. BRITANNIA is prepared with the greatest skill and care, and full being taken in a wineglass of cold water immediately finds its way to the blood, where it corrects the pain-causing element, removes it immediately by purifying the life-giving fluid, and gradually builds up the entire system. Persons who have used this valuable preparation in Utah, find it so that nothing ever helped them as BRITANNIA has done. Many references to Salt Lake City and elsewhere can be given.
